BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of H. R. bill No. 904, as follows:

An Act fixing the pay of assessors in the several townships of the second class

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the pay of assessors in each township of the second class of this Commonwealth shall be three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) per day for each day actually spent in the performance of their duties

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are repealed

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman, the author of this bill, a question.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery. Mr. Kern, premit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KERN, Yes, sir.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, what is the pay of the assessors as now covered by this bill?

Mr. KERN. The pay of the assessors in second class townships is $2.50 a day and this bill will make it $3.50.

Mr. ROCKWELL. How much per day?

Mr. KERN. Mr. Speaker, is our county the Commissioner can specify the number of days given to an assessor to do the work. Any one knows that $2.50 a day to go around a township and take assessments is entirely too small. An assessor must hire a horse and buggy, and $3.50 per day would only be a small pay.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Section 10 Any condition precedent the performance or occurrance of which is contested by any adverse pleading shall be distinctly specified by amendment to his pleading by the plaintiff or defendant as the case may be subject thereto an averment of the performance or occurrence of all conditions precedent necessary for the case of the plaintiff or defendant shall be implied in his pleadings and if the opposing party shall in his adverse pleading allege the non-performance or non-occurrence of any such condition precendent the performance or occurrence of such condition precedent shall in the particular and to the extent contested and no further be set forth by an amendment as of course to the original pleading to be filed and served within fifteen days after service of such adverse pleading

Section 11 The plaintiff may unite in the same proceeding any causes for relief or redress at law or any causes for relief or redress in equity or any causes for divorce or any other causes in any proceeding of the same general nature but causes for relief or redress in one kind of proceeding as at law shall not be united with causes for relief or redress in another kind of proceeding as in equity or in divorce Whenever causes for relief or redress are improperly united the entire pleading shall on motion and after notice be stricken from the record and a new pleading ordered on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the court may deem just Whenever causes for relief or redress are properly united but the court shall on motion before the trial or hearing and after notice determine that the trial or hearing shall be confined to certain of the said causes as a matter of the convenient disposition thereof proper amendments shall be made accordingly for the exclusion of the remaining causes and for the disposition thereof as shall be convenient and just

Section 12 Every pleading and every motion under this act as signed by the party or his counsel shall be deemed a certificate by every person signing the same that he has read the pleading or motion that there is good ground in his opinion for the same that no scandalous matter is contained in the pleading or motion and that it is not interposed for delay

Section 13 The petiton by the plaintiff shall set forth the cause of the plaintiff in accordance with the requirements of this act It shall have attached to it copies of all notes contracts books entries or other writings on which the plaintiff's case is founded or a particular reference to the records of any court sitting in the county in which said cause is brought or to the record of any deed mortgage instrument of writing or other public record recorded registered or contained in the office of the recorder of deeds register of wills or other public official in said county if any on which the plaintiff's case is founded which said particular reference shall be sufficient in lieu of a copy thereof It shall conclude with prayers for the relief or redress to which the plaintiff claims to be entitled one of which prayers shall in all cases be in substance "That the defendant make answer hereto within fifteen days after service hereof" It shall be signed by the plaintiff or his attorney and verified by affidavit as hereinafter provided

Section 14 No rule or notice to answer other than the prayer for an answer as provided in the thirteenth section hereof shall be required or permitted

Section 15 Pleas to the jurisdiction pleas in abatement and any other dilatory pleas are hereby abolished Every defense heretofore presentable by such pleas shall hereafter be made by motion as of course setting forth the reasons therefor and where any matter of fact is alleged therein such motion shall be verified by affidavit

Section 16 Demurrers are hereby abolished Every defense is the pleading of the plaintiff herein called a petition heretofore presentable by demurrer shall hereafter be made by motion either for the dismissal of such cause or for a more specific petition Such motion shall be of course and shall contain the reasons on which it is based Such motion shall be filed and served within fifteen days after service of the petition If the same be overruled the defendant must answer within five days thereafter or judgment by default for want of an answer may be entered in accordance with the provisions of section seventeen of this act

Section 17 The answer by the defendant shall set forth the case of the defendant in accordance with the requirements of this act The answer shall be filed within fifteen days after service of the petition otherwise judgment may on motion as of course verified by affidavit be entered against the defendant by the prothonotary or clerk of the court Service of a copy of the said answer shall be made within forty-eight hours after filing otherwise judgment may on motion verified by affidavit and after notice be granted by the court unless injustice would be done thereby The answer shall have attached to it copies of all documents or a particular reference to any public record on which the defendant relies as is required by this act for the petition It shall be verified by affidavit as hereinafter provided

Section 18 The answer shall contain a specific admission or denial or explanation of each allegation of the petition set out in numbered paragraphs corresponding with the numbered paragraphs of the petition except that if the defendant be without knowledge or without information sufficient to found a belief he shall so state and demand proof and such statement shall operate as a denial Allegations in the petition except as to damages if not denied shall be deemed to be admitted except as against a person under legal disability such as an infant lunatic or other person non compos mentis and not under the legal care of a guardian or committee party to such cause The answer in admitting any allegation of the petition need not repeat its words but may simply say "admitted"

Section 19 The answer may state as many defenses in the alternative regardless of consistency as the defendant deems essential to his defense

Section 20 When the answer or reply is made by an executor administrator guardian committee or other person acting in the cause in a representative capacity he need only state the facts he admits to be true and that he believes that there is a just and lawful defense to the remainder

Section 21 Unless a set-off or counter-claim be alleged in the answer in which case only shall a reply be required or permitted the cause shall be deemed at issue and any new or affirmative matter in the answer or in the reply shall be deemed to be denied by the adverse party without any further or other pleading No formal joinder of issue shall be required or permitted

Section 22 When a defendant relies on a set-off or counter-claim he must first answer the allegations of the petition and then set out his set-off or counter-claim under the heading "Set-off" or "Counter-claim" The set-off or counter-claim shall be set forth in accordance with the requirements of this act and shall continue the consecutive paragraphing of the answer It shall be no objection to a set-off or counter-claim that it sounds in unliquidated damages or that the proceeding is at law and the set-off or counter-claim arises in equity or vice versa The answer containing any set-off or counter-claim shall conclude with prayers for the relief or redress to which the defendant claims to be entitled one of which prayers shall in all such cases be in substance "That the plaintiff make reply to the set-off and counter-claim (for either of them as the case may be) contained in this answer within fifteen days after service thereof"

Section 23 A set-off or counter-claim shall have the same effect as a cross proceeding so as to enable the court to pronounce a final judgment in the cause both on the original and on the cross proceeding But the court may on motion by the plaintiff reasonably made before trial if in its opinion such set-off or counter-claim cannot be conveniently disposed of in the pending cause refuse permission to the defendant to avail himself therein and order such set-off or counter-claim to be treated as a separate pending cause with or without new pleadings If in any case in which the defendant sets up a counter-claim for which he might have a certificate in his favor the case of the plaintiff is stayed discontinued or dismissed the counter-claim may nevertheless be proceeded with

Section 24 Whenever a set-off or counter-claim is set forth in the answer the plaintiff shall file and serve his response thereto verified by affidavits as hereinafter provided which shall be called his "reply" and which shall be set forth in accordance with the requirements of this act The reply shall be filed within fifteen days after the service of the answer and shall be served within forty-eight hours thereafter The reply shall make response to each allegation of the set-off or counter-claim in paragraphs consecutively numbered to correspond to the pertinent paragraphs of the answer and shall be so far as the same are applicable governed by the requirements of this act relating to the answer

Section 25 Where in any proceeding a set-off or counter-claim is established against the case of the plaintiff the court shall grant such relief or redress either legal or equitable whether such legal proceeding be at law or in equity as shall be just

Section 26 No notice of special matter of defense shall be required or permitted all such matter shall be contained in the pleading of the party relying thereon

Section 27 The petition and the answer with the reply if any shall constitute the issues in the cause and neither party shall be permitted at the trial or hearing to present any claim or defense not in issue as aforesaid

Section 28 Judgment may be entered on motion before the prothonotary or clerk of the court as the case may be for the want of an answer or for the amount specifically admitted by the answer to be due The plaintiff may move for judgment for want of a sufficient answer to the whole or any part of his case When the answer contains a set-off or counter-claim the defendant may move for judgment for want of a reply or for the amount specifically admitted by the reply to be due or for want of a sufficient reply to the whole or any part of the set-off or counter-claim and the court may enter judgement in favor of the plaintiff or the defendant as justice may require with leave to proceed for the balance claimed Such motion for judgment shall all be as of course and shall contain the reasons on which they are based On any such judgment damages shall be assessed in the mode now provided by law

Section 29 Amendments shall be allowed as of course or by the court as the case may be to the petition to the answer or to the reply at any stage of the cause as justice may require in accordance with the present practice and on such terms as to costs or otherwise as the court shall determine Service of the amendment shall be made on the adverse party or his attorney within five days after the allowance thereof unless a different time be fixed by the court or by this act To such amendment the adverse party shall respond if necessary by his answer or reply if not then filed or if then filed by suitable amendment to such answer or reply as the case may be within fifteen days after the service of such amendment Wherever a pleading be amended time to the adverse party shall run from the service of the amendment

Section 30 The petition the answer and the reply shall be signed by the party pleading the same or his attorneys and shall be verified by the affidavit of such party or if he be unable by absence illness or other adequate cause to make the same which inability and the reason therefor shall be set forth in the said affidavit then by some person having knowledge of the facts and duly authorized by such party to make such affidavit Where there is more than one plaintiff or one defendant as the case may be then such affidavit may be made by one of the plaintiffs or defendants only subject to the power of the court on motion and after notice to order that any or all the other plaintiffs or defendants verify the pleading by affidavit to be filed and served within such time as the court may order but if the prayer of the petition or of the answer require an answer or reply as the case may be from all the defendants or plaintiffs as the case may be then such answer or reply shall be verified by the affidavit or affidavits of them all

Section 31 No essential allegation now required by law in any statement of claim declaration petition application bill in equity libel in divorce affidavit of defense answer in equity answer in divorce plea or any other pleading or paper by whatsoever name known filed in any civil proceeding as defined by this act shall be deemed to be abrogated by this act but every such allegation not inconsistent with the requirements of this act shall still be required in the pleading of the plaintiff or defendant as the case may be as provided for in this act

Section 32 The time fixed for the filing or service of any pleading under this act may be enlarged by the court on motion and after notice for cause shown

Section 33 The true intent and meaning of this act is that it is designated to furnish a complete system of procedure within the limits of the subject matter hereof but the substantive rights of the parties are not in any way intended to be affected hereby

Section 34 The court may make such additional rules not inconsistent with this act as shall be deemed advisable

Section 35 This act may be cited as the "Practice Act one thousand nine hundred and thirteen"

Section 36 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 37 This act shall take effect on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and fourteen

On the question,
Shall the bill pass?

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, May 22nd, 1913.

The House met at 10.00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (George E. Alter) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. J. E. Wright, offered the following prayer:

O God, as these great philanthropic institutions pass before us in review, may we be thoughtful and considerate and sympathetic; may no mere professional attitude nor unfeeling spirit enter into our dealings with these great questions. We thank Thee for the multiplicity and variety of these institutions where the sick are sheltered and where the destitute are gathered and where there is such skillful and loving ministration. We thank Thee for the generosity of the State in providing for them. It is an evidence to us that we are walking in the footsteps of the Master Himself, who has left upon record for our inspiration those beautiful words: "Inasmuch as Thou hast done it unto one of the least of these. the little ones, thou hast done so unto me." Wilt Thou bless the great charitable institutions of this Commonwealth. May they be under efficient management; may no evil-minded man or woman obtain control; may no serious mistakes be made and no great wrongs committed. Wilt Thou remember the suffering in sympathy and tenderness and give them "Beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness." and Thy name shall have the praise of it forever. Amen.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, when, upon motion of Mr. James A. Dunn, the Journal was approved and the further reading dispensed with.

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1302.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 21, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representative of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 1302, entitled "A Supplement to an act entitled 'An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof, providing a revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith,' approved the eighteenth day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and eleven, amending sections two thousand six hundred and twenty-two, two thousand six hundred and twenty-four, two thousand six hundred and twenty-six and two thousand six hundred and twenty-seven thereof, and also conferring upon taxpayers similar rights in regard to reports of auditors of school districts of the second, third and fourth classes filed prior to the passage of this act as are hereby conferred by the above enumerated amending sections upon taxpayers in regard to such reports of auditors hereafter filed and providing a similar method of disposition of appeals from such reports of auditors filed prior to the passage of this act as is provided hereby in regard to appeals from reports of auditors filed subsequently hereto."

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1318.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 20, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 1318, entitled "An Act to amend section four of an act approved the nineteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred eleven entitled 'An Act providing for the election of councilmen in the several boroughs of this Commonwealth and fixing the time and manner of the organization of the town councils therein.' "

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1362.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 21, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 1362, entitled "An Act authorizing H. W. Brown and D. E. Brown, citizens of Cambria County, Pennsylvania, doing business as the Woodman Lumber Company, to bring suit in the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County against the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania."

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1370.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 20, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 1370, entitled "An Act to amend section five hundred and thirty-nine of an act entitled 'An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof, providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws, general, special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith,' approved the eighteenth day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and eleven so as to define what a properly certified duplicate therein required to be furnished to each school district of the second class at the expense of the city shall consist of and the form in which the same shall be printed and indexed."

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1426.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 20, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 1426, entitled "An Act amending section one of an act entitled 'An Act concerning liens of manufacturers and throwsters of cotton, woolen and silk goods,' approved the twenty-third day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and seven by extending the provisions thereof to include dyers of cotton, wool or silk yarns."

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1448.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 21, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 1448, entitled "An Act to give the status of a depositor as to preference over other creditors to persons, firms or corporations accepting from a bank or trust company its checks in payment of a depositor's check."

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1464.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 20, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 1464, entitled "An Act regulating the openings of buildings upon, over or under external fire escapes."

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1658.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 20, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 1658, entitled "An Act to amend section eighteen of an act entitled An Act providing for the original location, laying out and construction of public roads or highways in several counties of this Commonwealth and for the permanent improvement of certain public roads or highways therein making such originally constructed or improved roads and highways county roads, authorizing the relocation, opening, straightening, widening, extension and alteration of the same and the vacation of so much of any road as may thereby become unnecessary, providing that the county commissioners of any county may prescribe rules regulating the use of roads constructed or maintained by the various counties and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof, providing for the taking of property for such improvement, the compensation to be paid therefor and the payment of damages resulting from such taking and the manner in which such damages may be determined, providing for the payment of the costs and expenses of such construction or improvement and in thereafter repairing and maintaining said roads authorizing the levy of a tax or the issuing of bonds to provide a fund for the expense thereof, prescribing a method for improving a county road lying within or traversing a borough and apportioning the cost of such improvement and authorizing the vacation of any county road,' approved the eleventh day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and eleven by authorizing counties to contract with boroughs in the improvement of a borough street connecting with a county road, providing for the cost thereof, prescribing the method by which the contract for such improvement shall be made and imposing the cost of maintenance of such street on the borough."

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1074.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 14, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I herewith return, without my approval, House Bill No. 1074, entitled "An Act authorizing municipalities to purchase the entire capital stock and bonds of bridge companies owning bridges situated wholly or partly within the limits of such municipalities and exempting such stock and bonds owned by municipalities from State taxation."

This bill misconceives the method of taxation of capital stock. Capital stock is not taxed in the hands of holders, but the tax is levied against the corporation. Where the municipality holds part but not all of the capital stock, an exemption from tax as therein provided would inure to the benefit of all other owners of the stock of such company, and not to the municipality only.

Aside from this objection the bill seems to be in conflict with Section 7 of Article IX of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which provides:

"The General Assembly shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township or incorporated district to become a stockholder in any company, association or corporation, or to obtain or appropriate money for, or to loan its credit to, any corporation, association, institution or individual."

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection this veto message will lie on the table. The Chair hears no objection. So ordered.

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1077.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 15, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1077, entitled: "A Supplement to an act entitled 'An Act for the government of cities of the second class,' approved the seventh day of March Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one, creating and regulating a forestry department, defining its jurisdiction, providing a method for the collection of the cost of planting, removing and changing shade trees along the highways from the abutting property or property owners and providing for the acquisition by said cities by purchase of condemnation of lands for certain purposes upon the recommendation of the forestry board."

A bill almost identical in form was passed at the last session of the Legislature, and in vetoing it I said:

"In my judgment, this legislation is unnecessary, for the reason that under existing legislation cities of the second class have full power to acquire lands and premises for public parks and to govern and maintain the same, and likewise have full power 'to regulate the planting and protection of shade trees in the streets.'"

I see no reason to change the views then expressed.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection this veto message will lie on the table. The Chair hears no objection. So ordered.

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1550.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 20, 1913.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1550, entitled: "An Act to further amend section two of an act entitled 'An Act to establish a county court for the County of Allegheny and prescribing its powers and duties regulating the procedure therein and providing for the expenses thereof,' approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven as amended by an act entitled 'An Act to amend section two of an act entitled 'An Act t oestablish a county court for the County of Allegheny and prescribing its powers and duties regulating the procedure therein and providing for the expenses thereof,' approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven and changing the election of the judges therein mentioned from the general election to the municipal election as now provided by law in accordance with the requirements of the Constitution of Pennsylvania,' approved the sixth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven by increasing the salaries of the judges of said court."

By this amendment it is proposed to increase the salaries of the associate judges of the county court for the County of Allegheny from $5,000 to $6,000 per annum, and the salary of the President Judge thereof from $5,500 to $6,500 per annum. As this court has been in existence but little over two years, I am not persuaded of the propriety of approving the proposed increase in the salaries of its judges.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the communication will be laid upon the table. The Chair hears none and it is so ordered.

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1300.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 20, 1913.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1300, entitled: "An Act authorizing cities of the second class in this Commonwealth to issue notes in anticipation of the sale of the corporate bonds duly authorized at the time such notes are issued."

The provisions of this bill would confer upon the mayor and controller of all cities of the second class in the Commonwealth the power to issue notes in anticipation of the sale of bonds, duly authorized at the time such notes are issued, to the extent of one-half the total amount of the bonds so authorized. There is no specifications of the rate of interest which said notes shall bear. Provision is made for authority to issue renewals thereof, but the consent of councils for either the original or the renewal issue of these notes is nowhere required.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the communication will be laid upon the table. The Chair hears none and it is so ordered.

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 464.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 19, 1913.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 464, entitled: "An Act amending section one of an act entitled 'An Act for the safety of persons from fire or panic in certain building not in cities of the first and second classes by providing proper exits, fire-escapes and fire-extinguishers and other preventives of fire by vesting jurisdiction for the enforcement of this act in the Department of Factory Inspection and by providing proper penalties for any violation of the same,' approved the third day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and nine by listing the application of the act to tenement houses apartments and flats occupied by ten or more persons."

Under the Act of May 3, 1909, the first section of which it is proposed to amend by this bill, every tenement house, apartment house or flat situate in this Commonwealth, outside of cities of the first and second classes, when occupied by two or more families above the first story, is required to be provided with proper ways of egress or means of escape from fire sufficient for the use of all persons residing therein, etc. It is now proposed to amend said Act of 1909, so that it shall not apply to tenement houses, apartment houses or flats occupied above the first story, unless they are so occupied by ten or more persons.

In my opinion it would be unwise to thus modify the requirements of the present law.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

(Signed) JOHN K. TENER.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the communication will be laid upon the table. The Chair hears none and it is so ordered.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 21, 1913.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 82, entitled: "An Act authorizing and regulating the employment on county highways or poor farms of male prisoners in county jails and prisons and fixing penalties for violation of this act."

I am not persuaded of the necessity for, or propriety of, the legislation proposed in this bill.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the communication will be laid upon the table. The Chair hears none and it is so ordered.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, during the debate on the State Civil Service Bill on May 7th, one of the speakers against the bill read a letter which charged the Civil Service Commission of Philadelphia with corruption in connection with a certain examination, the examination for Chief Clerk of the Commission. I myself was one of the examiners in that case and on my own behalf and on behalf of the Civil Service Commission of Philadelphia, I would like to present a letter that was written to the Mayor of Philadelphia in answer to this charge. The letter is rather lengthy and I do not desire to read it, but I would like to have it printed upon the record.

The SPEAKER. Is there any objection?

Mr. JAMES A. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I object.

Mr. WALNUT, Mr. Speaker, I move that the letter in question be printed in the record.

Mr. JOHN ROBERT JONES. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The letter is as follows:

Hon. Rudolph Blankenburg,
Mayor of Philadelphia,
City Hall.
Dear Sir:

Under date of July 17th Cyrus D. Foss, Jr., Esq. forwarded a letter received by you from Mr. Joseph Flaherty, 1535 North Felton Street, a former employee of this Department, making unwarranted statements in connection with an examination held on March 2, 1912, for the position of Office Manager and Chief Clerk of the Civil Service Commission. This examination was one of 74 examinations held under Schedule 69, published January 25, 1912. The last day for filing applications was February 27, and the examination itself was held on March 2, and set forth in the printed and widely circulated schedule.

On Februrary 16 and 17, 1912, Herbert F. Mitchell, the present Chief Clerk of this Commission, called at this department in person and had an interview with President Riter and Commissioners Bolger and Van Dusen. He stated to the Commissioners that he was desirous of entering into competition with others by taking the examination for the position of Office Manager and Chief Clerk, but that he was then residing in Riverton, N. J., and came to ask the Commission whether if he should move to Philadelphia prior to the time of filing his application for the examination in question,, he would be allowed to take it. The Commission informed him that the procedure of this departments required, except in specific examinations where its rules were expressly waived for certain urgent reasons, that all applicants should be residents of the City of Philadelphia and citizens of the United States at the time of filing their applications; that if he was a resident of the City of Philadelphia at the time he filed his application he would be qualified to take the examination, and that no specific length of residence prior to filing an application was required.

Mr. Mitchell subsequently moved to Philadelphia, filed his application, took the examination, and as a result thereof, was number one on the eligible list. On March 30, 1912, the Commission tendered him the appointment to the position of office Manager and Chief Clerk. Immediately thereafter Mr. Flaherty, who was then the provisional appointee to that position, having been a clerk in this Department for a number of years, stated to the Commission that in his opinion Mr. Mitchell was not a resident of Philadelphia, and therefore was not eligible for appointment to the position of Office Manager and Chief Clerk. On April, 1, Mr. Mitchell wrote to the Commission, stating that rumors had reached him, similar to the statements made by Mr. Flaherty. Upon receipt of Mr. Mitchell's letter the Commission transmitted it in a letter Michael J. Ryan, Esq., City Solicitor, for an opinion upon Mr. Mitchell's eligibility. Copies of Mr. Mitchell's letter to the Commission, dated April 1, of the Commission's letter transmitting it to the City Solicitor, of April 2, and of the City Solicitor's reply of April 3, 1912, are enclosed herein, as is also a copy of an opinion rendered by T. Henry Walnut, Esq., Counsel and Secretary of the Civil Service Reform Association of Pennsylvania, under date of April 15, 1912. You will note that the letter of the City Solicitor and that of Mr. Walnut agree on the eligibility of Mr. Mitchell from the standpoint of residence.

We quote from Mr. Ryan's opinion:

> "There is no law requiring that the Chief Clerk of the Civil Service Commission shall be a resident of the city of Philadephia for any particular length of time prior to his filing an application for such employment. Rule I, however, of the rules of your Commission, provides that 'The Civil Service Commission, will neither receive the application, register nor subsequently certify as eligible for appointment, any one who is not both a citizen of the United States and a resident of the City of Philadelphia."
>
> "This, it will be seen, merely requires that at the time of presenting his application the applicant must be a resident of the City.
> "Assuming the truth of the facts connected with the residence of Mr. Mitchell, which I have already recited, I am of the opinion that he is qualified to hold the position to which your Commission desires to appoint him, so far as the question of his residence in the City of Philadelphia is concerned."

Mr. Flaherty's statement that "the Commission set back the date" of the examination in order to allow Mr. Mitchell to establish a residence is absoluetly unfounded. As a matter of fact the Commission's first imitation of Mr. Mitchell's intention to take the examination was on February 16 or 17, when as above stated, he called upon the Commission. This was three weeks after the publcation of schedule No. 69. This schedule was published on January 25, and therefore no change whatsoever was made in it.

The examination in question was not conducted by the Civil Service Commission, but by a Board consisting of gentlemen of unimpeachable character. The Chairman of the Board was John T. Doyle, of Washington, D. C., Secretary of the United States Civil Service Commission, who has been connected with that Commission for the past twenty-five years, and is a recognized expert on Civil Service matters. The other members were M. F. Hanson, General Manager and Treasurer of the Philadelphia Record, a man of wide experience in business management; Elliott H. Goodwin, of New York, Secretary of the National Civil Service Reform League, distinguishedly associated with Civil Service matters for years; T. Henry Walnut, Secretary and Counsel for the Pennsylvania Civil Service Reform Association, and Wilson A. Deily, formerly and at present an Assistant Examiner in this Department, but who at the time was acting as Chief Engineer of this Department under a provisional appointment to that position. This method of conducting the examination in question was adopted because the Commission believed that it would result in the best eligible list obtainable, and also that the Commission would thus avoid any charge of favoritism in establishing the eligible list for the important position under the control. Copies of the report of Mr. Doyle, Chairman of the Board, to this Commission, of the result of the examination in question, and of Messrs. Doyle, Goodwin and Hanson as to the oral test in connection with it, are enclosed herein.

The statement of Mr. Flaharty in his letter that the Commission rubbed out a mark of Mr. Mitchell's and changed it to another mark is absolutely and unqualifiedly false. Mr. Flaharty competed for the position of Office Manager and Chief Clerk stood forth upon the list. Immediately after the result of the examination was announced on March 29th, his attitude and statements were such in an interview which he had with President Riter and Commissioner Bolger, as to have warranted his immediate dismissal from this Department, and did evoke from the President a rebuke and warning which later resulted in an apology from him. He seemed to take for granted that he would be dismissed, as a result of this occurrence, and shortly after it he came to the room of the Commission and so stated. When he was informed that the Commission had overlooked his offence he expressed his gratitude for the leniency displayed toward him.

Mr. Flaharty's statement that Mr. Mitchell came to the oral examination printed and ready for the oral questions which would be propounded to him is also absolutely false. It is a reflection on Mr. Hanson and Mr. Walnut, these being the gentlemen who interviewed Mr. Mitchelll on the Saturday previous to the oral test The commission at no time had anything to do with this or any part of the examination. We state test as a fact and not to escape responsibility. We are under the greatest obligation to the Examiners named for their disinterested laborous and valuable services, and we are only too glad to acknowledge the same at all times.

The facts with respect to this oral examination are these; Mr. Mitchell, who was then the Philadelphia District Secretary of the United States Civil Service Commission, wrote to the Commission on March 7, stating that he had been assigned by the Government to hold examinations outside of Philadelphia, and would be in Philadelphia on only March 15, 16, 25 and 26, and on April 1 and in the morning of April 2, and requesting that if he get a general average in the examination sufficiently high to make him eligible to take the oral test, he should be examined upon one of the days on which he would be in Philadelphia.

On March 8th the Commission wrote Mr. Mitchell that it would arrange to have the oral test of the examination on one of the dates named. On March 12 the Commission wrote that it had arranged with the Board having the examination in charge to have him examined in the oral test on Saturday morning, March 16, at 11 o'clock, provided his general average would justify his being summoned to an oral test. On March 14 the Board notified him that he had received a general average which entitled him to take the oral test. Copies of these letters are attached hereto.

Mr. Mitchell appeared before Mr. M. F. Hanson and Mr. T. Henry Walnut on Saturday, March 16, 1912, and they asked him some general questions, but when they ascertained from him that he would be in the vicinity of Allentown on the morning of Tuesday, March 19, 1912, the day fixed for the oral test, and could therefore come from that point to Philadelphia, they, after consideration, decided that it was essential that all applicants should be examined by the same members of the Board of Examiners, and informed Mr. Mitchell that he would have to appear together with the other applicants on Tuesday, March 19. They gave Mr. Mitchell no information that would have been of any service to him or any one else in the examination fixed for March 19. They could not have done so had they wished, inasmuch as the oral examination for all applicants was conducted by John T. Doyle, Elliott H. Goodwin and M. F. Hanson, Esqs., on a plan outlined by these three gentlemen on the morning upon which the examination was held. Report of the oral examination, as we have stated, is enclosed.

It is needless for us to repeat that we did not mark nor have anything whatsoever to do with the marking of the papers of Mr. Mitchell or any other of the applicants attending the examination. Upon going over Mr. Mitchell's examination papers we find attached to them a blank sheet upon which the respective examiners placed their estimate of his "Clerical and Executive Ability." One of the marks on this paper is changed from 95 to 9 in blue pencil. On another sheet 94 is seen as the average calculated for Mr. Mitchells "Education and Business Experience," although 95 is the mark credited to him for these subjects on the experience sheet, and is the final award to him for them. Sheets upon which the Examiners made their respective estimates of the different candidates' qualifications were attached to the examination papers, and it is quite apparent that occasionally one or another of the Examiners modified his view on the particular examination paper then under discussion. It could not fail to be otherwise, for the very object in having a number of Examiners is to obtain their joint judgment upon the qualifications of applicants, which necessarily involves a discussion of their qualifications by the Examiners, and frequently, before their final conclusion is reached, requires some readjustment of their individual views.

This Board performed their duties in a perfectly natural way. The examination consisted of four subjects: "Education and Business Experience"; "Knowledge of Civil Service Act, of City Departments and of the Principles Underlying the Merit System"; "Clerical and Executive Ability", and an "Oral Test" to determine the applicants' alertness, good command of English, etc. No applicant was summoned to the Oral Test unless he had a general average of at least 50 in the first three subjects. Some of the above subjects for examination were marked by one Examiner and then the papers were forwarded to another Examiner who went over the work, and this, we presume, is the reason for so many changes in marks, for the Examiners had to harmonize their judgments if there was a difference in their respective estimates. As the result of Mr. Flaharty's letter the Commission has had examined the examination papers of the 48 applicants who were summoned to take the Oral Tests, and finds that the Examiners evidently have made 94 changes in the marks, which they noted upon the examination papers, and 12 changes which they noted upon 10 of the separate sheets of paper, upon which averages were estimated or marks recorded, and attached to the examination papers. The examination sheets comprised 881 sheets.

We trust you will pardon us for so detailed a statement of the facts in connection with this examination, but the nature of Mr. Flaharty's communication demands the facts in full. His statements are gross falsities and impugn the acts of men of the highest character. We refer to the men who conducted the examination. We can not state too emphatically our entire confidence in these gentlemen, nor can we state too emphatically that any statements contained in Mr. Flahartys letter that reflect on them unqualifiedly false.

As for the Commission, it had nothing whatsoever to do with the examination other than the appointment of the Board and the rendering to it of such facilities as we had at our command for assisting and expediting it in its work, and by giving its members accommodations here in the department for the holding of the written and oral examinations, etc.

We remain, with respect,

Very truly yours,
FRANK M. RITER,
President.

BILLS ON SECOND READING.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 610 (Senate No. 47), as follows:

An Act to amend the first section of an act approved the twenty-eighth day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty entitled "An Act relative to mortgages" by requiring purchase money mortgages to be recorded within fifteen days in order to have priority of lien

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the first section of an act approved the twenty-eighth day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty entitled "An Act relative to mortgages" which reads as follows

"Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That from and after the first day of October next all mortgages or defeasible deeds in the nature of mortgages made or to be made or executed for any lands tenements or hereditaments within this Commonwealth shall have priority according to the date of recording the same without regard to the time of making or executing such deeds and it shall be the duty of the recorder to endorse the time upon the mortgages or defeasible deeds when left for record and to number the same according to the time they are left for record and if two or more are left upon the same day they shall have priority according to the time they are left at the office for record And that no mortgage or defeasible deed in the nature of a mortgage shall be a lien until such mortgage or defeasible deed shall have been recorded or left for record as aforesaid Provided That no mortgage given for the purchase money of the land so mortgaged shall be affected by the passage of this act ecution thereof" is hereby amended so as to read

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That from and after the first day of October next all mortgages or defeasible deeds in the nature of mortgages made or to be made or executed for any lands tenements or hereditaments within this Commonwealth shall have priority according to the date of recording the same without regard to the time of making or executing such deeds and it shall be the duty of the recorder to endorse the time upon the mortgages or defeasible deeds when left for record and to number the same according to the time they are left for record and if two or more are left upon the same day they shall have priority according to the time they are left at the office for record And that no mortgage or defeasible deed in the nature of a mortgage shall be a lien until such mortgage or defeasible deed shall have been recorded or left for record as aforesaid Provided That no mortgage given for the purchase money of the land so mortgaged shall be affected by the passage of this act if the same be recorded within fifteen days from the execution thereof

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. JOHN ROBERT JONES. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to amend an act changing the time for the recording of purchase money on mortgage from sixty days of fifteen days. I would like to know from any member of the House who stands responsible for this bill why the law should be changed on this subject? I don't think that this law should be changed, for the reason that it is well established and well known throughout the Commonwealth that when a mortgage is given, if the purchase money has a sixty day limit for the giving of notice of the recording and you are reducing that to fifteen days, it is possible in such instances that many times one not knowing of the change would give the purchase money and take it to the court house to be recorded and find a prior claim against him and he would lose his money. It may be made less than sixty days, if that is too long, but I think, this being an established law, that unless there is a very good reason for it, this bill should be defeated.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

The SPEAKER. The Chair seconds the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented the following communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows, viz:

APPROVAL OF CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 21, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed Concurrent Resolution from the Senate and House of Representatives, recalling from the Governor for the purpose of amendment House Bill No. 1107, entitled "An Act relative to inns and hotels regulating certain rights and liabilities of hotelkeepers and innkeepers and providing penalties for fraud against innkeepers and hotelkeepers."

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, in the last print of the bill the printer got a line misplaced that did not belong in this bill and at the time and it was overlooked. The amendment which I propose to offer is for the purpose of putting back in the bill the proper line and striking out the one inserted in error.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Section 8, line 2. Strike out the entire line and insert in lieu thereof "other accommodation at any hotel, inn, boarding or eating house."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to insert the amendment as read? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment as read will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

The bill as amended was then agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

SENATE MESSAGES.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows, viz:

House Bill No. 857.

An Act to authorize the judges or separate orphans' court at the request of the judges of the common pleas to hear and determine all issues in the court of common pleas courts of oyer and terminer and general jail delivery and courts of quarter sessions of the peace

With information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend the title, line 3, by striking out the words "and other matters."

Amend section 1, line 6, by striking out the words "or other law."

Line 9, by striking out the words "and other matters."

Section 2, line 11, by inserting, "Provided, this Act shall not apply to counties having a population of over two hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the said amendments?

Mr. ELY. Mr. Speaker, in the printing of the amendments, the Senate inadvertently inserted a clause which makes the bill in its present form unconstitutional. Therefore, I move that the House non-concur in the Senate amendments.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows, viz:

House Bill No. 711.

An Act relating to the management of penitentiaries jails prisons houses of correction work houses houses of refuge and reformatories

With information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Section 1, line 8, strike out the word "worship."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the said amendments?

Mr. LOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do non-concur in the amendment.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows, viz:

House Bill No. 1732.

An Act relating to applications for charters of corporations of the first class and regulating the change of location of the place of business of such corporations and providing a penalty for violation the provisions thereof

With information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

After section 3 insert the following section:

Section 4 Upon the violation by any association chartered as aforesaid of any of the provisions of this act an information shall be made against the president or secretary of such association so offending in office at the time the information is made and upon conviction before any alderman police magistrate or justice of the peace such president or secretary shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred ($100) dollars and in default thereof to undergo imprisonment in the county jail or workhouse for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days

Section 4, strike out the numeral "4" and insert the numeral "5."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the said amendments.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, while this bill was amended, the section perhaps does not read as broad as it might. It is sufficient at this time, being a material change and I suggest that the House concur in the amendments of the Senate.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Legislative Journal.

Session 1913 120th of the General Assembly

VOL. 2. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, MAY 26, 1913. No. 72.

SENATE.

MONDAY, May 26, 1913.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. D. P. Gerberich) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain of the House of Representatives, Rev. J. E. Wright, offered the following prayer:

O God, the God of our fathers, and our God, we thank Thee for our heritage, for our ancestral faith, so sacredly cherished, and which finds an expression in this devout recognition of the God of Heaven at the opening of this legislative session. We thank Thee for our civil and religious liberty; for our social and intellectual enlightenment and progress; for our just laws and humane institutions; for the fraternity of brotherhood. We rejoice in the rich land which Thou hast given to us, so extensive and diversified; so fruitful and beautiful. We realize that this has come to us through the sacrifice and suffering of those who have gone before, and we would regard it as our highest duty and privilege to guard this inheritance and to transmit it unimpaired to those who shall follow after us. To this end may we cultivate conscience and character. May we be good men, and true, strong men, and brave men, may we have the courage of our convictions, may we suffer nothing to swerve us from the path of integrity and virtue. Give Thy Blessing to Thy servants now assembled, and may all that is done approve itself unto Thee, and further the interests of this great Commonwealth. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. HOMSHER, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 23, 1913.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 574, entitled "An Act to amend section one of an act entitled 'A Supplement to an act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania' entitled 'An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations,' approved the twenty-ninth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four as the same has been supplemented by acts of Assembly of said Commonwealth approved on the following dates namely: sixteenth day of February Anno Domin one thousand eight hundred and sexenty-four, twenty-fourth day of May Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, twenty-ninth day of May Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, eleventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, twenty-fifth day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, ninth day of May Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, twenty-ninth day of May Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and and ninety-five, twenty-sixth day of June, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, twenty-seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, second day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one, fourth day of June, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one, twenty-first day of April Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and three and seventeenth day of April Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and five interalia providing for the establishment and regulation of trust companies," approved the eighth day of May, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and seven, by enlarging and extending the preference given to depositors so as to include deposits payable only after specified notice or at the expiration of a fixed period and defining and including as depositors bonafide holders for value of certified checks on or of certificates of deposit issued by trust company or of checks or drafts given in exchange for or in payment of checks or drafts of deposits of a trust company drawn thereon."

JOHN K. TENER.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 121.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 23, 1913.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 121, entitled:

"An Act authorizing D L Saul and Flora W Saul his wife residents of the city of Harrisburg Dauphin county Pennsylvania to bring suit or suits against and to recover from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania jointly or severally either in law or equity in the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin county any sum or sums of money legally or justly due them by reason of the injuries suffered by the said Flora W Saul by falling or being thrown from an elevator in the Capitol building at Harrisburg Dauphin county Pennsylvania."

Section eleven of article one of the Constitution provides that

"Suits may be brought against the Commonwealth in such manner, in such courts and in such cases as the legislature may by law direct."

This bill not only authorizes suit to be brought in the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County against the Commonwealth, but also contains language which might be interpreted to mean that the legislature has authorized a recovery in such suit,—no matter what defense the Commonwealth might have. A bill limiting the right to bring suit, leaving the question of whether the plaintiff is entitled to recover any amount whatever to be determined by the law and the evidence, as in other cases, would not be objectionable.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

JOHN K. TENER.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. BEIDLEMAN. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 23, 1913.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 524, entitled:

"A supplement to an act entitled 'An Act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities to provide for the redemption of the same and to impose penalties for the illegal increases thereof' approved the twentieth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws sixty-five) limiting the time within which the power to incur indebtedness based upon the assent of the electors shall be exercised."

The act of 1874, which this bill is inteded to supplement, has been upon the statute books for more than a quarter of a century, and many municipalities have increased their indebtedness under its provisions. I see no good reason for restricting its provisions in the manner contemplated by this bill.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

JOHN K. TENER.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 52.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 23, 1913.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 52, entitled:

"An Act amending an act approved the fifth day of May Annno Domini eighteen hundred and thirty-two entitled 'An Act regulating Lateral Railroads' extending the length thereof to ten miles and including lessees as well as owners of fire clay and minerals and changing number of viewers."

The purpose of this bill is to allow the construction of a lateral railroad over private property for a distance of ten miles, whereas, under the existing act of 1832 these lateral railroads may be constructed not in excess of three miles distanct from any railroad, etc. For this purpose the person or company constructing such a lateral railroad is given the power to take intervening private property by right of eminent domain "for public or private purposes." The right of eminent domain should only be conferred where there is absolute public necessity. I am not convinced of the necessity for extending the right of eminent domain now possessed by lateral railroads.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

JOHN K. TENER.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. HALL. Mr. President, I move the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. DEWITT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

NAYS—1.

McIlhenny,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 865 (House Bill No. 803), as follows:

An Act further amending section two of an act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and one entitled "An Act providing for the examination licensure and registration of persons firms or corporations engaged or engaging in the business or work of plumbing or house drainage and prescribing certain rules regulations and requirements for the construction of plumbing house drainage and cesspools in cities of the second class and imposing fines penalties and forfeitures for violation thereof" as heretofore amended and authorizing and requiring second and third class cities to provide for the appointment and payment of plumbing inspectors

Whereas there is no provision for the appointment and payment of a plumbing inspector in second and third class cities of this Commonwealth and

Whereas the act of June Seven one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws four hundred and ninety-three) and the act of May fourteenth one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty) pertaining to the business or work of plumbing or house drainage have been held constitutional by the highest courts of this State and are practically without force or effect without such a provision and

Whereas the courts of this State have held that "The real trouble in the administration of this act of Assembly is that in its passage the Legislature assumed it to be a fact that the office of Plumbing Inspector existed in all cities of the third class when it did not" now therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That Section two of the act entitled "An Act providing for the examination licensure and registration of persons firms or corporations engaged or engaging in the business or work of plumbing or.............house drainage and prescribing certain rules regulations and requirements for the construction of plumbing house drainage and cesspools in cities of the second class and imposing fines penalties and forfeitures for violation thereof" approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one as amended by Section two of the act of May fourteeth Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty) which reads as so amended as follows

"Section 2 All and every person or persons engaged or engaging in the business or work of plumbing and house drainage in said cities shall apply in writing to the said director of the department of public safety department or board or bureau of health for such certificate or license and if after proper examination made by the department or board or bureau of health of said cities such person or persons so applying shall be found competent the same shall be certified to the director of the department of public safety department or board or bureau of health who shall thereupon issue a certificate or license to such person or persons which shall for the period of one calendar year or fractional part thereof next ensuing the date of such examination entitle him or them to engage in or work at the business of plumbing and house drainage The mayor of said cities is hereby authorized to appoint a board of examiners to consist of the health officer or superintendent of the department or board or bureau of health one plumbing inspector and two competent plumbers in no wise connected with the city government who shall examine all applicants for license under the provisions of this act The said board shall make all reasonable rules regulations and examinations which shall be approved by the said director of the department or board or bureau of health An examination of any one member of a firm or corporation or of the superintendent or foreman therefor shall be deemed sufficient Said person or persons firm or corporation engaged or engaging in the business of plumbing or house drainage shall pay for each examination the sum of five dollars and each journeyman or person engaged in the work shall pay the sum of fifty cents which sum shall be paid into the city treasury for the use of said cities The proper officers of said cities are hereby authorized to pay to the plumbers acting on said board the sum of five dollars per day for each day or session thus actually employed

Every registered master plumber shall have a bona fide place of business in said cities and shall display on the front of his or their place of business a sign "Registered Plumber" bearing the name or names of the person firm or corporation in letters not less than three inches high

No person other than a registered master plumber shall be allowed to carry on or engage in the business nor shall any person or persons expose the sign of plumbing or house drainage or any advertisement pertaining thereto unless he or they have first secured a license or certificate and been registered in the office of the board or bureau of health of such cities nor shall any person or persons other than a registered master plumber or person in his or their employ or under his or their supervision be allowed to alter repair or make any connection with any drain soil waste or vent-pipe or any pipe connected therewith

Every registered master plumber firm or corporation shall give immediate notice of any change in his their or its place of business and upon his their or its retirement from business shall surrender his their or its certificates of registry to the board or bureau of health Every person firm corporation or representative thereof in registering shall give the full name or names of the person firm or officers' names of the corporation for which he or they shall register

At the expiration of each calendar year said certificate or license shall be null and void A licensed master or journeyman plumber desiring to continue in or work at the business of plumbing and house drainage for the ensuing year shall between the first and thirty-first days of December of each and every year surrender the said certificate or license for the current year to the department or board or bureau of health and re-register his their or its name or names and business or home address upon such form or forms as may from time to time be furnished by said department or board or bureau of health

A re-examination will not be necesary for re-registration unless the licensed master or journeyman plumber should have failed to make application for re-registration at the specified time The sum of one dollar shall be paid by master plumbers firms or corporations and the sum of twenty-five cents by journeymen plumbers for re-registration which sum shall be paid into the city treasury for the use of said cities A register of all such applicants and the license or certificates issued shall be kept in said department board or bureau of health which said register shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein Any person firm or corporation holding a license or certificate granted by any first second or third class city of this Commonwealth to engage in or work at the business of plumbing and house drainage desiring to do plumbing and drainage work in any other city than the one in which said license or certificate was granted shall without examination be registered before entering upon such work Provided however That such registration shall be restricted and limited to such plumbing and drainage work as he they or it shall have contracted for at the time of registry On the completion of such contract or contracts the registration of such person firm or corporation shall be null and void and no further permit shall be issued to such person firm or corporation until he they or it shall have first registered his or its name or their names and address as hereinbefore provided" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2 All and every person or persons engaged or engaging in the business or work of plumbing and house drainage in said cities shall apply in writing to the said director of the department of public safety department or board or bureau of health for such certificate or license and if after proper examination made by the department or board or bureau of health of said cities such person or persons so applying shall be found competent the same shall be certified to the director of the department of public safety department or board or bureau of health who shall thereupon issue a certificate or license to such person or persons which shall for the period of one calendar year or fractional part thereof next ensuing the date of such examination entitle him or them to engage in or work at the business of plumbing and house drainage The mayor of said cities is hereby authorized to appoint a board of examiners to consist of the board or Bureau of health one plumbing inspector and two competent plumbers in no wise connected with the city government who shall examine all applicants for license under the provisions of this act The said board shall make all reasonable rules regulations and examinations which shall be approved by the said director of the department or board or bureau of health An examination of any one member of a firm or corporation or of the superintendent or foreman therefor shall be deemed sufficient Said person or persons firm or corporation engaged or engaging in the business of plumbing or house drainage shall pay for each examination the sum of five dollars and each journeyman or person engaged in the work shall pay the sum of fifty cents which sum shall be paid into the city treasury for the use of said cities The proper officers of said cities are hereby authorized to pay to the plumbers acting on said board the sum of five dollars per day for each day or session thus actually employed

The mayor of said cities is hereby authorized and required to appoint a competent person as plumbing inspector whose duty it shall be to supervise superintend and inspect all plumbing and house drainage in conformity with the provisions of this act And the several cities are hereby authorized and required to make proper provisions for the payment of the salary of the said plumbing inspector as provided by law

Every registered master plumber shall have a bona fide place of business in said cities and shall display on the front of his or their place of business a sign "Registered Plumber" bearing the name or names of the person firm or corporation in letters not less than three inches high

No person other than a registered master plumber shall be allowed to carry on or engage in the business nor shall any person or persons expose the sign of plumbing or house drainage or any advertisement pertaining thereto unless he or they have first secured a license or certificate and been registered in the office of the board or bureau of health of such cities nor shall any person or persons other than a registered master plumber or person in his or their employ or under his or their supervision be allowed to alter repair or make any connection with any drain soil waste or vent-pipe or any pipe connected therewith

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1199 (House No. 1562), entitled:

An Act to amend section nine of an act entitled "An Act regulating the construction maintenance alteration and inspection of buildings and party walls in cities of the second class" approved June seventh one thousand eight hundred ninety-five by striking out all provisions whereby an owner of lands can build a party wall together with foundations thereof in part on lands of adjoining owner and collect a pro rata share of the cost of said wall from adjoining owner preserving however all the rights given by statute to owners of party walls erected under said act

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. MAGEE. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. MOORE. Mr. President, I second the motion?.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1266 (House Bill No. 1793), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of article one of an act approved the seventh day of March one thousand nine hundred and one entitled "An Act for the government of cities of the second class"

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. President, concerning this bill, I desire to inform the Senate that there is a tremendous local sentiment in the city of Pittsburgh against the passage of this bill. I understand the same applies to Scranton and I find absolutely no sentiment in favor of its passage, and I have not been approached by a single person in its favor outside of this Senate chamber. The Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce and the Pittsburgh Board of Trade have passed resolutions against the passage of this bill and by overwhelming majorities in both instances. This bill aims to strike out one of the most important safeguards to be found in the laws affecting the government of all the cities of this Commonwealth. As the law now stands and has been for many years passed, neither Governor, mayors of first, second or third class cities or even burgesses of boroughs are permitted to succeed themselves and in the city of Pittsburgh I can say that the opposition to a second successive term is tremendous and among the unbiased this setiment is almost unanimous. The purpose of prohibiting our executive officer from immediately succeeding himself in office was to prevent the formation of such political organizations as would make the executive the master instead of the servant of the people. We all know that the mayors of the cities of the second class wield a tremendous power and this power would be exercised to succeed himself should this bill become a law. I have resolutions passed by the Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce which I would be pleased to have inserted in the Journal. I desire to say that these resolutions represent the sentiment of the city of Pittsburgh on this subject and I sincerely trust this Honorable body will refuse its support to such palpably destructive legislation. I sincerely trust that the measure will fall.

THE PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE

205-207 Shady Avenue,
Pittsburgh, Pa., May 19th, 1913.

Hon. David Hunter, Jr.,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:—

At the regular monthly meeting of the Pittsburgh Board of Trade held this evening, a resolution was adopted, opposing H. R. Bill No. 1793, the passage of which would permit the mayors of second class cities to succeed themselves.

We urge that you use your influence and vote to defeat this bill.

Yours very truly,
J. R. PARK,
Secretary.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

OF PITTSBURGH.

May 10, 1913.

To the Members of the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Your influence and vote towards securing the defeat of Senate Bill No. 1266, to amend an act for government of cities of the second class by removing the restrictio nagainst a mayor being eligible to the office for the next succeeding term, is respectfully urged by the Chamber of Commerce of Pittsburgh, in accordance with the resolutions below adopted at a regular meeting, May 8th, 1913.

Yours very truly,
Chamber of Commerce of Pittsburgh,
LOGAN McKEE,
Secretary.

Whereas, There is pending in the Legislature of Pennsylvania House Bill No. 1793—Senate Bill No. 1266—which has been passed by the House of Representatives and is now pending in the Senate, which, if enacted, would amend the charters of cities of the second class by removing the restriction against a Mayor being eligible to the office for the next succeeding term;

Resolved, By the Chamber of Commerce of Pittsburgh that, in its opinion, the law preventing such eligibility and making possible immediate succession in office of the mayor of a city, is wise and tends to promote the best interests of municipal government and to maintain and stimulate an increased interest on the part of citizens in the administration of the affairs of their city, and that the removal of such restriction and making it possible for an incumbent to succeed himself in this high and important executive office without any intermission, would be a step of retrogression in the development of the most improved forms of municipal government; and

Resolved, That the Chamber of Commerce of Pittsburgh protest against the enactment of H. R. Bill No. 1793—Senate Bill No. 1266—and urge upon the members of the Senate of Pennsylvania and the Governor their support and influence toward securing the defeat of the measure.

Mr. McNICHOLS. Mr. President, as the representative of the second class city of the Comonwealth I want to record the nanimous protest from our city against the passage of this bill. Like the Senator from Allegheny I have not had one single request from the city of Scranton asking for the enactment of this law. We are entirely satisfied that the law as it stands is sufficient and that we should not allow Mayors to succeed themselves. I want to testify to the capabilities of our present Mayor. I do not think that our present Mayor has any idea of wanting to succeed himself, but we believe that the law should be allowed to stand as it is. We do not think it right to make an exception of the second class cities in this Comonwealth. We would be satisfied to go along if you make this bill uniform or that you make the second-class cities on a par with the first or third class or even with the boroughs. Remove the restriction entirely and do not confine it to the second-class cities. As the representative of a second-class city, I wish to enter our protest against the passage of this bill.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, The contest upon this bill at the present time is between the two cities of the Second class in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the one the City of Scranton in the Northeastern part of the State composed of many men good, upright and industrious souls, a city whose wealth is underneath the ground, and whose perpetuities depends entirely upon the diversification of industries, and on the other side is the great City of Pittsburgh, the City of the West, which with the brains and energy of its people, and through the untiring and unceasing efforts of its great masses has won for it the proud distinction of being the greatest industrial city of the whole world. Unfortunately the City of Pittsburgh is classified with the City of Scranton in the cities of the second class, Scranton, composed of 130,000 souls, as against 534,000 souls in the City of Pittsburgh. Unfortunately again the Supreme Court has interpreted the law that there an be no more classification of cities. That places us in a very embarassing position indeed, when the people of our great cities who are committed to the onward march of progress desire remedial and necessary legislation. This we perceived in 1907, when we had the Civil Service Law, and we desired to make the salary of the Civil Service Commissioners in our city four thousand dollars a year, and the City of Scranton said, "You can't do that because we only pay our Mayor twenty-five hundred dollars a year. The same thing confronted us again two years ago when the people of our great City and the City of Scranton deemed it expedient to have a reduced Council a smaller body, and in order to facilitate matters so that we would not interfere with Scranton, instead of making salaries for Councilmen, we were obliged to leave that vacant so they would not be antagonistic to each other. The same condition confronts us at the present time. The honorable and distinguished Senator from the City of Pittsburgh in his remarks said that the prinipal reason for being antagonistic to this bill was that the Mayor might build around himself a political wall that would be impregnable. I would be sorry to say for the voters of the City of Pittsburgh that the thousands of city employes could override the judgment of about sixty-five thousand voters, and to make a statement of that kind, to my mind, is an insult to the voters of Pittsburgh. The only argument against it is a question of politics, and let me refresh the minds of the members of this body to-night that those who laid the foundation stones of this matchless Republic allow the question of politics to enter into their minds when they wrote into the the fundamental law that the President of the United States may succeed himself? I believe that we should look to higher and nobler reasons for the enactment of this legislation, and even against this legislation, than the question of politics. Now is the time for the people of this great Commonwealth to awaken from their lethargy in regards to the classification, and the right and liberties of the people of our great cities. And I want to say this, that we must look to higher and nobler seasons for the enactment of such laws, such as the civic, and moral and the physical conditions which such legislation as this may bring about. To-day, in the City of Pittsburgh, we have one of the greatest Mayors that ever graced that chair, and that stands uncontradicted, and the same was proclaimed at a banquet given to him only a short time ago by eight hundred souls of the City of Pittsburgh, that he has done more for the City of Pittsburgh in his four years than all the rest of Republican Mayors and Democratic Mayors that the City of Pittsburgh ever had. I am not going to give you in detail the great work that he has accomplished in the city in the last four years, but I want to tell you my friends, that it is marvelous. The trouble is that the people to-day who oppose such legislation will not appreciate this little Napoleon until about ten years from now. And who is better able to carry out these projects than this young man has undertaken himself, or any other Mayor, than the man who has given his four year to this, more than four years, nearly fifteen years, to the studying out of these great civic conditions and civic improvements which have been held in abeyance up to this time and have now been going on under this young and enthusiastic man. I have no authority for saying that he will succeed himself; he has not told me that he has any desire to succeed himself. But I look into the future. Take up the Chamber of Commerce. It consists of fifteen hundred men, and when action was taken on this resolution against this bill, there were just forty-seven members present. They ask you to say that these forty-seven voice the sentiment of fifteen hundred men. In answer to the Senator from Scranton, he has said that he has not had a single petition in behalf of this bill. Let me say then why did the five members of the House from Lackawanna when the roll was called in the House vote "aye" for the passage of this bill? My friends, if you believe in those principles so laid down by those who laid the foundation stones of this matchless Republic, if you believe in the onward march of Progress of the great City of Pittsburgh, and cities of the Second class, if you believe in civic, moral and physical development of our cities, I sincerely hope that you will vote for this bill.

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. President, The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Kline, appears to have made a personal matter of this rather than one of principle. My remarks were confined, even now are confined to the principle and the question whether the enactment of this bill into a law is or is not dangerous. I believe it to be postively so and for that reason and for that reason only have I protested against its passage, and Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Kline.

The PRESIDENT. Will th eSenator from Allegheny, Mr. Kline, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. President, I would like to know what real reason there may be for the passage of this bill at this time.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, So that I may not be misunderstood and so that my good friend, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Hunter, may not misunderstand me, it was not a question of any personal opposition at all. If my remarks were misinterpreted, it was a lapsus lingual.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1408, as follows:

An Act relating to appeals from judgments rendered by a justice of the peace or alderman in actions of assumpsit or trespass providing for trial and judgment on appeals and for costs and abolishing the limitation of minimum amount involved in the action

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the Same That in any action of assumpsit or trespass cognizable before a justice of the peace or alderman an appeal may be taken by any plaintiff or defendant from any judgment rendered without limitation as to minimum amount involved to the court of common pleas of the proper county upon the terms and conditions herein prescribed

Section 2 When an appeal is desired the appellant shall make and file an affidavit that the appeal is not taken for purposes of delay but because the appellant verily believes injustice has been done him by the judgment appealed from and shall further set forth in said affidavit briefly and concisely in what way and manner the said judgment is unjust and shall enter bail in the sum of fifty dollars with one or more sufficient sureties for the payment of all costs accrued or that may accrue thereafter in the said action Thereupon the said justice or alderman shall within five days thereafter deliver to the appellant a transcript of his record of the said action which transcript the appellant shall file in the court of common pleas of the said county within the next ten days Failure to so file the said transcript shall be an abandonment of the appeal but the court of common pleas upon notice to the appellee and hearing may allow appeals nune pro tune without limitation of time

Appeals may be taken at any time within twenty days after

Section 3 At the time of taking the appeal the appellant shall pay one dollar to apply on the proper costs of the justice or alderman and not exceeding one dollar to apply on the proper costs of the constable serving the summons and the cost of filing the appeal in the office of the prothonotary shall not exceed one dollar All other costs shall follow the appeal and be paid as a part of the judgment therein and the appellant shall have the right to have all costs paid by him made a part of the final judgment The justice or alderman and constable shall have the right to demand and receive their proper costs to and including judgment from the plaintiff at the time the action is instituted otherwise may refuse to entertain the action

Section 4 Such appeals when filed in the court of common pleas shall in the first instance he tried and determined by and before a law judge of said court without a jury and without any pleadings other than the transcript of appeal unless special statement of claim or defense shall be promptly applied for and allowed by the court The trial in court shall be limited to such matters as are put in issue by the affidavit made for the purpose of obtaining the appeal and as further put in issue in any statement or defense allowed by the court to be filed unless the issue be enlarged by evidence on behalf of the appellee

Facts not thus put in issue shall be deemed admitted by the parties

If in the course of the trial before the said judge it shall appear that the questions involved are of such a nature or character as to warrant a jury trial for their proper determination the said judge in his discretion may suspend further hearing and award a jury trial and if a jury be then in attendance at court may orthwith proceed to trial before a jury or may provide for a jury trial by general rule or special order

If a jury trial be not awarded by the said trial judge he shall upon full hearing render such judgment as the facts and the law warrant and such judgment unless appealed from shall have all the force effect and incidents of a judgment entered on a verdict rendered by a jury

Section 5 From any judgment rendered by a trial judge without a jury either party may appeal within twenty days and have a jury trial in the court of common pleas upon the following conditions

First The appellant shall pay all costs accrued

Second The appellant shall make and file an affidavit that the appeal is not for delay but because he verily believes injustice has been done him by the judgment appealed from and shall further set forth briefly and concisely the matters of complaint or defense he desires to have determined upon a jury trial and upon such subsequent jury trial the appellant shall be confined to the issue so set forth in said affidavit unless the evidence on the part of the appellee enlarges the issue

The appellant if defendant shall enter bail absolute with one or more sufficient sureties in double the amount of the judgment appealed from for the payment of any final judgment rendered against him and if plaintiff shall enter similar bail in the sum of one hundred dollars with like conditions

A judgment rendered by a trial judge without a jury shall be and remain a lien against the real estate of the person against whom it is given with the right of revival and all other rights incident to a judgment in said court until it is satisfied except that an appeal when taken and perfected as above provided shall operate as a stay of execution and be subject to increase or diminution by the results of the subsequent trial or determination

No execution shall issue during the period within which an appeal may be taken

Section 6 From any final judgment in a case tried before a jury an appeal may be taken to the Superior or Supreme Court as now allowed

Section 7 The court of common pleas may make such rules of practice and procedure as will carry out the purpose of this act and expedite the trial and determination of this class of cases

Section 8 That part of section three of the act of twentieth March one thousand eight hundred and ten which provides that if the demand before the justice shall not exceed five dollars and thirty-three cents the judgment rendered "shall be final" be and is hereby repealed

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CROW, from the Committee on Corporations, reported as committed Senate Bill No. 1184 (House Bill No. 1749), entitled:

An Act to amend and act entitled "An Act to validate the exercise of franchise of manufacturing corporations and land companies whose charters have expired and to validate the conveyances and other instruments of said corporations" approved the twenty-second day of April, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and nine

AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 409, RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate for concurrence bill of the House of Representatives as follows:

House Bill No. 409, entitled:

An Act providing for the establishment and maintenance of boards of health in boroughs and townships of the first class and defining their powers and duties providing for the appointment of members of such boards of health by the president of the borough councils or by the chairman of the board of commissioners of such townships providing for the election of a secretary and a health officer providing that the Commissioner of Health may take charge of the administration of health laws in any borough or township of the first class when conditions therein in his opinion constitute a menace to the lives or health of the people living outside the corporate limits of such borough or township of the first class or when it may be known to him that such borough or township of the first class is without an existing or efficient board of health and providing the manner in which the expenses of boards of health or of the Commissioner of Health incurred in administering health laws in any borough or township of the first class shall be paid said bill having been recalled from the Governor for amendment. The vote had on final passage and third reading on said bill were reconsidered in the House of Representatives and the bill amended, in which amendments the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Mr. BEIDLEMAN. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the calendar be in this case dispensed with, and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, May 26th 1913.

The House met at 8 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (George E. Alter) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain (Rev. J. E. Wright) offered the following prayer:

O God, by Thy kindly providence we are again in our places with our work before us, and that vigor and healthfulness which makes that work a pleasure to us. As we address ourselves to the work before us we would be influenced by the higher motives; we would not magnify ourselves; we would not give the first consideration to personal advantage or profiting. We would think rather of the service which we can render and of the good which we can do. It is not easy to subordinate ourselves and put duty before pleasure, or service before profiting, but wilt Thou help us to do it and emphasize to us that perfect pattern of the Gospel story of the Divine Man who came not to be ministered unto, but to be minister, Who, though he was rich, yet for our sake became poor that we through His poverty might be rich, and Who has left on record those suggestive words, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." May we have His spirit and share his life and follow in His footsteps. Then shall our lives be enriching and our work helpful, and Thy name shall have the praise of it for ever more. Amen.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of the proceedings of Thursday, May 22nd, 1913.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of Thursday, May 22nd, 1913, when, upon motion of Mr. Gibson, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.

Mr. McARDLE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of H. R. bill No. 695, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the State Highway Department to cover a deficiency in the Automobile Division

Whereas, In making the appropriation to the State Highway Department the General Assembly in the session of one thousand nine hundred and eleven did not anticipate the great increase over the previous two years in the number of automobile licenses issued by the Automobile Division of said Department, which said increase entailed expenditures for additional license plates for delivery of such plates and for additional clerical help rendered necessary by such increase and thus made inadequate provision for the payment of the salaries and other necessary expenses of said Automobile Division during the two fiscal years beginning June first, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, whereby a deficiency has arisen; therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the State Highway Department to cover a deficiency in the Automobile Division through inadequate appropriation at the last General Assembly

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Mr. JAMES J. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from page 27 of today's calendar, Bills on Third Reading Postponed for the Present, House Bill No. 1349.
Agreeably to order,
The House resumed the consideration on Third Reading of H. R. bill No. 1349, entitled:

An Act to regulate the temperature of milk and cream intended to be shipped sold or offered for sale

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?
Mr. JAMES J. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill something similar to a bill that was vetoed by the Governor last session. This bill has been amended so as to govern cases where a health authority in any municipality asks for a degree of sixty. This bill is aimed to correct one thing and that is to prevent a monoply of the milk business in Philadelphia which is apt to happen at any time. A municipality has the authority to make a degree of sixty at any time, and there isn't a spring or pump in the State of Pennsylvania that will make that temperature. I say that so that the farmers in the House will know that this bill provides something for their interest and something for them to consider. I am not especially interested in any milk bill, but I do not want to pay any more for milk than at the present time, and I do not think that you men who are producers want to receive any less for your milk than at the present time. I ask every member of this House to vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from page 27 of today's calender, Bills on Third Reading Postponed for the present, House Bill No. 1693.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on Third Reading of H. R. bill No. 1693, entitled:

An Act prohibiting corporations co-partnerships or companies conducting a cemetery from excluding persons duly authorized by lot holders in said cemeteries to enter said cemeteries to do gardening work and decorations on lots therein and providing a penalty for violation of said act by officers managers agents or employees of said corporations co-partnerships or companies

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, this bill is commonly known as the Cemetery bill. It provides that it shall be unlawful for any one engaged in conducting a cemetery to exclude from said cemetery any person or persons lawfully authorized by any lot holder in the cemetery conducted by said corporation or company to enter the said cemetery and to perform such gardening work and decoration in and about the said lot as said person may be duly authorized to perform by said lot holder for the purpose of fixing up the graves. There was a hearing before the Committee on Judiciary Special on this bill and it was agreed that the work shall comply with the general regulations of the said corporation or copatrnership or company with respect to said gardening work and decoration. To my mind this bill is a very fair measure. It does not state that a private gardener shall have the right to come in the cemetery and not be required to obey the rules and regulations of the said cemetery company. On the contrary there is a section of the bill which provides that whenever such a private person comes in to fix up the graves he shall obey the rules and regulations. The purpose of this bill is to keep the men at their work who have been employed all their lives in this kind of work, to continue their vocation, and as we all know a vast number of men or many at least who do not employ landscape gardeners must secure men to do work in grave yards who will do just such work as this. Very many who don't own large estates don't have use for landscape gardeners but we do all employ at some time in our lives private gardeners for the purpose of fixing up graves. This is to permit us, instead of being compelled to employ the gardeners appointed by the cemetery company and pay them whatever rate they might decide, to employ our own men to do this work.

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. Speaker, I think this is a very bad bill. The cemetery companies, as a rule, have spent large sums of money for the purpose of laying out cemeteries and to secure landscape effects and if this bill went through they would not have any rules that could be followed out in any cemetery. They could not lay it out along certain lines and anybody could come into a cemetery and do just as they desire. I think it is a bad bill and I think it should be voted down.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponser of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Speaker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman what was the cause of this bill being introduced?

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, I have been informed that a cemetery located in the northwestern section of Philadelphia provided a bylaw by which they prevented anyone coming to do any landscape gardening.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, I want to ask the gentleman, didn't that apply to one cemetery only in the county of Philadelphia?

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, I think it was brought out at the hearing that that was the only cemetery company that had done that particular thing.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, I would ask if it is not a matter of fact that if this bill passes that any Tom, Dick and Harry can go into any cemetery and in spite of any objection would it not take police interference to protect that cemetery?

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, It would permit any person who is authorized to go in to do the work.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, that might be a man with a pick and shovel and a wheelbarrow, but does not this interfere with the charter rights of the company?

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, I think the bill provides verey effectively that anyone shall have the right to come in for the purpose of fixing up graves but shall do so under the rules or regulations of that cemetery company.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman further, would not this bill, as a matter of fact, only benefit about fifteen or twenty men in the county of Philadelphia?

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, I am not prepared to answer that question, but it strikes me that very surely there are a greater number of landscape gardeners in Philadelphia who would be benefitted by it, and I might say, it would certainly be a direct benefit to a lot owner who could make his own terms with a landscape gardener.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, this bill is designed for one purpose: To overcome a decision of the Common Pleas Court of Philadelphia and the Superior Court of Pennsylvania and it would allow every Tom, Dick and Harry to go into a cemetery to do this work. This bill ought to be voted down.

Mr. BIGGER. Mr. Speaker, this bill was first referred to the Judiciary Special Committee and then to a sub-committee of which I was the Chairman. We received quite a number of protests from different parts of the state and I have one here from Philadelphia which covers the objections very well, which I will read:

"It is most necessary that all gardening work and decorations of graves and matters of that kind should be entirely under the control of the superintendent of the Cemetery Company. Many of them reasons have been stated by the Superior Court in the case of the North Cedar Hill Cemetery, 22 Superior Court Reports, page 505, etc., where is was decided that it was a reasonable regulation of the Cemetery Company to prevent outside gardening because of the damage outside gardeners might do to other lots, to shrubbery and plants, the court saying.

"It is of the first importance, therefore, that the Association should assume and retain absolute control, as is sought to be done in and by the deeds of conveyance and the By-laws and regulations of the plaintiff company of the erection of monuments and partitions between lots, and planting of trees and shrubbery, and the general subjects of all ornamentation. This is the nature of the case can be done only under the supervision of one person, and in this case, that person is the superintendent of the Cemetery, who acts under the direction of and is supposed to be familiar with the plans and purposes and general scheme of improvements of the Association. It is difficult to see how the rights of individual lot owners in respect to these things which are of may become objectionable to other lot holders' can be properly conserved without same such general, and indeed, southern control of the ornatmenations or all lots"

The question of new duties forced upon a Cemetery Company by this bill envolves a very considerable increase in expense for necessary watchmen to see that objectionable persons, who solicit orders from lot holders, keep within proper bounds within the Cemetery. The class of men who are willing to do this class of work are not those who are generally reliable or careful of what they do, and generally have little regard for the rights of the owners of contingmuous lots. It is a well known fact, and one easy of proof that pilfering is done from surrounding lots, and plants and shrubs are removed from one lot to the lot in which such outside gardener is working, So slyly has this work been done, that the Cemetery Company has been unable to arrest the perpetrators. Within two years past the Laurel Hill Cemetery has had to notify outside gardeners that they would be arrested if they mutilated box trees on lots not owned by their employers, owning to the complaint of the mutilation of these box trees for the purpose of decorating graves in other lots.

Constant disputes also arise between these outside gardeners. It is a well known fact that they habitually do not remove the rubbish remaining from their work on lots, and the cemetery company is compelled to remove it is order to keep the cemetery presentable. Some lot holders also permit the storage of tools and barrows on their particular lots, to the annoyance of the adjoining lot owners, and people visiting cemeteries are constantly annoyed by their colliciting for business within the cemetery lots and grounds. They constantly disobey the Company's rules and improper trees and bushes, spreading plants, etc., are planted, contrary to the Cemetery Company's rules, creating difficulties hard to rectify, for instance, pribet heges are planted without the superintendent's knowledge, which is most objectionable, because, while privet hedges may be beautiful in its first growth, it soon grows and spreads so as to become a nuisance to surrounding lot holders. Arbor Vitae and evergreens, which also might be planted, would become a nuisance to surrounding lot holders, and a care to the Cemetery.

These are only some of the objections which may be made to the provisions of this bill and I beg to urge you to use your efforts to prevent its passage.''

Also from another communication:

"The well regulated cemetery of today employs an engineer and a landscape architect who have under their direction the best assistants, laborers, and gardeners they can employ, working out an artistics scheme or plan for the permanent and perpetual beauty of the cemetery.

"The change of the times and the modern care and management of our cemeteries have greatly increased the expenditures for up-keep and permanent improvement. We have built miles of sewers, installed water systems, constructed modern driveways, and planted thousands of trees, shrubs and flowers. Instead of cutting the grass several times a season we now mow it every week.

"The outside gardener does not contribute to or do any of this general work.

"The expense of interment has greatly increased; on the average we lose money on every interment fee. The general care is the large item in any cemetery."

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Bigger.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BIGGER. Yes, sir.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask Mr. Bigger whether or not he believes that it is fair, if a man who owns a lot in the cemetery, that he should be permitted or have the right of permission to allow his own gardener to go in and fix up that plot?

Mr. BIGGER. Mr. Speaker, subject to the rules of the cemetery, I would say yes.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I would further ask is there anything in this bill that does not make him subject to the rules of the cemetery?

Mr. BIGGER. Mr. Speaker, this bill provides that he shall be subject to the general rules.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, the general rules are usually made by the cemetery officials; is that not true?

Mr. BIGGER. Mr. Speaker, the general rules in this particular case may mean the rules of incorporation.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I further desire to ask whether or not he thinks it is fair for a man who owns a lot in a cemetery to be compelled to pay to the cemetery officials a sum of money that is necessary to fix up the lot, and be barred from having his own gardener do the work.

Mr. BIGGER. Mr. Speaker, I would state to the gentleman, I own a lot in a cemetery. I believe I should be under the general supervision of the cemetery company. I believe that I should also contribute to the general expenses of the cemetery.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I feel that this bill should pass. I feel that if in the cemetery where I have two lots. I would be barred from having my own employee go in and fix up those lots that I would be being deprived of my rights as lot owner. I feel that I should at all times have jurisdiction over the property that I own. I am paying for it and I have the right to say who should fix it up. I do not believe that I should be controlled by the cemetery company and have them dictate to me who shall fix that lot and charge whatever price they see fit. If I have a man in my employ that I can get to fix up that plot probably $10 less than the cemetery company will charge me after paying for that lot, I believe that I should have that right, and I think those men who do nothing else but labor at that particular business have the same right as the cemetery officials; that they should be permitted to go into those lots and fix them up at the request of the owners of the lots. I believe that the bill should pass and would ask the members of the House to vote favorably on it.

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Piper.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PIPER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if he has ever been denied the privilege of going in and fixing up his lots, either he or his family.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I would say that in the cemetery where I own lots I have not been denied, but I do believe in protecting myself, in having some protection from being barred from doing that thing.

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman. Does he know of a case where a lot owner or his family have been denied the privilege of going in and fixing up the graves?

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I might say yes. I am sorry to say that my colleague from Philadelphia, Mr. Spillinger, who owns a lot, has been denied the privilege of sending in his own gardener to take care of that lot.

Mr. SEMMENS. Well, that is all I wanted to know. I never heard of such a case. I would like to say, Mr. Speaker, as I understand it, when a man buys a lot in a cemetery, he buys the privilege of using that ground for burial purposes. He simply has the right to bury in there. If they did not have any rules, they would have a very peculiar looking cemetery in a short time.

Section 25 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the report?

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, this is the Department of Labor and Industry bill to which the Senate has made a number of amendments, increasing the positions under the bill in the aggregate of eight. The House non-concurred in the amendments made by the Senate and the Conference Committee then took up the proposition as to what should be done in order to make a Department of Labor and Industry bill that would do the work expected of it, and so your committee, acting on the part of the House, has agreed with the Senate on the bill which is now laid before the House and in which the following changes were made:

In the old bill, Section 3, the clerical force of the Department, excluding that of the different Bureaus, shall be one chief clerk at an annual salary of $1,800.00; one stenographer at an annual salary of $1,000.00, and one messenger at an annual salary of $1,200.00. The Senate amended that by adding the position of statistician and also creating two offices known as copying clerks and increasing the chief clerk's salary from $1,800.00 to $2,000.00, increasing the stenographer's salary from $1.000.00 to $1,500.00, and leaving the messenger's salary as it was. In the Conference Committee the office of statistician was stricken out, so that the entire change in that section amounts to the addition of three jobs and the increasing in the salaries in that section in the aggregate of $3,700.00. The only other change made was in Section 11, and there there is an increase in salary of but $500.00; so that after going over the bill in conference the changes in dollars and cents—and dollars and cents are an important matter for us to consider in connection with so important a bill as this—the dollar and cent changes amount to $4,200.00.

Mr. Speaker, I have no hesitation in saying that this is one of the most important bills that this Legislature will pass. It is a bill that all over the State has aroused the widest discussion and only last week in going home to Philadelphia from Harrisburg on the train, I was talking with Senator Flinn and at that time he stated to me that the Department of Labor and Industry bill holds in its hands the proposition of carrying out such matters as child labor regulation and the question of hours for working women and all other important matters, which, of course, concern the welfare of the State; and, Mr. Speaker, I believe there should not be one dissenting vote on this bill. The Committee on Conference on the part of the House took the position that we would stand for the nonconcurrence in the amendments of the Senate and it was only after the proposition of building up the Bureau of Statistics and Information was considered that the committee joined in agreeing upon this bill with the amendments increasing the salaries, as I have said, in the aggregate amount of $4,200.00, and I trust the House will have confidence in the Committee on Conference which has agreed upon a bill which was the best we could construct and this bill I hope will pass unanimously.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, it strikes me that the House is placed in somewhat of an unfair position on this bill, and in what I may say I do not want to be understood as opposed to either the spirit or purpose of this bill; but the House is placed in an unfortunate position that I think it should take notice of and I think there should be some understanding on the part of the House,—and in saying this I do not want to be understood as reflecting directly or indirectly on anybody—but this bill came with the Senate amendments to this House for concurrence and this House voted to non-concur; and the House is in the unfortunate position as having been represented partly in the Conference Committee by those who voted to concur in the Senate amendments.

Now, I do not care to go on record as saying that they were unduly or unfairly influenced in any way in the deliberations of the conference, having no knowledge as to what took place in the conference and I do not care, but as I understand the old original joint rules, which I understand have fallen into disuse, it was provided that Conference Committees should be appointed from those who adhere to the position of the House which they represent. I call this to the attention of the House at this time because before the conclusion of this session it is likely that there will be occasion for many Conference Committees on many important bills, and I believe the House is entitled to be represented in those conferences by members who voted to sustain the position of the House when the bill was before the House. I understand that there has some custom grown up by which the sponsor of the bill, regardless of his position on the question involved between the two houses, has been recognized; but I think that it is unfair to the House to adhere to that position, because if we are going to send men into conferences who are, judging from the votes they cast on the floor of the House, not in sympathy with the House and the position of the House, the House will not be represented with the same zeal and interest that it would otherwise be. I do not want to oppose this bill because I believe its purpose is meritorious, but I want to take this occasion to call this condition to the attention of the House and to the attention of the presiding officer in the hope that the House will see the fairness of my position and that we may adopt some rule, if none is now in existence, after the line of the old original joint Senate and House rule, providing that representation on Conference Committees shall be made by those who voted with the majority of the House on the questions of differences, and I believe that this House should act on that and should adopt such a rule in order that it may not be placed in this embarrasing position in the future.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would state for the information of the gentleman from Crawford as well as for the House, that after appointing the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Roney, the sponsor of the bill, in compliance with what has always appeared to be the practice in this House, the Chair was careful to appoint two other men who had voted to adhere to the non-concurrence. The Chair is quite in harmony with the principle as stated by the gentleman from Crawford, and unless the House considers that it is desirable to adhere to the practice of appointing the sponsor of the bill, the Chair is of the belief that a conference committee should always be composed of those who are in harmony with the position taken by the House.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I believe that it behooves a man always to talk plainly, whether it be in the Legislatuer or in any other place, and I want to say that I do not for a moment misunderstand the words of the gentleman from Crawford when he talks about the House expecting the men appointed to represent the House on the Conference Committee standing up for the action of the House. And, Mr. Speaker, the Conference Committee appointed by the House did go over to the Senate and say to the Senators that the House had non-concurred in the amendments made by the Senate and that we represented the sentiment of the House, and whilst we would not arbitrarily and rigidly adhere to the position taken by the House, and that they must convince us and give us some argument whereby we could come back and show the House that the conference report made between the Senate and the House was a better bill than the one which the House had first passed. We made it plain at that time that they had to show us why these amendments should be made. I want to say, Mr. Speaker, that the Conference Committee appointed by this House appreciated that the House did non-concur, and we only agreed to this conference report after we were satisfied that the Senate's amendments which we in conference took up for discussion made this a better bill than it was originally. And I want to say, Mr. Speaker, that I do not think that this House or any man in this House, whether on this Department of Labor and Industry bill, which is a most important bill, nor on the most trivial bill committed to my care, would think that I would do anything else than stand up for the dignity and rights of the House. I do not misunderstand the gentleman from Crawford for a moment, but I want to say that we insisted upon our non-concurrence until the Senate in conference showed us that bill as amended was in a sense superior to the bill that we originally passed, and then, and only then, did the Committee on Conference on the part of this House agree to the bill, and I trust the House will realize that the Conference Committee tried to do its work honestly and properly and with absolute adherence to the rights of the House and insisted upon being shown why the bill should be changed, and we brought you back the best that we could do, and I hope that there will not be one single vote against it.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would desire to add that he would never have any hesitancy whatever in appointing the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Roney, to represent the House properly on any bill, regardless of how he voted upon it.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, as I understand it, when a Conference Committee is appointed, it is not their duty to go some place to be convinced, they go as the advocates of this House; they go to convince somebody else, and go to represent the sentiment of this House, and the point that I am making is borne out by the suggestion of the gentleman from Philadelphia—and I am not reflecting upon his attitude in this particular case, it is the principle I am pointing to—when he says that they said to the Senate that they wanted the Senate to show them why. They went there to be shown. It was their duty to show the Senate, if they could. It was their duty to go there as advocates and not as judges, and I believe that the best advocate is the man who is absolutely in sympathy with the case of the institution he is representing.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the Conference Report?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of H. R. bill No. 1868 (Senate Bill No. 465), as follows:

A Joint Resolution providing for a commission to arrange for and supervise the transfer from the Library and Museum building to the new cases in rotunda of the Capital building of the flags of Pennsylvania commands in the War for the Suppression of the Rebellion and the Spanish-American War and other flags of historical value and to arrange proper and fitting patriotic ceremony in connection therewith and making an appropriation to defray the necessary expenses incident thereto

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met That the members of the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings the President pro tempore of the Senate the Speaker of the House of Representatives the Adjutant General one member of the Senate to the appointed by the President pro tempore two members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall constitute a Commission whose duty shall be to arrange for and supervise the transfer from the Library and Museum building to the cases in the rotunda of the capitol building of the flags of Pennsylvania commands in the War of the Suppression of the Rebellion and the Spanish-American War and other flags of historical value and to arrange a proper and fitting patriotic ceremony in commemmoration thereof

Section 2 The commission hereby created is authorized to furnish at the expense of the Commonwealth transportation via shortest route from their residence in Pennsylvania to Harrisburg Pennsylvania and return to a sufficient number of the surviving soldiers of Pennsylvania commands to carry the flags from the library and museum building to the rotunda of the capitol building

Section 3 The sum of six thousand dollars ($6,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to pay for such transportation and expenses as the commission may deem necessary to properly carry out the purpose of this resolution all payments to be made by warrant drawn by the Auditor General upon the State Treasurer based upon duly itemized vouchers approved by the Adjutant General and duly filed

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. E. G. M. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was before the House before, at that time it had an appropriation of ten thousand dollars and the bill was defeated on the ground that there was too much money involved in the bill. If I am not misinformed, the appropriation committee of the House had agreed to give one thousand dollars to have these flags transferred but now we find that the bill again has an appropriation of six thousand dollars—money enough, almost, to buy a new set of flags. I should like to be informed whether or not I am correct: In the first place, whether the appropriations of the House calls for the spending of six thousand dollars or one thousand dollars. I would like to have the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee explain that to us.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Jefferson, Mr. North.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, with pleasure.

Mr. E. G. M. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee whether or not I am misinformed on the ground that the Appropriation Committee had agreed to spend one thousand dollars to transfer these flags?

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, the amount was six thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

Mr. E. G. M. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, I think then my position was right and there is still too much money involved.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I think that at first blush we think this appropriation is too much but I think that no one will charge me with readily falling into the habit of approving exhorbitant appropriations; but I think if the House thoroughly understood that it was necessary to put a silk net about all of these flags in order that they might be preserved and not fall to pieces when being moved, that they might be held in proper position if they are moved into the corridor or the dome of this building, and I think that the gentlemen will agree with me that six thousand dollars is not as exorbitant as might as first appear. I heartily agree with the gentleman from Lehigh that we could with much less money replace all those flags with new flags but we don't want new flags. We want the old flags that are trophies of the Civil War and if we are to preserve them to posterity they must be cared for with the silk or other netting in order that they may not fall to pieces and to do that the largest part of this money will have to be spent. I think that this is a proper appropriation bill and I believe that it should pass.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Jefferson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Jefferson, Mr. North permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, Mr. North, to explain to this House how this six thousand dollars is to be expended in more detail than the bill itself.

Mr. NORTH. (the speaker's voice did not carry far and Mr. Scott demanded that the gentleman speak louder.)

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman cannot inform the House with voice loud enough so that the members can hear, I will withdraw my interrogation.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, the expenditure of this amount of money, as I was informed by the Adjutant General of the State of Pennsylvania, Mr. Stewart, is to have these flags moved with the dignity and honor which they deserve. From his information we learn that the color bearers—those who are living today in Pennsylvania who carried these sacred flags fifty years ago, are to come here and participate in this celebration, as many as can come. I am surprised to see the lack of patriotism that is exhibited here tonight by some of the members of this House when they begrudge the paltry sum of six thousand dollars to honor not only the flags but the boys of 1861 and 1862 and 1865 who carried them through the war that we might exist and be here today. If any member is going to believe that it is going to be a burden to the State of Pennsylvania to allow these boys to come here once more, I say let him go on record to that effect.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, since I understand that the six thousand dollars is to be expended for the purpose of having a public demonstration and an exhibition in the removal of these flags, I want to ask if there is any other item of expense.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, the transfer, the ceremonies and the expenses of transportation and to bring the soldiers here and the speakers for the occasion.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, in reference to this bill and also in reference to the remarks of the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, the gentleman from Jefferson, I think it is but befitting that those of us here reperesenting our constituents who are compelled to vote for these various measures, should have the fullest explanation. There has been no explanation before this House until finally we induced the gentleman from Jefferson to talk loudly enough so the House could hear him, as to the expenditure of these six thousand dollars. I suppose all of us will join, after the explanation that has been made by him, that this money is to be expended in so patriotic a manner as he has told us that it shall be expended and that we will all join in and there should be no hesitation on the part of the gentleman from Jefferson holding the high fiduciary position he holds as Chairman of the Appropriation Committee to give information to this House but to give it most willingly, and if his remarks in reference to the want of patriotism was given so begrudgingly, those of us who insisted upon this explanation may insist that if his remarks in reference to the want of patriotism were given for the purpose of stopping the calling upon the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee to give explanations on the various appropriation bills, that he stands sponser for this House, he is mistaken in his course, because not only will he be asked to answer on the floor of this House for this bill but he will be compelled to answer for bill after bill that we don't know about and give us information. As to this bill, his information is such as should carry it with a vote with very little opposition.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, being the sponser for the recreation of this bill, after it had been defeated, I wish to say that I was in consultation with Adjutant General Stewart, an old veteran who gave me a few points and explained what and how these flags are to be moved. In the first place, there are about four hundred of them and each one of them will have to have a silk netting in order to preserve them. He hopes to have every color bearer that carried a flag in the war return and be here and if not the color bearer, his assistant. Then he expects to have a demonstration of the school children and as many Grand Army Posts as possible to take part and there should be of course and there will have to be a stand erected. This House will support him heartily and will vote willingly to remove these grand old sacred flags, representing the patriotism of the boys in blue of 1860 and 1865. I don't hestitate to vote for this appropriation and I hope every member of this House will vote aye.

Mr. E. G. M. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, after receiving the information that I now have, when it comes down to the celebration of our old soldiers who defended this grand old Commonwealth of ours, I am only too sorroy that I didn't before have the information I now have so that I could have had a chance to record my name in favor of voting for the ten thousand dollar appropriation.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. JOHN ROBERT JONES. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 2, line 12, by adding the letter "s" to the word "solution"

Amend section 3, line 75, by striking out the word "Bureau" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "Department."

Amend section 7, line 5, by striking out the word "employees" and inserting the word "employee" and in line 16, by striking out the word "Board" and inserting the word "Department' and in line 20 by striking out the word "Board and inserting the word "Department."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to insert the amendments as read? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments as read will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

The bill as amended was then agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.
On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the author of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny. Mr. Isler, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ISLER. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, not having had time to carefully read this bill, I would like to ask the gentleman if this bill provides that no persons can act as detective unless they live in this State, unless they are residents of this State?

Mr. ISLER. Mr. Speaker, they must be residents of this State for one year, and bona-fide residents, and have five freeholders to vouch for them.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Before they can be licensed?

Mr. ISLER. Yes, sir.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman further, could any person desiring to ferret out a crime employ a detective from another state after this bill becomes a law, unless that detective be licensed in this State?

Mr. ISLER. For special purposes, such as the crime of murder, or something of that kind, Mr. Speaker, yes.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, is that exception pointed out in the bill?

Mr. ISLER. Absolutely, yes. This is for private detectives in the State of Pennsylvania. An outside lawyer can come into the State of Pennsylvania and take up a case, but it must not become habitual with him.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, one of the heads of a department of the State called my attention recently to this bill, and made some criticisms of some of the sections of the bill, but I did not have time to read it, and if the gentleman would kindly let the matter go over and postpone it until tomorrow, I might possibly withdraw my objections.

Mr. ISLER. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been before the House for quite a while and the time is drawing short. I have been very condescending all along in the legislation that I have been interested in, and I do not see why the gentleman from Tioga should ask me to let this bill go over. I have got quite a lot of votes for this bill tonight, and it seems like he is trying to put something over on me.

Mr. ROCKWELL. No, Mr. Speaker, I am willing to be fair.

Mr. ISLER. Mr. Speaker, I do not care to withdraw the bill or postpone the bill. I would rather it go on. I will say this much, that if the gentleman from Tioga has any amendments that he would like to put in, I would be glad to have our Senators insert those amendments.

Mr. ROCKWELL. I would state this, Mr. Speaker, that the gentleman who called my attention to this section, I think it is section eight of the bill particularly, was the head of the Game Department. He called my attention to the fact that many times violations of the game laws had taken place and a number of game wardens had been shot, and if they undertook to employ liensed detectives in this State, men who were known, and tried to ferret out those crimes, it would simply be useless to do it, and often in his business they had to go outside the state to get unknown detectives to come in here to ferret out those violations of the law. If the bill were drawn so that it would permit that, I do not think that he would have any objections to the bill. That was why I asked the gentleman the questions that I did.

Mr. ISLER. Well, I still contend, Mr. Speaker, that if the gentleman from Tioga has any amendments of that kind that he wants to put in, I will assist him in having them put in in the Senate, but I insist on this bill going forward tonight.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I do not care to oppose the bill, I wanted to get that information. But it would seem to me, as I read it, that it would be working a hardship on some of our officials to ferret out violations of law. Those rigid regulations provided in the bill possibly can be amended, if it is necessary, in the Senate.

Mr. ULMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Isler.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ISLER. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ULMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if it would conflict with the appointment of a detective by the judge of a county court, whether he would have to get out a license?

Mr. ISLER. Mr. Speaker, it does not touch county detectives at all. This is a private detective bill.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmtive.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on Third Reading of H. R. bill No. 1352, as follows:

An Act amending the second section of an act approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred thirty-six entitled "An Act relating to roads highways and bridges" by designating termini of all roads and highways and authorizing the laying out of roads and highways with a single terminus on a highway or place of public resort

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the second section of an act approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred thirty-six entitled "An Act relating to roads highways and bridges" which reads as follows

"Section 2 The persons appointed as aforesaid shall view such ground and if they shall agree that there is occasion for a road they shall proceed to lay out the same having respect to the shortest distance and the best ground for a road and in such manner as shall do the least injury to private property and also be as far as practicable agreeable to the desire of the petitioners" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 2 The persons appointed shall view such ground and if they shall agree that there is occasion for a road they shall proceed to lay out the same having respect to the shortest distance and the best ground for a road and in such manner as shall do the least injury to private property and also be as far as practicable agreeable to the desire of the petitioners

Any road so laid out shall have each terminus thereof at a highway or a place of necessary public resort excepting however that when the said viewers shall find that the purposes for which said road is desired or the uses to which it may be put can be amply provided for by having a single terminus on a highway or place of necessary public resort and that the extension of said road to include another terminus in a highway or place of necessary public resort is unnecessarily burdensome to construct or to maintain they may lay out such road with only a single terminus on a highway or place of necessary public resort provided however no road with a single terminus as aforesaid shall be laid out unless the same shall be one mile or more in length and that there shall be at least two cleared inhabited farms or two occupied dwelling houses to each mile so laid out and that said road or major portion thereof shall have been open to and used by the public for a period of not less than two years

On the question,

Will the House agree to the Bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. JAMES A. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I do not find the bill on my file and I would like the sponser to explain it.

Mr. DeFREES. Mr. Speaker, this bill is designed to give a mesure of justice to a certain class of persons who have for years paid road taxes and as yet have been unable to get any of those road taxes on the roads they use most. In the mountainous sections, such as I come from, the roads parallel the streams and the ridge roads parallel the stream roads. It is often impossible to connect the two roads by reason of the fact that when we get back in the hills, they become so steep that it is not feasible to build a road over that portion of the ground. This condition is overcome in some parts by viewers laying out the entire road and then building only the portion of the road desired; but this is a dangerous practice, because it is possible at any time for any one to force the completion of the whole road and it would be expensive and serve no good purpose. The proceeding provided for is a safeguard. It remains under the jurisdiction of the court and is subject to all appeals, etc.

NAYS—2.

Bigger,
Missimer,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmtive.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on Third Reading of H. R. bill No. 1288, as follows:

An Act empowering cities of the first class to enact ordinances to regulate the discharge of smoke

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That every city of the first class in this Commonwealth shall have power to enact ordinances for the regulation of smoke discharges within its limits inspection of sources of such discharge and the imposing of penalties for violation of restrictions which may be ordained

Section 2 The administration under such ordinances as may be passed by councils of cities of the third class under this act shall be committed to the Department of Public Safety in which department the duties upon such subject shall be performed by an inspector and deputies and such clerks as may be required Any fines which may be imposed by the terms of those ordinances which councils of any city of the first class may enact pursuant to this statute shall be imposed and collected as fines of similar amounts imposed by ordinances of councils of such cities for the committing of nuisances are now collected

On the question,

Will the House agree to the Bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, I think the sponser ought to give a few words of explanation about this bill.

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, this is merely a validating Act. It permits councils in cities of the first class to enact ordinances regulating smoke nuisances. I believe under the ruling of the court councils have no authority to pass such ordinances. In 1911 we passed a similar bill for Pittsburgh and at this session of the Legislature we have passed similar bills giving councils of boroughs similar authority. I think we are entitled to give Philadelphia the same power.

I note that there is a typographical error in this bill. It appears to apply to cities of the third class as well as cities of the first class.

BILL POSTPONED.

I therefore move that further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1504, as follows:

An Act to amend the eighth ninth tenth thirteenth and twenty-ninth sections of an act approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one entitled "An Act providing for examination licensure and registration of persons firms or corporations engaged in or engaging in the business or work of plumbing or house drainage and prescribing certain rules regulations and requirements for the construction of plumbing house drainage and cesspools in cities of the second class and imposing fines penalties and forfeitures for violation thereof" as amended by an act approved the fourteenth day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and nine extending the provisions of said act to cities of the third class having a system of water supply and sewerage of this Commonwealth and providing further rules regulations and requirements for the construction or reconstruction of plumbing house drainage and cesspools and providing penalties and forfeitures for violation thereof

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is herebv enacted by the authority of the same That section eight of an act approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one entitled "An Act providing for the examination licensure and registration of persons firms or corporations engaged in or engaging in the business or work of plumbing or house drainage and prescribing certain rules regulations and requirements for the construction of plumbing house drainage and cesspools in cities of the second class and imposing fines penalties and forfeitures for violation thereof" which reads as follows:

Material of House Drains

Section 8 The main drainage system of every house or building shall be separately and independently connected with the street sewer where such sewer exists except where two houses are built together on a lot with a frontage of thirty feet or less when one connection with main sewer will be allowed but there shall be a seperate house drain for each house connected by a "Y" connection in the front of such houses at the property line with main house sewer or where one building exists or is erected in the rear of another on an interior lot of single ownership and no private sewer is available or can be made for the rear building through an adjoining alley courtyard or driveway the house drain from the front building may be extended to the rear building and the whole will be considered as one house drain Where it is necessary to construct a private sewer to connect with sewer on adjacent street such plans may be used as may be approved by the department or board or bureau of health but in no case shall joint drains be laid in cellars parallel with the street or alley

House drains or soil-pipes laid beneath floor must be extra heavy cast-iron pipe (as per table in section sixteen) with leaded and caulked joints and carried five feet outside cellar wall All drains or soil-pipes conected with main drain where it is above the cellar floor shall be of extra heavy cast-iron pipe with leaded and caulked joints or or heavy wrought iron pipe with screw joints properly secured and carried five feet outside cellar wall and all arrangements of soil or waste-pipes shall be as direct as possible Wrought-iron pipes shall be galvanized Changes of direction on pipes shall be made with "Y" branches both above and below the ground and where such pipes pass through a new foundation-wall a relieving arch shall be built over it with two-inch space on either side of main pipe

The size of the main house drain shall be determined by the total area of the buildings and paved surfaces to be drained according to the following table if iron pipe is used If the pipe is terra cotta the diameter shall be one size larger for the same amount of area drainage

Dia'ter.	Fall ¼ Inch Per Foot	Fall ½ Inch Per Foot.
4 in.	1,800 sq. ft. drainage area	2,500 sq. ft. drainage area
5 in.	3,000 sq. ft. drainage area	4,500 sq. ft. drainage area
6 in.	5,000 sq. ft. drainage area	7,500 sq. ft. drainage area
8 in.	9,100 sq. ft. drainage area	13,600 sq. ft. drainage area
10 in.	14,000 sq. ft. drainage area	20,000 sq. ft. drainage area

The main drains may be decreased in diameter beyond a rain-water conductor or surface inlet by permission of the department or board or bureau of health when the plans show that conditions are such as to warrant such decrease but in no case shall the main house drain be less than four (4) inches in diameter" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Material of House Drains

Section 8 The main drainage system of every house or building shall be separately and independently connected with the street sewer where such sewer exists except where two houses having together a frontage of thirty-two feet or less are built together on a lot when one main sewer will be allowed but there shall be a separate house drain for each house connected by a "Y" connection in front of such houses with main sewer or where one building exists or is erected in the rear of another on an interior lot of single ownership and no private sewer is available or can be made for the rear building through an adjoining alley court yard or driveway the house drain from the front building may be extended to the rear building and the whole will be considered as one house drain Where it is necessary to construct a private sewer to connect with sewer on adjacent street such plans may be used as may be approved by the department or board or bureau of health but in no case shall joint drains be laid in cellars parallel with the street or alley

House drains or soil-pipes laid beneath floor must be extra heavy cast-iron pipe (as per table in section sixteen) with leaded and caulked joints and carried five feet outside cellar wall All drains of soil-pipes connected with main drain where it is above the cellar floor shall be or extra heavy cast-iron pipe with leaded and caulked joints or of heavy wrought-iron pipe with screw joints properly screwed and carried five feet outside cellar wall and all arrangements of soil or waste-pipes shall be as direct as possible Wrought-iron pipes shall be galvanized Changes of direction on pipes shall be made with "Y" branches both above and below the ground and where such pipes pass through a new foundation wall a relieving arch shall be built over it with two-inch space on either side of main pipe

The size of the main house drain shall be determined by the total area of the buildings and paved surfaces to be drained according to the following table if iron pipe is used If the pipe is terra cotta the diameter shall be one size larger for the same amount of area drainage

4 in.	1,800 sq. ft. drainage area	2,500 sq. ft. drainage area
5 in.	3,000 sq. ft. drainage area	4,500 sq. ft. drainage area
6 in.	5,000 sq. ft. drainage area	7,500 sq. ft. drainage area
8 in.	9,100 sq. ft. drainage area	13,500 sq. ft. drainage area
10 in.	14,000 sq. ft. drainage area	20,000 sq. ft. drainage area

The main house drains may be decreased in diameter beyond a rain-water conductor of surface inlet by permission of the department or board or bureau of health when the plans show that conditions are such as to warrant such decrease but in no case shall the main house drain be less than four (4) inches in diameter

Section 2 That section nine of the aforesaid act which reads as follows

Location of Main Trap

"Section 9 The house drains must be provided with a horizontal trap placed immediately inside the cellar wall The trap must be provided with a hand hole for convenience in cleaning the cover of which must be properly fitted and made gas and air tight with heavy brass screw cap ferrule caulked in This class of traps shall be subject to the approval of the board or bureau of health" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 5 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. NEELY. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill which was drawn originally at the suggestion of the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Pittsburgh. Later on the Building Code Commission of the City of Pittsburgh took the matter up and at a conference consisting of members of the Building Code Commission, members of the Housing Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, Plumbers and Plumbers Supply Dealers, the bill was changed into its present form.

The idea which this bill is intended to carry out is the cheapening of the cost of plumbing in small houses. The plumbing changes in one section cuts out the house trap and another cuts out the fresh air inlet. These changes make a reduction in the cost of plumbing in small houses between twenty and thirty dollras. The only other change of the plumbing law is to permit combination sinks and laudry traps to be trapped with one trap instead of two, thereby cutting out a small additional expense. I hope that this bill will pass as it is one of the bills intended to cheapen the cost of construction of small houses.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmtive.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 935, as follows:

An Act providing for the purchase by the Commonwealth of certain lands owned by the A. Cook Sons Company at and near Cooksburg in the counties of Forest Clarion and Jefferson Pennsylvania for a public park and forest reserve providing an appropraition for said purchase and providing for the appointment of a commission to take charge of said property and defining the powers and authority of said commission and the uses to which the property shall be put

Whereas under authority of an act of Assembly approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred eleven a commission was appointed to investigate and report as to the advisability of the purchase by the Commonwealth of seven thousand two hundred and nineteen (7,219) acres of land lying in Forest Clarion and Jefferson Counties Pennsylvania owned by the A Cook Sons Company for the purpose of a State Park and Forest Reserve and

Whereas the report of said commission warrants the purchase of said land and the A Cook Sons Company has proposed to sell the same to the Commonwealth for the sum of six hundred thirty-six thousand dollars ($636,000) payable as follows one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) on the first day of September one thousand nine hundred thirteen one hundred sixty-eight thousand dollars ($168,000) on the first day of September one thousand nine hundred fourteen one hundred sixty-two thousand dollars ($162,000) on the first day of September one thousand nine hundred fifteen and one hundred fifty-six thousand dollars ($156,000) on the first day of September one thousand nine hundred and sixteen reserving to the A Cook Sons Company its successors and assigns all of the gas from five gas wellls now on the land and the oil and gas from such wells as may be drilled or drilling before the first payment on account of the purchase price as herein provided is made by the Commonwealth together with the right to maintain said wells and lay and maintain such pipe lines from the same as may be necessary to convey the oil and gas to places of consumption and sale with all rights necessary to the mining and removing of the same in the ordinary and customary manner reserving also the right to remove all personal property from the lands the right to remove all farm products for the year one thousand nine hundred thirteen the right to use the saw mill on the land during the spring of the year one thousand nine hundred thirteen to manufacture about three hundred thousand feet of lumber and the right to lay and maintain a water line from the spring at the head of Henry's Run on the three acres lying north of Cooksburg and not included in this purchase now therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That for the purpose of preserving and perpetuating a portion of the original forest of Pennsylvania in the interest of forestry conservation and preservation and maintenance of opportunities to the people of the Commonwealth and others for the study and enjoyment of distinctively natural views and conditions and for wholesome out-door recreation and the results and advantages to the people of the Commonwealth at large arising therefrom there shall be vested in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania All that certain tract of land situate at or near Cooksburg in the counties of Forest Clarion and Jefferson State of Pennsylvania containing seven thousand two hundred and nineteen (7,219) acres being the property of A Cook Sons Company and which is more fully described in the report and accompanying maps of the commission created by an act approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled "An Act providing for a commission to examine and report on the propriety of the purchase by the Commonwealth of a certain tract of land in Jefferson Clarion and Forest Counties and making an appropriation therefor" subject to the rights and liberties exceptions and reservations hereinafter set forth the same to be preserved and maintained forever as a public place or park and to be known and designated by the name of "Cook State Park"

Section 2 The sum of six hundred thirty-six thousand dollars ($636,000) is hereby specifically appropriated and set aside for the purpose of purchasing said property to be paid from any moneys in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated upon warrant issued on the State Treasurer by the commission hereinafter appointed and countersigned by the Auditor General of the Commonwealth The said sum to be paid as follows namely one hundred and fifty thousand dolllars ($150,000) on the first day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirteen one hundred sixty-eight thousand dollars ($168,000) on the first day of September one thousand nine hundred and fourteen one hundred sixty-two thousand dollars ($162,000) on the first day of September one thousand nine hundred and fifteen and one hundred fifty-six thousand dollars ($156,000) on the first day of September one thousand nine hundred and sixteen Provided That no part of said consideration shall be paid until the title to said property shall be approved by the Attorney General of the Commonwealth and the property be conveyed by the owners thereof to the Commonwealth by deed approved by the Attorney General

Section 3 Five citizens of the State shall be appointed by the Governor by and with the consent of the Senate for the term of five years who are hereby constituted commissioners of said park and shall have control and supervision thereof As often as a vacancy occurs either by expiration of term or otherwise the Governor shall fill said vacancy either for another term of five years or for the unexpired term as the case may be Said commissioners shall organize annually on the first day of June for election of a president and secretary to serve one year They shall receive no compensation for their services as commissioners rendered under this act but shall be reimbursed for their necessary expenses for travel and subsistence while engaged in their duties which reimbursements shall upon return to the proper State officials upon oath or affirmation be paid from an appropriation duly made for maintenance any revenue derived from the park to be turned into the State Treasury

Section 4 Within thirty days after the passage of this act the Governor shall appoint said commissioners who shall promptly organize by the appointment of a president and secretary and thereupon after the approval of the title and deed by the Attorney General on behalf of the Commonwealth accept the proposition of the A Cook Sons Company and take over the title to said seven thousand two hundred and nineteen (7,219) acres of land in fee simple clear of all encumbrances excepting and reserving all of the oil and gas from five gas wells now on the land and the oil and gas from such wells as may be drilled or drilling before the first payment on account of the purchase price as herein provided is made by the Commonwealth together with the right to maintain said wells and lay and maintain such pipe lines from the same as may be necessary to convey the oil and gas to places of consumption and sale to A Cook Sons Company its successors and with all rights necessary and customary to remove the same in the ordinary and customary manner and with the privilege necessary and incident thereto and reserving also the right to remove all personal property from the land the right to remove all farm products for the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen the right to use the saw mill on the land during the spring of the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen to manufacturers about three hundred thousand feet of lumber and the right to lay and maintain a water line from the spring at the head of Henry's Run on the three acres lying north of Cooksburg not included in this purchase

Section 5 After the said premises shall have passed into possession of said park commissioners they shall have full control and supervision thereof and be empowered to adopt plans for the improvement preservation and maintenance thereof with power to carry the same into execution But the said commissioners shall not have power to contract any debt or expend any moneys for the purpose unless an appropriation for said debts or expenditures shall previously have been made

Section 6 If and whenever a State Park Commission shall be created by act of Assembly for the suprevision of State parks then such commission shall take over the park hereby created and administer the same in the manner not inconsistent with the provisions for its use as defined in this act and thereupon the commission hereby created shall be dissolved

Section 7 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Jefferson, the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Jefferson permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman—

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to state for the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia, if it is an explanation of the bill he desires, that a commission was appointed two years ago to investigate this matter.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Jefferson. I desire to ask the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee whether or not the title that is sought to be acquired by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is to be in fee and free from all incumbrances.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I am not the sponsor of this bill, nor do I propose to stand sponsor for the same, but for the benefit of the gentleman from Philadelphia, I would say that if he will carefully read the bill he will find that this land cannot be taken over until a satisfactory title is produced.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman and ask him whether he can give to this House a full explanation of the character of the title that the act is supposed to convey over to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, not any further than is explained in the bill itself, which says that it must be in fee simple and satisfactory before it is taken over.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman whether or not it is not a fact that six hundred thousand dollars is the amount to be appropriated for the purchase of this land?

Mr. NORTH. The amount is stated in the bill, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman further. I would like to know what explanation the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee has to give the House for the payments that are set forth in the bill,—$150,000 in September, $168,000 in September, 1914, $162,000 on the first day of September, 1915, and $156,000 on the first day of September, 1916, when under the provisions of his bill it is specifically set forth that $600,000 is set apart in the treasury. What is the benefit, I desire to ask the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee in having these payments divided in this manner, and the state at the same time paying interest on the money remaining in the treasury or in the depositories, and paying a lower rate of interest than the State is paying?

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, this represents the interest on deferred payments.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Is it not so that under the terms of of the bill the sum of $636,000 is hereby specifically appropriated and set apart for the purpose of purchasing land, I would like to ask if that is not the intent of the bill?

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I did not understand the question.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw my interrogation.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Jefferson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Jefferson permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Jefferson whether or not there are 7219 acres in this tract of land.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I have been so informed.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman whether or not the Commission appointed to investigate this matter did not report that there were 7219 acres in this tract of land, and then make a statement that there were three or four or some small tracts of land which belonged to other parties than the parties who are seeking to make this sale.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, possibly the sponsor of the bill can give this information.

Mr. ALLEN. Then, Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Forest permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MECHLING. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if in the Cook tract there are not three or four small tracts of land.

Mr. MECHLING. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALLEN. What is the acreage of those tracts, and how many are there?

Mr. MECHLING. There are three or four, but I do not know the acreage, but they are not counted in with the 7219.

Mr. ALLEN. They are not counted in?

Mr. MECHLING. Not at all.

Mr. ALLEN. Then the tract of land described in this bill has other tracts of land in it?

Mr. MECHLING. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALLEN. Over which the State would have no control until a purchase would be made at some future time.

Mr. MECHLING. That is right.

Mr. ALLEN. I desire to ask whether is the water that is provided for, a spring, is the source of the water supply for this entire tract?

Mr. MECHLING. Oh no, that it just for their residences.

Mr. ALLEN. This is the old Homestead?

Mr. MECHLING. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALLEN. That is where the spring springs up?

Mr. MECHLING. Not on the tract not counted in. It has to come over there. The pipe line would run over this particular tract.

Mr. ALLEN. How many other sources of water supply are there?

Mr. MECHLING. There are quite a number of springs of water all over this tract.

Mr. ALLEN. How many gas and oil wells are there on this tract?

Mr. MECHLING. Five. The Clarion River runs over this land for seven and a half miles.

Mr. ALLEN. Are these small pieces of land contiguous or separated?

Mr. MECHLING. They are separated.

Mr. ALLEN. From each other?

Mr. MECHLING. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call the attention of the House to the provisions of this bill. It might be well, if we have a tract of land over which we are seeking to have control, to have a solid tract of land. It seems to me, Mr. Speaker, that for the state to acquire great acreages of this kind, 7219 acreas, which, according to the statement of the sponsor of the bill, has within it three or four separate and district tracts of land not even contiguous, but separated, that control over that central and outlying districts will be no control, although it is very material. In the first place I presume that those gentlemen of the House who are familiar with the timber laws, know what forest fires are and what they mean. The State would have no control over these small tracts in relation to these fires and so far as the prevention of forest fires is concerned.

If a forest fire were to break out on this particular property, then the entire investment which the State had made for public park purposes would be wiped out and the barrenness of the soil of that particular section of the country would show up in full force and virtue. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further call the House's attention to the fact that the report of the commission which did report in relation to this land is referred to in this bill both in the preamble part and in the body of the bill. When you take away from this land all the exceptions that are made for the benefit of those who are attempting to sell it to the State, there is nothing left but two things: The first thing is the soil and the second thing is those things which are now attached to the sale save and except the crop. Under the provisions of this bill all water rights are reserved from the spring which is peculiarly named, with rights of piping, gas and oil and all mineral rights are also reserved. Mark you well it states in the bill that there are certain wells now in operation on this land that those who are selling to the State under this bill have the right that when the first payment is made whether it is made in September or made in a year hence or two years hence, that all the wells which are started between now and then are covered by this bill. The mining rights are absolutely protected so that you have in point of fact what I said a moment ago merely the soil and the timber that is on that land now because of the fact that even all the personal property that is on any part of the land is especially reserved and is to be removed. The crops which are growing are especially reserved and are to be removed and it says something in the bill about the right to use the saw mill in the spring of 1913. I don't see how 1913 got in there because the spring of 1913 has already passed by and we are now in the summertime of 1913. I want to further call your attention to something that strikes me as very peculiar in this bill. That is in these payments which have been suggested. A few moments ago, it has been noted that in the first bill you will note, this has been stricken out:—The gross sum paid for property, six hundred and twenty-four thousand dollars, and this is now six hundred and thirty-six thousand dollars. Still the money has not been appropriated as has been suggested and the payments put on ahead. I don't say that that amounts to much but there is something else that does mean something. It seems to me, and why it was striken out I would like to know. That is under the mining rights and the oil and gas rights and why it should be reserved. You will find in the original bill, it provides for that reservation for a period of twenty-five years. Under this bill it now provides for the reservation until the end of time. It seems to me that if you strike that reservation off, limiting the period over which the right to mines and gas and oil should inure to the benefit of the sellers when you strike that out for twenty-five years, it would not inure to the benefit of the State and then you increase besides, the selling price from six hundred and twenty-four thousand dollars to six hundred and thirty-six thousand dollars. Mr. Speaker, it seems to be a bad business proposition on the grounds that it seems to me that we had opportunities to make reservations in a bill referring only to the finding of the commission or rather to the report of the commission in making reservation in this bill or presumably making it cover the same thing, and then, in the same breath, amending this bill so that its terms are more beneficial to the sellers than they were even in the commission's report. I call attention to this fact at this time that sufficient evidence is already manifest in itself by the files which have been furnished the members to show that there would be great disappointment to many of the members in taking back to the institutions which they hope to favor and have favored at the State's expense and voting an appropriation for beneficial associations charitable organization and institutions and yet in one bulk sum, we are to give away not for a complete tract of land but for tracts interspersed here and there with other tracts of land over which the State would have no control some six hundred and thirty-six thousand dollars. I now desire to interrogate the gentleman from Forest, Mr. Mechling, in relation to one more point. I want to ask the gentleman how far this tract of land is from a railroad.

Mr. MECHLING. Mr. Speaker, about a half of mile.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman how far it is from a railroad station?

Mr. MECHLING. Mr. Speaker, about a half of mile.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman, does the main body of the land lie within two mile of a railroad?

Mr. MECHLING. Mr. Speaker, it probably would not reach the center. I would like to say that the Lake Shore and New York Central have two surveys and expect later on to construct railways in this vicinity.

Mr. ALLEN. Is that the road that is now in the hands of the receiver?

Mr. MECHLING. Mr. Speaker, not to my knowledge.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call the attention to another feature which seems to be somewhat material. I refer to section one lines 24 and 25 in relation to this land, "to be preserved and maintained forever as a public place or park and to be known and designated by the name of Cook State Park." If that means anything, it means as has been well suggested by the gentleman Mr. North that this property is to pass absolutely for what? For a single purpose and if the State see as it must see. because any one who is acquainted with the railroad facilities in that section of the State knows that you can hardly get to this tract of land from anywhere and if the State buys and pays this six hundred thousand dollars and interest on preferred payment, that it has got to stay there as a park, it does not make any difference in time to come whether the State wants to keep it as a park or an investment. If they want to realize on it as an investment, their hands are absolutely tied and every member of this House must know that if he reads lines 24 and 25 in section one. You might sell me a horse that is worth five hundred dollars for two hundred dollars and if I have to keep that horse and cannot use it and cannot sell it it would not be much of a bargain; that is it would be a dead horse on your hands; it would be something I could not use; a bird without a cage. So in this case you buy a tract of land of seven thousand two hundred acres and when you buy it, you tie your own hands by saying "I can use it for one purpose and one purpose only." How are you going to use it in future years? By amending the law? How can you amend a law of this kind, tell me that? Mr. Speaker, we have been here from the time that this House met early in January, and we have had photographs flashed before us and we have had constant lobbying and I have lying under my desk some data which states that some sixty odd members of this House visited this tract of land a short while ago and I presume that is all the Appropriation Committee and some more. I suppose that they went there for the purpose of seeing for themselves and advising this House whether or not this was a good deal. If it is a good deal, something that is worth money to the State, let us hear now before this vote is cast learn or find out wherein it is worth the money. We as members of this Legislature, ought to stand on our rights in demanding that we shall receive what we are paying for. Our attitude towards the State ought to be just the same as it would be in an individual capacity. If you have something that is worth the money that is asked for it, if we need the thing we want it and will buy it, but if you have a dead horse on your hands and you cannot shoulder it on the State through us and that is the attitude we should assume. I would like to have some one tell this House how a body of land that has other tracts scattered through it over which it has no control, how it is going to have a park that the State is going to maintain and beautify and keep time out of mind —until the end of time according to the provisions of this bill. How are you going to get to it? How are you going to reach it? Where does the railroad run that passes from as the gentleman has said within a half of mile of this property? What points does it reach? What people are there to put in touch with this community. Why, I leave it to the intelligence of the members of this House. This tract of land was here before any of us came here. How many of you, members of this House have heard of this magnificent tract of land that ought to be preserved to the great State of Pennsylvania? How many of you have ever heard of it? It is not a fair question; it never has been and who has heard, Mr. Speaker, on the floor of this House up to this time, any member of the House saying to this House or state, to the House why the State ought to spend six hundred and thirty-six thousand dollars for this investment? I would like to know and until I do know I shall have to vote against this bill.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman whether he was one of the commissioners who went there? Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I was.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, under the act of assembly passed at the last session a commission was appointed and you were a member of that Commission?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I was.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I see by the report sent out by the Commission that the three commissioners went up on the land and paid visit. I desire to know the number of visits that were made.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, one visit.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, over what length of time did that visit extend?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, one day.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman further, who are these experts that they depend upon for their information, Mr. McEwen, Mr. W. E. Henderson and Mr. F. H. Henderson?

Mr. WILLIAMS. They are timber cruisers with a reputation in the northern part of the State, where their work is very largely done, that justifies their employment and the purchase of timber on their estimates by the people that employ them.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman whether or not the Commission depended upon the report of the three experts entirely for their information that they report as to the value of the timber of this land?

Mr. WILLIAMS Mr. Speaker, no, not as to the value of the timber, but as to the quantity.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman where they got the information as to the value of the timber.

Mr. WILLIAMS. From our experience in the lumber business.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, am I to understand that the three members of the Commission are all men engaged in the lumber business?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, Senator Sones is the largest individual manufacturer of lumber in the State of Pennsylvania. I myself, to-day, am not in the lumber business, although I have been and I know something of the value of timber. Senator Kurtz is not, I believe, engaged in the lumber business. He may have been, for all I know.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this bill is a bill of very great importance and it would be a great hardship for the members of this House to record their votes for this bill without investigating it further than the investigation that we have had to-night. It is unfortunate, Mr. Speaker, that the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee either has no information so far as this $600,000 bill is concerned, or he does not desire to be separated from it. But, Mr. Speaker, looking at this bill, it is a bill that has been molded in a way that likely is attractive to the eyes of the members of the House, but when you analyze the bill, you see that it has been molded with a purpose. In the first place, Mr. Speaker, we do not find that this is a large piece of land that has been given over to the State by any charitably inclined person. It is a piece of property that has been offered to the State by the owners who have been here this session and the session before. The gentleman from Allegheny says that this park has been in existence long before many of us were legislators. That is so, Mr. Speaker, and this bill has been in existence for some time longer than some of us have been members. This is not a piece of property that has been given over to the State, nor is it a piece of property that has been given to the State as a bargain. It is a piece of property that is being offered to the State where there is a little bit of dickering. Last session, Mr. Speaker, we had this bill before the House. A commission was appointed. We find from the report of that commission that when the owners of the property were negotiating with the Commission that they might make their report to this House, that they asked for $800,000 and when they asked for $800,000, they asked the right to reserve the gas from five gas wells now on the land and gas from such wells as may be drilled or drilling before the acceptance of this proposal, together with the right to maintain said wells, lay and maintain such pipes over the same as may be necessary to convey gas to the place of consumption or sale, and also to reserve the right to remove all personal property from the land, the right to reserve the farm products for the year 1913, the right to use the sawmill on the land during the spring of the year 1913, to manufacture from 500,000 to 1,000,000 feet of lumber, and the right to lay and maintain a water line from the spring at the head of Henry's Run, not included in the proposed sale. Then we find that those who want to turn this land over to the State, if you don't want to give $800,000, then for $600,000 they will sell you this:

> "The said owners make also a second proposition to sell and convey to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the above mentioned property, reserving all coal, oil, gas, and other minerals, for the sum of six hundred thousand dollars; reserving, also, the right to remove all personal property, farm products for 1913, and the use of the sawmill, as above specified, and also, the right to lay and maintain water pipes, as above set forth, which proposal of sale is also attached thereto and marked "Exhibit D" and made a part of this report. The following named tracts of land within the boundaries of the land in question, are not included in the proposal of sale, above mentioned: Heirs of David Heffron, containing two hundred and fifty acres, more or less; S H. Cook, containing fifty acres, more or less; Sebastian Cook, containing fifty acres more or less; and the tract surrounding the spring, containing three acres, more or less—all of which are shown by the map, above referred to and heretofore attached."

Now, Mr. Speaker, those have been the two offers that were made to the Commission, and those are the two offers that the Commission has suggested to the State. Now, let us see what else the Commission has been satisfied to stand for. The reserving of all coal, gas, and other minerals for the sum of $600,000, reserving also the right to remove all personal property, farm products for the year 1913, and the use of the sawmill as above specified, and also the right to lay and maintain water pipes as above set forth. In other words, Mr. Speaker, the Commission which was appointed at the suggestion of this House by Act of Assembly has seen fit to come to this Legislature and suggest that this Legislature purchase this 7,000 acres of land which they admit to be worth as land only $600,000; to purchase that land and hold it as a park; and still allow the present owners of that property to have all the coal, all the minerals, all the gas, and at the same time all the rights to carry on their business. Mr. Speaker, was there ever such impudence offered to a legislature? Mr. Speaker, such a suggestion by a commission to this Legislature is simply disgraceful. To think that we would give $600,000 to preserve 7,000 acres of land and give to its grantors the power of mining coal, the power of sinking the wells for the gas! Now that is what they have suggested. But, Mr. Speaker, the Appropriation Committee of this House, whether fully informed as to the Commission's suggestion or not, have seen fit not to report a bill with all that the Commission would have allowed, but they have reported a bill which of itself is sufficient to condemn it. This is what they have done: They have reported this bill asking us to appropriate $600,000 and pay interest on three or four payments, while the money is lying in the pocket of the State, drawing the small percentage of interest we get from our depositaries. They have asked that we buy this property subject to those restrictions, excepting and reserving all of the oil and the gas from five gas wells now on the land and the oil and the gas from such wells as may be drilled or drilling before the first payment on account of the purchase price as herein provided is made by the Commonwealth, together with the right to maintain said wells and lay and maintain such pipe lines from the same as may be necessary to convey the oil and gas to places of consumption and sale, to A. Cook Sons Company, its successors, and with all rights necessary and customary to remove the same in the ordinary and customary manner, and with the privilege necessary and incident thereto, and reserving also the right to remove and reserving also the right to remove all personal property from the land, the right to remove all farm products for the year 1913, the right to use the sawmill on the land during the spring of the year 1913 to manufacture about 300,000 feet of lumber, and the right to lay and maintain a water line from the spring at the head of Henry's Run.

Why, Mr. Speaker, no man in this House would buy a property with such easements. No man would buy a property with the right of laying a water line across his land, and no man would buy such a defective title as has been offered here. But more, Mr. Speaker, we are compelled to preserve this as a park. They speak, Mr. Speaker, in the preamble of the bill, of the great wealth that is in the trees and the virgin timber. Why, Mr. Speaker, what does that amount to to this State?

What value is this grown, matured timber to the State if we are going to preserve it, as a park? It means then that we are going to preserve that timber, not that we are going to put it upon the market and sell it for the five hundred thousand dollars they speak of here, so that that is mere clap trap. The whole bill means this: That we are going to spend $600,000.00 to buy Mr. Cook's land and allow him to maintain his homestead, allow him to maintain his oil wells, allow him to maintain his springs, allow him to have his water rights and have our $600,000.00 in his pocket and a park surrounding his place. Now I say, Mr. Speaker, while the preserving of the forest is of great importance, it does not mean merely the preserving of the old trees. It means the building of the new. It means that the bill which we all voted for last session, that was advocated by Francis, the head of the Western Penitentiary, who sought the getting of a large tract in Centre County and is now urging the getting of additional ground which he can put in forest reserves, the development of trees, the growing of trees, a nursery for trees, not merely the maintaining of a park for those who would sell it to us and hold on to the stake and then actually put in the bill that we must name the park after him. Wh,y Mr. Speaker, to my mind we are not ready to vote for a bill of this character. Surely we have not reached the position now of offering to record our votes to spend $600,000.00 of the State's money for this.

But more than that, Mr. Speaker, we find this bill has been drawn so as to win over the votes of us who buy our things on the installment plan. Why we find it says, September 1st, 1913, all you have to pay is $150,000.00, a mere trifle against $700,000.00; and a year after that you pay another $150,000.00 with a few more thousand stuck on for keeping the $150,000.00 in your treasury; then the next year you pay $150,000.00 plus the five per cent. interest because you have kept that money in the treasury, and then on until we have paid $600,000.00 and $36,000.00 for interest money which we owe for this land while the $600,000.00 is actually laying in our treasury, because it says that it shall be specifically appropriated and set apart. Now I say, Mr. Speaker, that this bill should not go through. I do not believe that the Appropriation Committee know a thing about this bill. I do not think the pitiable spectacle of the Chairman of that Committee talking about $600,000.00 and those who have no knowledge to explain is such as we ought to depend on for our vote and, therefore, Mr. Speaker, I move the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. CONRADE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

The SPEAKER declared the nays seem to have it.

Whereupon a division was called for, 42 voting in the affirmative and 73 in the negative.

And the question was determined in the negative.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BROSIUS. Mr. Speaker, there has been a great deal of talk on this question with regard to this bill by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Allen and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. John R. K. Scott, but most of the talk, to my way of thinking, was not germane to the bill.

This bill, if you read it carefully, gentlemen of the House, you will see, if the State purchases this land you will get a fee simply title to the whole of the 7,219 acres with the exception of five gas wells and those three pieces of land that were mentioned by Mr. Allen. Those three pieces of land are not included in the 7,219 acres. Those pieces of land lie along the public road that passes through this piece of land and will not interfere with this tract of land in any shape or form, and as far as the bill is concerned—

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Jefferson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Jefferson, Mr. Brosius, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BROSIUS. Mr. Speaker, when I get through.

It appears that a great many of the members of the House do not understand anything about this tract of land or what it contains or what timber is growing on this piece of land. I have been in the lumbering business more or less from the time I was fifteen years of age up to the present time, rafting and running lumber and buying and selling real estate and lumber, and I know personally what is on this tract of land, and I know that the insinuations that are made against Mr. Cook, are altogether unwarranted. Mr. Cook is not anxious at all to sell this land to the State but some of the rest of the citizens of the State of Pennsylvania are anxious to have this land purchased as a State Reserve and reserve it for that purpose.

Now let me say to you, gentlemen of the House, in the first place this Commission that reported based all their information—and I have no doubt but what their information as far as it went was correct—the amount of lumber and timber that they reported on this ground—I know it personally from my own observation and there is a great deal more than is reported in their report. This land contains, as I stated, about 7,219 acres under the old survey and if the land was surveyed at the present time that section of land I am satisfied will contain almost 8,000 acres instead of 7,000. There are about 2,500 acres of that land in virgin timber, consisting of white pine and hemlock. That white pine timber is anyway from two feet to five feet across the stump in diameter and from 125 to 150 feet tall, a great many of those trees, and in those trees there are from three hundred to seven thousand feet of lumber, in each one of those trees. There are some trees that probably contain more than 7,000 feet of lumber in them and those trees are anyway from 40 to 70 feet tall without a limb. On the same piece of ground where this pine timber stands there is also hemlock, the land being very well covered with the finest kind of pine and hemlock timber. The hemlock is anyway from one foot to three feet in diameter and the trees stand from 100 to 125 feet in height and many of those trees are from 30 to 50 feet without a limb. This virgin timber on these twenty-five hundred acres that I referred to is estimated to be anywhere from 200 to 500 years old. Nevertheless the age of it—I have gone over that land several times myself and examined it carefully and there is scarcely a dead top to be seen on any tree growing on this land, and I believe I only saw two or three dead trees on the whole tract and those were struck by lightning. Those are the only trees that I saw not in a good state of preservation,—a few of them, but very few. On this land where the virgin timber grows there is scarcely any underbrush. A man can ride through on horse back almost anywhere, and those trees you might say are beauties, and I never saw —and I have been through a great many forests—I never saw a nicer forest in my life than those 2,500 acres.

Outside of these 2,500 acres there are probably about 2,000 acres that some of the larger trees were cut from some years ago, probably fifty or sixty years ago, but the balance of the virgin timber stands there just as nice and in as good a state of preservation as the timber that I referred to before, where it is all virgin timber; but with the balance of the virgin timber there is a second growth covering all of that 2,000 acres. Outside of those 4,500 acres that I have already mentioned, there are probably 2,000 or more that are covered with a nice young second growth of hemlock and pine. I want to call the House's attention particularly to this second growth pine. It is some of the finest second growth pine that we can find anywhere in the State and probably the finest. These second growth pine trees are anywhere from 75 to 100 feet tall and on a great many of them the limbs have fallen off and there are many stems from twenty to thirty or forty feet without a limb. These trees are anywhere from 75 to 100 feet tall and will cut in lumber anywhere from 250 to 300 or 400 feet, that is this second growth pine; so that any of you that know anything about second growth pine will know that it is the nicest second growth.

Outside of this second growth pine there is a second growth hemlock all over this tract. In many places where the virgin timber is all cut out it is thickly covered and other places not so thick; but there is some second growth hemlock growing all over the tract; and outside the hemlock timber it has been estimated by the owner and others that are well acquainted with it, and from what I seen myself I know it to be true that there is between ten and twelve million feet of hard wood growing all over the tract and especially where the virgin timber has been cut.

Now, outside of this timber, the value of the timber, as nearly as I can recollect the estimate that I made of the timber from what I saw myself and what others thought—the estimate made by the owners, of the value of the timber is somewhat larger than the estimate made by the estimators selected by the Commission. I am satisfied that there is at least nine million feet of first original pine on this tract and it has been estimated that there are thirty millions of hemlock and ten millions of second growth white pine and twelve millions of hard wood growing there. That would be worth outside of anything else, the timber I have mentioned is worth fully as much as what they have offered this land to the State. I am satisfied and I believe that any one who knows anything about it will say that the land is worth nearer a million dollars than it is six hundred thousand. The gentlemen who have preceded me have spoken about everything being reserved, and when they speak about the gas, I do not think that they know much about values. These five gas wells have been on this piece of land, and some of them have been producing gas for twenty years. There was a change made, but I do not understand why that change was made in the bill in the Appropriation Committee. I understand that it was for the reason that it was supposed that the gas would be all used up and the wells would become dry before the twenty-five years, and that they did not want to make the time longer than the time there would be gas in the wells. About the gas in this tract of land, I am satisfied that if the State wished to buy or purchase this land they could lease the gas on that land and get plenty of money out of it to improve the property without any expense in any way, but of course that is not the idea of this bill. As I understand the bill, it is to preserve it as a forest reserve and a public park for the State so that future generations see what our forests were like at one time. Since I have been a member of the Legislature, I have heard laudatory speeches eulogizing the great State of Pennsylvania, and if we allow this privilege to go by we will lose one of the things that we can never bring back. Other States have lost their opportunities. We have the opportunity now to say and preserve a small portion of the original forests of this State, and as I said before, if we do not do it now, this will be the last opportunity.

Mr. REESE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Jefferson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Jefferson permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BROSIUS. If the gentleman will wait until I am through, I will be willing to answer any questions he may ask. Mr. Speaker, I was going to say in regard to the timber that I think I have said enough about the timber so that if the gentlemen of the House believe what I say that they certainly ought to be satisfied that the value of the timber is there, the value asked for this tract. Outside of that, the scenery of this place is something magnificent. I do not think there is anything else in the United States, east of the Mississippi river that comes anyways near to it. There was some talk by the gentleman who proceeded me about the water, and the water rights. The whole tract is covered with runs, running through this tract of land almost in all directions. I think may be there are one hundred springs on it. One spring would not take it all. This spring that is desired to be reserved is the spring where Mr. Cooke gets the water for his own home, and the part where his house is situated does not belong to this property at all, so there is nothing in that. So far as the gas wells have are concerned, probably the gentlemen do not know that these gas wells have been taken care of before this and piped before this, and you do not see the pipes at all, and it would be no hindrance to the State to have these pipes there. So far as I know, and I think I am correct, Mr. Cooke, or the owners of these other pieces of land do not intend to put down any more gas wells. These gas wells are to furnish gas for their own purposes. If the State purchases this piece of land, if they wanted to light up this territory, if they would put a well down at the right place they could get enough gas out of one well to light the whole property and light all the residences and everything else in the whole tract. Now, in addition to this timber on this tract, there is a saw mill in good shape there to say any lumber that the State or the Commission, if it becomes a State park, might want to use, without any expense of building a saw mill or anything of that kind. There is a saw mill there in good condition with saws of the latest pattern that could saw a hundred thousand feet of lumber per day if necessary to do so without any expense whatever. Outside of what I have already said, I may say that one of the gentlemen who preceded me, I think it was the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. J. R. K. Scott, said something about Mr. Cooke reserving a mineral spring. There is more than one mineral spring there outside of the one he has reserved. This spring that he has reserved is where he gets his water to use in his own residence, and piping that water to Mr. Cooke's residence, the pipes only run over, or rather under, a small portion of this land, and will not interfere with the State's rights at all. About the mineral springs,—probably I would have forgottem them if Mr. John R. K. Scott had not mentioned them, but probably every member in this House has heard something about the mineral springs at Cambridge Springs. These springs along the Clarion River are equal in medicinal qualities to any spring in Cambridge Springs. I know this from what people acquainted with it have told me and what I know by personal experience, and I know this to be the case. I have been in both places and have used and tested the water.

Mr. REESE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BROSIUS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. REESE. Mr. Speaker, what is the average haul of this hemlock to the railroads, or points of shipment?

Mr. BROSIUS. Mr. Speaker, some of it would not be very far, probably a mile, a great deal of it. Some of the hemlock could be hauled to the railroad within a distance of one mile.

Mr. REESE. Mr. Speaker, I am asking about the average haul of the entire tract.

Mr. BROSIUS. Mr. Speaker, I would say that the average haul would probably be about between three and four miles.

Mr. REESE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman further, and ask him whether or not this pine is in one strip or scattered all over the tract?

Mr. BROSIUS. A great deal of about is in a tract of about 2,500 acres, and some of it is scattered over probably one-half of the tract.

Mr. REESE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman the average thickness of this white pine and hemlock?

Mr. BROSIUS. Mr. Speaker, I believe I stated that in my remarks, but for the benefit of the gentleman I will say that the hemlock is anyway from twelve inches,—I saw some a good bit smaller,—the average is from a foot to three feet, and some is three and a half feet in diameter, and probably from eighty-five to one hundred and eighty-five feet tall. The white pine, the first growth, what I call virgin timber, is anyways from eighteen inches to five feet, and probably several trees that I noticed would be five and one-half feet in diameter.

Mr. REESE. Mr. Speaker, the report of this Commission as herein stated states that there is 25,000,000 feet of hemlock at twelve dollars per thousand, eight million feet of white pine at six dollars per thousand, and one million feet of white pine, second growth. So that the members of this House do not run away with the idea that this is a white pine proposition that we have been talking about, and advertising and showing picture of, I desire to say that it isn't. The size of the trees is one inducement for me to vote against the bill for the reason that the thicker the tree the sooner it should be cut down, or it will fall. After twenty some years of experience in the upper country, and the clearing of tracts in six counties of the State, I know that it is a delicate proposition for even I or any one else who is investigating this amount of timber on this tract to make the investigation within one day, rather sixty days. I do not say that the gentlemen who made this estimate for the Commission are not correct, but I think that this House ought to have a sworn statement from competent inspectors, or hard wood scalers as we call them, before this State invests that amount of money. As he stated, the haul of the hemlock, in case it was discovered that this hemlock should be cut out, the haul of four miles and a half to the railroad, the price of twelve dollars per thousand is high. If the white pine, of which the tract contains eight million feet was A-1 white pine at that average haul it would be worth today a great deal more money than they quote here. Now that white pine would depend upon location, so would the hemlock, and so would the oak. Many oak tracts look pretty until they are cut into, then you discover the rot, and I feel that with the information that we have before this House that we should cut away from the timber and lumber business. Some of us have had a little experience along that direction, and we will profit by it voting no.

Mr. MECHLING. Mr. Speaker, I want to call the attention of the House to what is reserved, reserving to A. Cooke Sons Company, its successors and assigns, all of the gas from five gas wells now on the land, and the oil and gas from such wells as may be drilled or drilling before the first payment on account of the purchase price as herein provided is made by the Commonwealth. This is the reserve of the oil and gas that is made, and it doesn't reserve any mineral of any other kind, neither coal or anything else, only these five gas wells drilled, and some of them have been drilled for twenty-five years. In regard to that spring, that run runs over a short piece of land contained in this tract, and that water is to supply their residences, and these three acres are not counted in, and there is water there, and spring water, to supply any good-sized municipality in this country. It is dotted all over with the best kind of springs, and all these side streams and tributaries of the Clarion River all full of good spring water, and in regard to the condition and health of this timber.

There is no better hemlock in the State of Pennsylvania than in the hills of the Clarion river and it is in the best of condition. In regard to these cruisers—they are the best that they could get in the State and they didn't do this all in one day. They took their time and they didn't estimate anything under twelve inches and any one knows when the fire has been kept out of the tract of timber for sixty years they patrolled everything. There is a wonderful undergrowth all through it and all over it. There is nothing in the State of Pennsylvania that compares with itt. You see fine growth of hemlock from the smallest size to these monarchs that have been there two or three hundred years. A good deal of this opposition has been very unfair and unjust. This question has come up and some say that they wanted to put one over on the State. This is a proposition that the State is getting or will get if they take it dollar for dollar that has been invested. In regard to those pieces of land that are in there—they are farms and they can be bought at farm prices; they are all for sale; two of them are abandoned and the price will be very liberal. Those people don't own them and never did own them. In regard to the mineral springs, Mr. Brosius did call attention to that. The scenery is fine; it is called by a great many people the eastern Yellowstone Park.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, as a number of gentlemen desire to speak on this question and the hour is late, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

Whereupon, a division was called for, and 63 gentlemen voting in the affirmative and 65 in the negative,

The motion was not agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The question recurs,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I think the House has been somewhat misled in regard to this bill by some statements that have been made that this Committee ca Appropriation which has had this bill under consideration have not given it any consideration. As has been stated by some members who have spoken here, that they didn't believe that the Committee knew anything about the proposition. I want to say to the House that Dr. Rothrock the best forester in the United States and in America, and Mr. Elliott one of the men who has perhaps the next best knowledge of the forestry condition appeared before the Appropriation Committee and gave them an hour and a half address on this proposition. I think a large number of the members of the Appropriation Committee very carefully examined the map that was furnished to them that gave all the information correctly and whatever information was given to the House by those who have addressed you, many of them in opposition to this bill, it appears to me that there could not help but be some misunderstanding about it. In addition to having the maps and the information bearing on this property, a number of the members of the Appropriation Committee visited the premises and went over a large portion of this property, and I believe the Appropriation Committee has fully understood the full text of the bill that is before this House, notwithstanding the fact that statements have been made to the contrary. The strongest statements in opposition have been made by attorneys. One representing the city of Pittsburgh, practically representing Allegheny County, and the other the great city of Philadelphia. Why, the gentleman from Philadelphia knows what a public park stands for and he has stood not only for a public park but he has stood on the floor of this House and voted and urged the great boulevard in the city of Philadelphia and for the beautifying of the city of Philadelphia. There is only one proposition to be considered by this House seriously: The question is whether there is any log-rolling or sinister motive behind this bill. It can be stated on the strongest authority that there is not and I know and I am satisfied that there is not. This proposition has been presented intelligently and stands upon its merits for this House to consider. The proposition boiled down is simply this: In a certain section in the State of Pennsylvania there is beautiful scenery and in that part of the State of Pennsylvania there is located over seven thousand acres of forest land. There is land of timber, the best in the State. It has been carefully cruised out by men who are willing to put their money behind the calculation of these cruisers. I have the information from a gentleman with whom I am acquainted who has been in that section of the State and he says that the State can sell that timber if they don't like to continue with the land as a park for one hundred thousand dollars profit or a hundred and fifty thousan dollars. Therefore the question that comes up is simply this: Here is some timber that has required from three to five hundred years to grow. It is about as the saying is "The last of the Mohicans." It is the last of the magnificent monarchs of the forests of the great State of Pennsylvania. Are they worth keeping? Are they worth having in a great park in this State for your children and your children's children who will have an opportunity to go and visit the park at some future time and see the remaining monarchs of the forest and see how they stand there in their beauty. They cannot be duplicated in the world; they cannot be compared anywhere with trees on the map of the world. Suppose the state of California allowed those great trees in the Yosemite Valley to be cut down and destroyed? No, the people said "It shall not be; we will perpetuate them for generations to come." It has taken thousands of years to grow those trees and men come now from across the ocean to view those wonderful monarchs of the forest in the Yosemite Valley. Are those trees worth keeping? They are. Are these monarchs to be preserved? Are these trees worth keeping? Is this forest land worth preserving? You know that the land alone, if it fell into the hands of the State for the purpose of serving one great watershed and when you had that opportunity to fill the springs—and Mr. Rothrock and Mr. Elliott saw the conservation feature of this particular proposition. Mr. Cook would not offer this property for sale at this price but over here in the State of Pennsylvania in the Allegheny Mountains there is a proposition to make a State park and that is worth the State's while and he thinks it is a good thing to do it and that is all there is to this question. I feel that if the State has the money to spare by all means we should take that property. That is my feeling about the matter. I feel that these monarchs of the forest that cannot be matched anywhere else in the world are worth while preserving for our children who come after. We have a conservation feature in this proposition. Time and time there are lands that we have covered all over the State for that very purpose. We are able to get this land and we think we want it to conserve the water sources as we are doing now by buying land at one dollar and one dollar and fifty cents an acre. We can sell timber off any of this land if we should not wish to keepj it and have it as a park. I won't say that you shall vote for it but this is the real true situation and all there is to it. My opinion is that if we have the revenue that we should take advantage of the opportunity and secure this land. The gentleman from Philadelphia talks and says why should we pay interest on this money. He knows if he examines the appropriation bills to which he refers and if he takes the appropriations that are asked for by the city of Philadelphia, he will find that it is eight or nine millions of dollars made to all the various institutions. It is worth while to have a park like there are in many other states of the union. It is surprising to see the attorney representing a great city in the State of Pennsylvania that has a park of which the city is proud and who, just a month ago, told us something about beautifying the city of Philadelphia with a boulevard for the rich to roll along in their automobiles.

It is a fine proposition that is as inconsistent as a man could imagine. I would expect at least that those from our great cities would sit still and listen to the voice of the rural members of the State who know something about forests and who know something about timber. And then, in reading to the House, instead of reading the bill he tried to lead the House to believe that this bill reserves the minerals underneath the ground. Why, it does nothing of the kind. The bill simply reserves the right of using those wells until they are exhausted, with perhaps an additional one over which there stands a well-boring machine. Now, he talked about the reserving of some farm products. He tells you it only applies to the spring of 1913, and the spring of 1913 has only a few more days to run. And in all human probability by the time the House and the Senate pass the bill and the Governor signs it, the right of reserving the farm products will have passed by, and it is not worthy of consideration. I think this would be a fair proposition. I think that the House should pass this bill and send it to the Senate to pass and let the bill go to the Governor, and if the revenues of the State warrant the taking over of this land as a park for our State, I believe the Governor will sign it, but if the revenues will not warrant it, I presume he will not attach his signature. But he will not turn it down for any other reason except that possibly in his judgment the revenues at this particular time will not warrant the expenditure. I would like to see the House pass the bill.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. R. J. Baldwin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Sure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Delaware if it is not specifically provided in this bill that this land shall remain and be a park and maintained by the State?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. That is my understanding of the bill.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether or not, if the timber which he says is the stock in trade on this land and more valuable than the purchase price of the entire land were removed, the land would then be a park?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, the question of what kind of trees you have in a park—I say that there are plenty of places in the State of Pennsylvania that they call parks where there will be trees fifty feet higher than this after the timber on this tract has been cut off and taken away. But in answer to that question, I am thoroughly satisfied that if this Legislature with the Governor's signature makes that a park for the State of Pennsylvania, no Legislature will ever advise the cutting off of that timber and making a monetary proposition of it.

Mr. ALLEN. Then, Mr. Speaker, would not the amount of $600,000 be simply an investment for a park on the part of the State?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I tried to state that plainly. It had two propositions. I tried to make it plain to the House that from a conservation standpoint. one of the best authorities in the State of Pennsylvania. and one equal to any in the United States Government. felt that the conservation feature alone worth nearly the full amount of that expenditure to the State. And that was Doctor Rothrock. He left the timber proposition out of it entirely. That was his opinion. Mr. Elliott's opinion was the same. Those two gentlemen appeared before the committee and made it as plain as words could in at least an hour or an hour and a half's talk, that alone from the conservation standpoint, the 7,000 acres of ground was worth considering as a water shed.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Delaware, if this were turned into a water conservation basin, whether or not it would lose its identity under the bill as being a State Park?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, it does not surprise me that an attorney from a great city should ask a question of that kind. I could only say that no rural member would ask that question. Any rural member knows that a forest is a conservator of moisture, and protects our water sources.

Mr. ALLEN. But, Mr. Speaker, he does not answer the question. The question was, if it were turned into a conservation basin, for the conserving of a water supply, whether it would not lose its identity as a park proposition under the bill?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Why, Mr. Speaker, not in the least. It is the growing of forest trees that makes the conservation, and the gentleman knows that we have only spoken of this as a tract of land covered with timber of different growth. Some of it is second growth timber; there is timber there of the second growth, pine timber there thicker than my body. Wherever trees grow, that makes conservation of moisture. It would be a mistake for you to cut all those little and big trees down. Of course you would not cut down the smaller trees, because there would be no value in them. That is, they would rather see them grow.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman further, if this place were utilized as a park, if it would not require constant appropriations, or an approciation every two years on the part of the State for the purpose of keeping it up?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, in all human probability, if this would become a State Park, there would be some roads cut through there for the people to travel over. There will probably be some kind of care taken to protect it from fire, but that is what we are doing for the other millions of acres that we are now buying. In so far as that particular property is concerned, it would cost no more to look after the fires on it, nor would it cost as much as a great deal of other properties that this State has, because the dangerous part of the State's forests lies along the railroads, while here there would be very little danger from fire and very easy to protect. But they would probably keep a forester there, just as we keep a forester in all the places that we are buying for the purpose of conserving the great timberland of the State. There would be no more expense in that respect. But if you build roads there, there would not be much expense in keeping them up. We do not watch public roads in our neighborhood; you may in Pittsburgh.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman further if it would require greater care to watch the property that is costing the amount of money that this is costing, per acre, rather than the property which he speaks of, which is acquired at from one to two dollars on acre?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I do not know, or never thought that the question of how much per acre the forest land cost made any difference in the cost of taking care of it. I am not a lawyer.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I asked the gentleman as a constitutional lawyer.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, the constitution will take care of itself.

MOTION TO ADJOURN.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I move we adjourn.

Mr. BROSIUS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to make a few remarks on this bill now under consideration, which I have reduced to writing, and which I would like to read with your permission.

In the first place, it must be conceded that the people of Pennsylvania, and in fact the people of the Nation, stand for conservation. We have in this property the only existing example of practical conservation; we have here a demonstration that has lasted for eighty years, the living proof that conservation pays. If there were no other consideration than that of education for our boys and girls in the conservation of natural resources, I would favor it.

Secondly, the National Government and many of the more progressive State Governments are committed to public park policies, and Pennsylvania has through her party platform pledged herself to legislate for them. We have in this land an ideal natural park and outing ground which in time will become a resort more popular than Yellowstone. It is accessible to fifty millions of the American people at slight expense and will receive their patronage. It will turn the tide of travel toward instead of away from our native State.

In the third place, with the stripping of forests from almost the total area of what was originally the wealthiest of our timber States, there has come great suffering; intolerable conditions through fire and flood; from soil erosion, polluted waters and the destruction of wild birds and animals. There can be no argument against the fact that the removal and destruction of our forest lands has and does in a large measure affect the health of our people. It is held by no less than the best scientific authority that if the forest areas were to betotally destroyed, human life would cease entirely. We are rapidly approaching such a condition, for we are destroying our forests at the astounding rate of 25,000 acres every day, and our population is increasing. It has been scientifically established that the work of a single mature oak tree is to take up and discharge through its leaves in one season the enormous total of one hundred and twenty-five tons of water. When one contemplates the tremendous influence that foliage and forest growth has upon the atmosphere in purifying it for human life, we can readily appreciate the importance of preserving every square mile of forest that still remains. Our public charities are increasing and the need for sanitoriums continues at an alarming rate, the cause for which I venture, may be attributed largely to a lack of sufficient outdoor life and recreation for our people. This park will serve the common people for it is within easy reach to those in most humble circumstances.

From the standpoint of better health and vigor, and for the pleasure and recreation of all the people of the East, I feel it a privilege is well as my duty to advocate the purchase of these lands by the State for the uses and purposes set forth in this bill.

I hold that the wealthy and debt-free State of Pennsylvania can well afford to own and maintain for the use and benefit of all her people—and for the generations yet to come—one small remnant of her primeval forest area. I insist that what one family has postered and successfully preserved through almost a century of time, is not too great a problem for the entire State to now undertake to continue to preserve. I propose that what is none too vast and valuable for the heirs of a single citizen to own and maintain, is not too great and good a thing for all the people of our State to have and maintain.

I know the owners of this estate. I have heard it intimated that there is a scheme to sell the land to the State at an exorbitant price; but there is a lot of graft in the deal; that the timber is not there and that it will require enormous sums to maintain it after it is bought. To all these charges and intimations I wish to make my emphatic protest and denial for I know there is not the slightest ground for such a motive on the part of any one connected with the plan. You have the report of the Governor's Commission which for good faith and comprehensiveness no one will question; it has been prepared by the most competent authorities; it recommends the purchase of the property; it tells us that the values are there; it also acknowledges the great value that it contains as a public park and forest reserve, from the commercial point of view.

Therefore, as a purely business proposition, and because I am convinced that the State is acquiring a property at much below its commercial value, I favor it. I am convinced that the State cannot make a mistake in buying the property, for I am very sure it can sell it again, if it should so decide, at a profit. But I am equally convinced that the State would find it much more profitable to retain and conserve it. This forest reserve will be to Pennsylvania a source of profit for all time, directly through its forest products, just as it has been for generations to its past and present owners—while indirectly it will be to our State just what the Adirondacks Reserve is to New York State, and what the Western National Parks are to the States in which they are located, and the White Mountains to New England. I stand for this bill as a matter of good business.

It has been said that the property is not accessible on account of lying some distance from railroads; that it is full-grown or matured timber; that it will be a source of graft through its administration as public property. To these objections I reply that its great value in standing forests—its attractiveness for a public park may be attributed to the very fact that it has not been invaded by railroads, and I trust will not be. Where would be the charm of Yellowstone Park if it were gridironed with railroads? There is ample assurance of railroad facilities to the very edge of the property; there are now accommodato within a few miles; and a State highway already furnishes splendid approach from every direction. As to the timber trees being old and, as some member has claimed, must be cut down to save them, my answer is contained in the words of the poet Bryant:

> "My heart is awed within me, when I think of the great miracle that still goes on in silence 'round me—the perpetual work of Thy creation, finished, yet renewed forever."..................
> "These lofty trees wave not less proudly that their ancestors moulder beneath them......upon her bosom yet, after the flight of untold centuries, the freshness of her far beginning lies."

Nature has produced and maintained for ages this very forest and it may be trusted to maintain it for ages still. Its very charm is that Nature here has had its way, and it is my earnest hope that it shall not be interfered with when dedicated to the humankind.

Mr. ARON. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by the following members:

Messrs. Letzkus, Cochrane, Neely, Price, Donnelly, Sassaman, Savacool, Blair, W. F., Kitts, Caldwell, Kern, Matt, Snavely, Mellott, Becker, Peters, Grabe, Mannion, Runk, McNichol, Watson and others.

The SPEAKER. More than twenty members having joined in moving the previous question,

The question is,

Shall the main question now be put?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative, and the bill falls.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn until 10.30 to-morrow morning.

Mr. SASSAMAN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I move to amend that by substituting ten o'clock.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire as to whether or not the calendar is in such shape that we would have a full day anyway.

The SPEAKER. The calendar for to-morrow will be comparatively light.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, it was in view of that fact I made the motion to adjourn until 10.30.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I really think that the half hour will be time well given to the printer, in order to get upon the calendar such bills as have been passed on first reading to-night, so that the calendar may be in shape tomorrow. The chances are that if we meet here at 10.00 o'clock in the morning the calendar and bills will not be up. I really think it should be eleven o'clock, but in as much as a special order has been fixed for eleven o'clock, the House should convene at 10.30.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

ADJOURNMENT.

Whereupon, the House (at 11.58 P. M.) adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 10.30 o'clock.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Legislative Journal.

VOL. 2. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 27, 1913. No. 73.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, May 27, 1913.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor John M. Reynolds) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. A. C. James, offered the following prayer:

"Oh that men would praise the Lord for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men." "Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear Him." "To-day if ye will hear my voice, harden not your hearts," saith the Lord. We have eyes but some see not; we have ears but some hear not; we have hearts, but some realize not Thy presence. Grant unto us to-day then that we may see Thee as our guide; hear Thee as our counsellor and that our hearts shall be filled with Thy presence. Grant that the works that we do shall be as works of righteousness—the footprints in the sands of time which we shall leave behind us. Be Thou our good Shepherd and lead us beside the still waters and into the green pastures. We ask it in our Redeemer's name. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MILLS, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

PETITIONS.

FAVORING APPROPRIATION TO THE WOMAN'S MEDICAL COLLEGE OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Mr. DAIX presented the following petition, which was read as follows and referred to the Committee on Appropriations:

Whereas the demand of modern medical education include a distinct advance in entrance requirements; and

Whereas the Medical Schools of Pennsylvania have adopted higher entrance requirements; and

Whereas a Bill is now pending before the Legislature calling for a decided advance in the requirements of admission to Medical Schools, it being necessary for our College, in common with other schools to establish a pre-medical course of instruction; and

Whereas we have learned that other Medical Schools have asked for an appropriation covering the expense of a pre-medical course, as well as the added expenses entailed by the increased standard in medical education

We respectfully request your Honorable Body to grant us for the two fiscal years beginning June 1st, 1913, the sum of Forty thousand dollars ($40,000.)

Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania,
By CLARA MARSHALL.

AGAINST EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY BILL.

Mr. KURTZ presented two petitions of citizens of Jefferson County against the passage of the employers' Liability Bill.

Which were referred to the Committee on Corporations.

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

Mr. MOORE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 887 (House Bill No. 157), on third reading postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Commissioner of Fisheries to sell the real estate upon which the fish hatchery at Conneaut Lake Crawford county is located and distribute the money received from such sale

Mr. BEIDLEMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 887 (House No. 157), entitled:

An Act authorizing the Commissioner of Fisheries to sell the real estate upon which the Fish Hatchery at Conneaut Lake Crawford County is located and distribute the money received from such sale

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, this is a bill providing for the sale of the State Hatchery at Conneaut Lake. This hatchery is built on one of the largest bodies of water in the State of Pennsylvania. The purpose of the Fish Commissioner I really do not know. He has told me that the purpose is the concentration of the fish hatcheries and he wants it sold. This hatchery was built in 1907 and if you refer to the reports of the Fish Commissioner from 1907 on you will find that this fish hatchery has been a success. I am told by people in the western end of the State who are acquainted with the Conneaut Lake Hatchery that this is just as good as any they have in the State of Pennsylvania, and it has been operated from 1907 up until a year ago, and I see no reason why this hatchery should be sold, because the Crawford County people have contributed to the erection of this hatchery. This bill provides that they shall get their money back. The people do not want their money back—they want it to be used for the operation of this hatchery. Therefore, I am against the bill. It has been a success and it can be a success and I hope the Senators will vote against it.

Mr. BEIDLEMAN. Mr. President, the Senator from Mercer overlooks the fact that there has been a change in the Commissioner of Fisheries since the report was made to which he has made reference in 1907. I think the State of Pennsylvania is more advanced and has advanced more rapidly in the last year in her fisheries proposition than they have since the inception of the Commissioner of Fisheries down until the appointment of the present Fish Commissioner. The present Fish Commissioner, in order that he might not act unwisely or inadvisedly in the matter of this Conneaut Lake Fish Hatchery, has taken occasion to get expert opinion as to the feasibility of this place as a place to cultivate fish, and he has gone to the Assistant Superintendent of the Michigan Fish Commission who is reputed as one of the leading authorities on the raising of fish in this country and for the benefit of the Senate I desire to read the report made to him under date of September 24, 1912, addressed to the Fish Commissioner of Pennsylvania, as follows:

"As per your request while at Denver, Colo., I have visited your Fish Hatchery Station at Conneaut, Penna., and beg to make the following report in regard to the possibilities of the station.

After thoroughly looking over the station, would consider it a very poor location for a pond station. The work that has already been done there shows lack of knowledge in regard to fish hatchery construction and of very little value to the State should the station be continued.

One greata drawback is no elevation. The work head is nearly on a level with what should be the lowest pond level. The locatioon is such if ponds are dug to a depth to insure success in pond culture they cannot be drained. To be successful as a bass station ponds should have at least 5 feet of water in the kettle or deepest part to afford a retreat of the large fish in the warm summer months and a natural place for them to winter in.

There is not elevation enough to give any aeration from one pond to another, which is one of the main factors in pond culture. Where the water is used over and over at least six inch fall should be had from one pond to another.

I also understand that during some of the dry seasons not much water flows from the outlet of Lake Conneaut, which is a great drawback, as warm, dry seasons is when the largest supply of water is needed. Possibly a station with 5 or 6 ponds could be successfully operated, provided a pipe line were laid to tap Conneaut Lake, thereby giving about 2 feet head of water above what you already have. This, however, would necessitate the outlay of considerable money and then, as no great amount of spring water is available, you would be limited as to the number of ponds you could build and the number of varieties of fish you could handle

During the last few years there seems to be more fishermen and with their automobiles, they are able to reach the lakes and streams that hardly ever before were fished except by the natives. This means that more fish and more varieties must be provided. Instead of having a lot of small hatcheries scattered throughout the State, it is far better and less expensive, to have a few large plants so located that several varieties of fish may be propagated and distributed from the one central point."

This bill was introduced into the House of Representatives and when it was there under consideration one of the members of the House coming from the same district that the Senator from Mercer comes from, wrote to Mr. Lydell and received this report, a copy of which letter I have here.

"Yours under date Feb. 7th received while I was absent from home, therefore this delay in answering.

The hatchery at Conneaut Lake that I visited last fall by request of your Commissioner Mr. Buller, I considered very undesirable for what it was intended.

To continue a station like the one at Conneaut Lake will sooner or later reflect discredit on your commissioner, and also on your Honorable Body, for allowing the State's money to be so expended.

I made a report of my findings to your Commissioner, and no doubt he will be willing to hand you a copy of same for the asking.

In regard to the planting of fry or fingerlings in your streams or lakes, will say, it is a broad question, and one that has been up for discussion before the American Fisheries Society more than any other subject.

Good results have been obtained from both methods. It depends to a great extent on the conditions of the waters to be stocked, and the varieties of fish to be introduced. This question, I should judge would be best handled, and bests results obtained if it were left to the judgment of your able Commissioner, Mr. N. R. Butler."

Now, Mr. President, the State of Pennsylvania has at this time, I am advised by the Commissioner of Fisheries, about $5500 invested in this plant. He tells me that it is impossible to successfully conduct this as a fish hatchery, and whether this Senate will agree or not that the State of Pennsylvania should sell this hatchery it will not be used in the future, and the only thing that would come to the State would be the maintenance of a watchman up there at a salary of about one thousand dollars a year, and I think that rather than maintain a hatchery at Conneaut Lake, because there are two other large ones in Western Pennsylvania, it would be better to authorize the State to sell this place and do away with paying the one thousand dollars a year for the conduct of that place and conduct the fish hatcheries at Erie and Union City where they are now being conducted by the State. This bill has been prepared and introduced after a most careful consideration by the Commissioner of Fisheries, and it seems to me that the State having given careful consideration to this problem, this Senate should authorize the sale and disposition of this expensive proposition.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I will not take the time of the Senate with the reading of a lot of matter I have in my hand about the Conneaut Lake Hatchery. I say when I make the stand for this fish hatchery that I am justified in making it and I have just as much regard for this Commonwealth as the Senator from Dauphin, and would not want the Conneaut Lake Hatchery to be maintained if it could not be maintained as a success. This hatchery has been tried out and has been a success, and it can be a success under Mr. Buller if he pays attention to it, but if he sends out to Michigan or Colorado to get a couple of fish commissioners that he has met in conventions and has them look over it and has them make a report and he says in the first place that he wants to dispose of the hatchery we know what kind of a report that is going to be. We are capable of handling our own business. We know what this hatchery will do. We know that Mr. Miller can run it successfully if he pays a little attention to it, and therefore I am against the sale of it. The people out there have contributed their money and they do not want their money back—they want the hatchery to be operated. Therefore I am against the bill.

An Act relating to food defining food providing for the protection of the public health and the prevention of fraud and deception by prohibiting the manufacture or sale the offering for sale or exposing for sale or the having in possession with intent to sell of adulterated misbranded or deleterious foods and of foods short in weight or measure prescribing certain duties of the Dairy and Food Commissioner in reference thereto and providing penalties for the violation thereof

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.
Agreeably to order,
The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 5, entitled:

An Act relating to food defining food providing for the protection of the public health and the prevention of fraud and deception by prohibiting the manufacture or sale the offering for sale or exposing for sale or the having in possession with intent to sell of adulterated misbranded or deleterious foods and of foods short in weight or measure prescribing certain duties of the Dairy and Food Commissioner in reference thereto and providing penalties for the violation thereof

And the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?
Mr. GERBERICH. Mr. President, I will not take the time of the Senate this morning because the calendar is full and we want to get through with it promptly. Just a few words in favor of this bill because I believe that this bill, if passed, will do as much good to more people then perhaps any other bill on the calendar this morning. We pass bills and we appropriate money for the welfare and the protection of the people of Pennsylvania for hygenic reasons, for comforts of other kinds yet there is very little regulation upon the statute books protecting the people, the common people, against dope and from pernicious things being put into their stomachs. We spend thousands of dollars to protect them against the diseases from the outside but there is hardly anybody who will stand up to protect people against anything that will be put into their stomachs. These food manufacturer of course does not want any regulation and he has well succeeded this year in frightening the grocers throughout the State of Pennsylvania. This bill, if enacted, will not be a hardship on any honest manufacturer and not any honest grocer. By way of illustration I will say that this bill prohibits the use of benzoate of soda. In itself in very small quantities it is not very harmful, but it is the harm to which it can be put but rather the stuff that can be used by the use of the benzoate of soda and sold to the people, which is harmful. Of course it will interfere with the barrel of money that the manufacturer makes by the use of the benzoate of soda. To give you a little illustration and not to detain you I will simply refer to a little bill which was passed two years ago which was attacked by these same manufacturers who tried to ridicule the bill out of the Senate and it was a little bill of which a good deal of fun was made, that little sausage bill. I simply use that as an illustration that I may appeal to the Senators here today so as to avoid these things in order to improve the health of the people. I will say this before I make that illustration, that I believe every Senator can go home and tell his people that he voted for this bill and he will get credit for it except from the frightened grocers and the manufacturers who are financially benefitted by it. And in regard to the illustration. By personal observation I noticed that butchers threw the affell into a bucket or tub and left it there in the warm weather for from three to six days without taking care of it in any way so that when I saw it taken out the slime dropped off the substance or meat which they took out and which they cut up and by the addition of potato flour for which they paid a cent and a quarter a pound they added from about twenty-five to thirty per cent of water. That would be absolutely useless, they could not sell it without the use of benzoate of soda, for if they would in from four to twelve hours that mess would turn sour but by the use of benzoate of soda they can hold it from six to seven days. Now then they go around and sell that and men who sell that kind of stuff will sell alongside the honest dealer, and you know which fellow will make the money. The people want to buy cheap these days, and rightly so, but they should be protected because they have no means of knowing what is in this substance. Now I leave it to any person whether such a substance is fit to use, because when anything is deteriorated it cannot be made wholesome by the use of benzoate of soda, and whether he has a right to sell it to the poor man who works hard and needs good nourishment, to sell him a thing of this kind. By the time the house keeper gets down to prepare it half of it is water. She cannot fry it and she must boil it. The poor man pays for the water and he pays for the meat that should go to the fertilizer and he pays for the potato flour at from fourteen to sixteen to eighteen cents per pound. I simply make this statement to show you how harmful this benzoate of soda is under conscienceless handling. For instance, sweepings of the floor, half rotten fruit, green fruit, stocks of fruit of that kind can be mixed up and be cured with benzoate of soda and put on the market and sold for something wholesome. Gentlemen, the strength and power of the State of Pennsylvania depends upon the health of her people, the contentment and happiness as well. I think that this body ought to take into consideration not only hygienic conditions throughout the State, for which we spend large sums of money, but we ought to begin right at home where the thing really begins. Preventive treatment gentlemen, is a thing that we ought to do, prevent it from childhood up. Gentlemen, I will not take your time but I hope you feel that you can vote for this bill. I feel that I can go home and tell my people what I did and I know I will get credit for it. There was not one groceryman in my district who came to me and objected to the bill, not one.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1440, entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirteen entitled "An Act for the protection of the public health and the prevention of fraud and deception by regulating the storage and sale of cold storage foods fixing penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof and providing for the enforcement thereof" by making further regulations in regard to fish

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I understand that this bill is a bill to amend a bill just signed by the Governor in reference to cold storage and to my mind it is somewhat previous to amend a law that has not been in force yet. And if men who are selling fish throughout the Commonwealth want to change a law that is not yet in force, no doubt next week we will have the men selling poultry and eggs and all other provisions wanting to amend the bill out of existance. And I feel the bill should not pass. It is a bill trying to amend a recent act signed by the Governor that is not yet in force.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, Very briefly. I will say that this bill is in accordance with the expressed wishes of the Governor. I will say also that it is in accordance with the wishes of the men who are responsible for the bill in the first place. I will say also that it is almost impossible under the act that has just been signed for the many engaged in the taking of fish, wholesalers, to try to run their business, and I may add by way of explanation that at the port of Erie are from forty to one hundred and fifty tons of fish taken daily, that there are orders throughout the State for these fish and that they are transported from one point to another and that sometimes there is a surplus of one ton or two tons or ten tons and that surplus is put into a container or refrigerator, and that it is impossible to put that surplus into a separate container or retainer or refrigerator daily because you would have to have one retainer for each day's extra catch. All that this bill does is to simply mark instead of the daily catch the monthly catch, perfectly harmless and enables the wholesalers in the business to conduct their business instead of paralyzing it and I hope that the bill will pass.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I might say in reply that all the bill now does is to extend the time of the storage of fish from nine months to ten months which the advocates of the fish industry wanted in the first instance. There objection found in reference to fish can be found in reference to eggs, poultry and anything else. This is just an effort to satisfy the fish industry as against all other industries and if this amendment goes through you will have amendments to please those that raise chickens and those that sell eggs and even those that produce sausage.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

INVITATION TO HON. BOIES PENROSE TO ADDRESS SENATE.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, the Senior United States Senator, Hon. Boies Penrose, being on a visit to Harrisburg, I move that the Senate stand in recess for ten minutes, and that he be extended an invitation to address the Senate.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. I have the distinguished pleasure and honor of presenting to you our worthy senior member of the upper house of this country, the Senior Senator from Pennsylvania, the Honorable Boies Penrose.

ADDRESS OF HON. BOIES PENROSE.

Hon. Boies Penrose, United States Senator from Pennsylvania, then addressed the Senate as follows:

Mr. President and Members of the Senate of Pennsylvania, I assure you I appreciate very much the courtesy that you have extended to me in taking this recess and inviting me to say a few words to you. I was for three terms a member of this body and was serving my fourth term when the accidents of politics brought about my election to the Senate of the United States. During my long service in this Senate I gradually became convinced and I have never had occasion to alter my opinion, that the Senate of Pennsylvania is worthy to rank with any legislative body in the United States. (Applause.) In its personnel it will compare favorably with the individual membership of the United States Senate or the Congress or any State body in the country, and in its method of conducting business and dispatching legislation it is, in my opinion, the superior of many bodies in the country. My association with the Senate of Pennsylvania began with my earliest boyhood. If I may be permitted upon an occasion like this, when I have really nothing particularly to say about matters pending before you, I would refer to the fact that at one time my grandfather, Charles B. Penrose, was President Pro Tempore of this body, representing the County of Cumberland in the Senate, and with Thaddeus Stephens he sat here and fought for the establishment of our present educational system in the State of Pennsylvania. During the Buckshot War of 1837, under Governor Ritners administration, he presided over the deliberations of this body and I still have and preserve with, I hope, pardonable pride, a cane which was presented to him when the Committee of Safety of the then Democratic party of Philadelphia, a mob of over one thousand people, came to Harrisburg to drive out half of the Senate, the contest being for the control of the body, and in the skirmish which resulted and which brought about the ordering out of the militia, he broke his leg, and the cane was presented him by the Senators; and when I was elected President Pro Tempore of the body I felt that it was one of the highest honors that could be conferred upon me and esteemed it all the more because the place had once been held by my grandfather. We are all assembled here regardless of party to pass a number of important bills for the betterment and advancement of the people of this Commonwealth. We have before us a number of election bills which are not of a party character. All good citizens are interested in having honest and pure elections and a full and untrammeled expression of the popular will, and the people of the State seem to be unanimous in the demand for State-wide primaries, and I take it that all members of this body regardless of party affiliations are united for a State-wide primary law for the people of Pennsylvania. With that law ought to go certain safeguards which are on the statute books of all the so-called western progressive States regulating the primaries, preventing it from being used as a method of deceiving the voters and protecting it so that only those who belong to a party shall participate in the councils and the conferences of the party. Even one of the bills, which I do not know that any one is especially interested in passing, relating to the giving of the ballot to the voters—this bill has incurred considerable opposition. I am informed—but only the other day the State of Wisconsin, the notable progressive State of the country, has passed a law similar in object and aim to this bill pending before you, the only difference being that the ballot is mailed to the voter. I only call your attention to this instance as an illustration of the fact that these safeguards to the primaries are already on the statute books of those western Commonwealths who have been the pioneers in legislation of this character.

We are all interested, regardless of party, in a sane and proper bill for the relief of women and children employed in our mills and factories, but we certainly do not wish to pass a bill which will place our manufacturers at such a disadvantage that they cannot compete with similar industries in New England and neighboring States, and I am informed and hope that there will be some kind of a compromise agreed upon which will give substantial relief to the women and children employed in those industries and at the same time permit our manufacturers to go on and maintain the supremacy which Pennsylvania has so long held as the greatest manufacturing State in all the Union. You have before you the Utilities Bill, which is demanded by the people of the State. It seems to have been got in very good shape in the House of Representatives and with such few amendments as you may conclude to add to it, it will constitute a monumental piece of legislation and a creditable act of achievement to the Legislature of Pennsylvania and the administration of Governor Tener.

Gentlemen, as I have said, I do not come here particularly on any legislation. I took advantage of my coming here last night to stay over to-day and renew old acquaintances and to meet new friends. This is the first time I have visited the palatial habitation in which you hold your proceedings. Shortly after I left the Senate of Pennsylvania the old Capitol burned down and these magnificent surroundings are a matter of great pleasure and surprise to me to behold. We lived the simple and primitive life in those days and I have no doubt since you have inhabited this elevated invironment you have started on a higher and nobler plane than we understood about in those simpler and earlier days, and we thought in those days that the old Senate Chamber was the most comfortable place that we could have. It has gradually been changed and altered so that it made almost a model and certainly a cozy assembly room, and yet this chamber seems all that could be desired.

Mr. President and Senators, I again wish to express my sincere thanks for the countesy which you have extended to me and the pleasure that I derived in having the opportunity of meeting you all again to-day. (Applause.)

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I move that the remarks of the Senior United States Senator be printed in the Legislative Journal and spread on the Journal of the Senate.

Mr. MOORE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL INTRODUCED.

Mr. MAGEE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MAGEE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1571, entitled:

No person shall be permitted to stand in the aisles or obstruct the passage-way to any of the exits but at the main entrance from street on one side of any such building there shall be provided an enclosure not exceeding two-thirds (2-3) of the width of such building constructed of iron or brass railing the bottom rail to be eighteen (18) inches from floor and the top rail three (3) feet from floor wherein patrons must stand when seats in the auditorium are not available A section of said railing facing auditorium shall be constructed with either a movable rail or chain so as to permit patrons to proceed to seats and an attendant shall be stationed at said entrance during exhibitions to maintain order and not permit patrons to pass through until seats are available and in no case shall overcrowding be permitted

During the exhibition or performance all persons must enter such buildings on the side marked "Entrance" and leave same on the opposite side marked "Exit"

Section 6 In every building now in use or that may hereafter be erected or altered to be used for the exhibition of moving pictures regardless of size or seating capacity the stage or platform shall be constructed of fire proof material except that portion equal to the width of the proscenium opening and the depth of the stage or platform All partitions shall be constructed of fire proof material firmly secured to the floor and ceiling and all decorations must be fire proofed and firmly fixed in position The flies or decorative fixtures upon the stage or platform must be firmly fixed to the said stage or platform The curtain and screen must be of fire proof material The booths or enclosures for moving picture machines shall be permanent ones constructed of fire proof material to vary according to the number of machines as follows

(a) Booths for one (1) picture machine six (6) feet wide by eight (8) feet deep and seven (7) feet high (b) Booths for one (1) picture machine and one (1) stereopticon or two (2) picture machines eight (8) feet wide nine (9) feet deep and seven (7) feet high (c) Booths for two (2) picture machines and one (1) stereopticon eight (8) feet wide twelve (12) feet deep and seven (7) feet high All measurements to be computed from interior of booths

The same to be constructed of structural steel as follows

Four (4) outside horizontal members at top and bottom

Four (4) corner uprights and members supporting roof to be made of one and one-half (1 1-2) inch by one and one-half (1 1-2) inch by one-fourth (1-4) inch angle-irons

Intermediate uprights to be spaced every two (2) feet and to be made of either one and one-half (1 1-2) inch by one and one-half (1 1-2) inch by one-fourth (1-4) inch angle-iron or two (2) inch by two (2) inch by one-fourth (1-4) inch tee-irons

Tee-irons to which roof is attached to be made of one and one-half (1 1-2) inch by one and one-half (1 1-2) inch by three-sixteenth (3-16) inch tee-irons

All joints to be made with a three-sixteenth (3-16) inch steel plate to which each angle-iron or tee-iron shall be rivited or bolted by the use of at least two (2) one-fourth (1-4) inch bolts or rivets

All bolts or rivets in frame to have flat heads said heads always to be placed on exterior side of booth all angle or tee-irons being so countersunk as to accomplish this result

Frame to be built with a six (6) foot by two (2) foot door way frame of said doorway to be built of one (1) inch by one (1) inch by three-sixteenth (3-16) inch angle-irons which are to be joined together by the use of a three-sixteenth (3-16) inch steel plate

COVERING OF BOOTH

Sides and top of booth to be covered with asbestos boards of at least one-fourth (1-4) inch in thickness said boards to be cut and arranged so that vertical joints between boards shall always come over an angle or tee-iron so that both boards may be securely fastened to the same

After booth is complete all openings where combustible material is exposed must be plugged with asbestos cement or other equally satisfactory material When joints of asbestos boards on outside of both do not come over angles of tee-irons the cracks between the boards shall be covered by a strip of asbestos board at least one-eighth (1-8) inch thick and two (2) inches wide said strips to be securely fastened to both boards in such manner as to cover the exposed joint The above mentioned strips and all asbestos boards shall be secured in the proper place by means of proper bolts and nuts said bolts and nuts to be spaced not more than six (6) inches apart

FLOORING.

Floor shall be made of two parts an upper and a lower floor Lower floor shall be made of boards seven-eighth (7-8) of an inch minimum thickness supported on lower leg of horizontal angle-irons Resting on this floor shall be a floor made of asbestos boards of three-eighth (3-8) of an inch minimum thickness or of an equally good material

WINDOWS

There shall not be more than two (2) windows per machine in the booth one (1) for the operator and one (1) for the machine Window for machine shall not be more than six (6) inches high and twelve (12) inches long and shall be located and cut after machine is set up Operator's window shall not be more than four (4) inches wide or more than twelve (12) inches high

All windows shall be provided with gravity-doors which when closed shall overlap the window opening at least one (1) inch on all sides said windows to be held open normally by use of a fine combustible cord in series with a fusible link so arranged that the windows may easily be released by hand

MAIN DOOR

Outside of door to be provided with a substantial spring sufficient to keep the door closed Door to be provided with stop to prevent it from swinging into booth or injuring the hinges

SHELVES

To be made up of slate slabs or boards not less than seven-eighth (7-8) of an inch thick not exceeding four (4) feet in length or twelve (12) inches in width Said shelves if of board to be painted with at least three (3) coats of asbestos paint and supported by means of angle-irons Upper shelf to be used for rewinding and the repairing of films the lower shelf to be used for the storage of films A separate metal case made without solder shall be provided for each film when the same is not in the magazine or in the process of winding said films to be kept in these cases

VENTILATION

Booths to be provided with an inlet in each of four (4) sides said inlets to be fifteen (15) inches long three (3) inches high the lower side of the same not to be more than three (3) inches above floor level Said inlets to be covered on the inside by a wire net of not greater than one-eighth (⅛) inch mesh netting to be firmly secured to the asbestos boards by means of iron strips and screws

Near the centre of the top of the booth shall be a circular opening of not less than ten (10) inches in diameter the upper side of said opening to be provided with an iron flange which flange is to be securely fastened to the tee-irons supporting the roof Securely fastened to this flange shall be a vent-pipe of not less than ten (10) inches in diameter said pipe leading to the outside of the building or to a special incombustible vent-flue In this vent-pipe shall be placed a box containing a twelve (12) inch electric fan said box to be provided with a door of sufficient size to permit of the examination or removal of this fan this door to be made tight and provided with proper fastenings Box and vent-pipes to be made of galvanized iron or other non-combustible material fan to be so connected that it can be controlled from within the booth

WIRING

If house lights are controlled from within the booth an additional emergency control must be provided near the main exit and kept at all times in good condition

All electric wires to be brought into the booth and carried to all machines lights et cetera in conduits one (1) light will be allowed for each machine and one (1) for the rewinding-bench but all such lights shall be provided with vapor proof globes and wire guards

RHEOSTATS

All rheostats to be mounted on slate insulator properly supported said supports to be made of iron

The machine shall be located in the booth so that there shall be a clear space on the operator's side of the booth of at least three (3) feet from the wall to the center of the machine Where more than one (1) machine is used in the booth they shall be placed three (3) feet and six (6) inches on center and the center line of no machine shall be less than two (2 feet from the wall of the booth

The machine shall be securely fastened to the floor and no part shall come in contact with any inflammable or combustible material

The upper and lower magazines on the machine shall be constructed of sheet metal and made tight without the use of solder and each shall have two (2) sets of metal rollers which shall fit as tightly as practicable to the film as it passes out or in The door in each case shall be hinged and provided with a catch to hold it tightly closed

The arc lamp shall be covered with an iron box so arranged as to catch all sparks and hot pieces of carbon and all other lights in the booth shall be covered by vapor proof globes and wire guards

The film reels shall be operated by a crank firmly secured to the spindle or shaft on head of machine so that there will be no possibility of its coming off except on motordriven machines.

A shutter shall be placed in front of the arc so as to be instantly closed when necessary

Electric motors may be used for operating only on such machines as are especially fitted and approved for such use in accordance with the following requirements.

(a) The motor shall be securely attached to machine support satisfactorily enclosed and shall be separately fused and placed below the bottom line of lamp house

(b) Electric current to operate both arc light and motor shall be controlled by one (1) switch an additional switch to control current to motor shall be installed and so constructed as to spring open when not held closed by the operator

(c) Both switches and the starting box shall be placed on the operating side of the machine and at least one (1) foot back from a perpedicular line of film exposure

(d) All electrical devices shall be securely mounted on incombustible supports and be enclosed satisfactorily to the State Fire Marshal

(e) The machine shall be so constructed or protected that while in operation displaying a picture the film cannot escape from the head enclosure or elsewhere except as the same is taken up by the lower magazine and the crank shall be removed when motor-driven

Section 7 Any change in mechanism or alteration of any moving picture machine after it has been approved and tagged shall be cause for condemnation of the machine and the prohibition of its use

Section 8 If house lights are controlled from within the booth an additional emergency control shall be provided near the main exit and kept at all times in good condition All wires in booths except jumpers from the switch to rheostat rheostat to lamp and switch to lamp shall be run in conduits with terminal bushings junction boxes outlet boxes and fuse boxes with covers all wire for machine lights to be not smaller than number six for each arc and if more than one (1) arc are to be rated for forty (40) amperes per arc and size figured by the latest underwriter's code All jumpers above mentioned shall be asbestos-covered stranded wire of size above mentioned and fitted with terminals One (1) incandescent light will be allowed for each machine and one (1) for the rewinding bench All wire conduits in the booth shall have porcelain outlets and junction boxes with covers screwed on all angles and where the conduit enters the junction box shall be fitted with bushings None but cartridge type of fuse shall be used inside the booth and of not over forty-five (45) amperes unless by special permission of the State Fire Marshal

Where wires for conveying electricity pass into through or rest on any structure around the machine ample insulation must be provided by the use of conduits porcelain tubes or other insulating substance

All rheostats resistance coils or other devices substituted for that purpose shall be properly insulated and secured in place so that there will be no danger of overturning or short-circuiting the same Rheostats and devices used for that purpose may be located in an accessible place outside the booth provided they are protected from all combustible material for a distance of two (2) feet on all sides by one-fourth (¼) inch asbestos board or in a one-fourth (¼) inch asbestos board box

No water rheostat will be allowed in any booth or structure surrounding the machine or in any part of the building in which the machine is located

Wire attachments shall be inspected by the operator before every exhibition

A switch for shutting off or controlling the electric current shall be provided and so placed as to be ready for instant use by the operator.

No pieces of film or loose combustible material shall be allowed to remain in the booth unless kept in a metal box without solder

A separate case made without solder shall be provided for each film when the same is not in the magazine or in the process of rewinding Said films shall be kept in these cases All films must be repaired and rewound within the booth

Carbon receptacles made of metal shall be used in the booth

No smoking or reading shall be permitted in the booth and no matches shall be allowed therein and no one under the slightest influence of intoxicants shall be allowed to enter booth

No person shall be allowed within the booth except the owner manager operator or his assistant while the premises are open to the public

The use of weak or improperly patched films and films with broken sprocket holes inserting films in the machine head preparatory to operating the machine without shifting the lamp house known as "threading up" the machine operating the machine at a greater speed than one (1) foot of film per second rewinding of films while the machine is in operation and exposure of other films while rewinding are hereby prohibited All films while not in use must be kept in individual metal cases completely enclosing same All films carried or transported from one place to another must be enclosed in fire proof carrying cases All lamps and connections of operating machines must be tested daily for grounds or short circuits The use of metal of any kind in fuse blocks instead of properly proportioned fuses of an approved type is strictly prohibited and will be deemed cause for the revocation of the operator's license

Section 9 All moving picture operators must pass such examination as to ability as shall be required by the State Fire Marshal and thereupon shall be given a certificate entitled him to operate moving picture machines and shall produce same whenever required by the said State Fire Marshal his deputies or assistants Upon the face of said certificate shall be affixed a photograph of the person entitled thereto Said certificate shall be valid for one (1) year from date of issue for which a fee of three (3) dollars shall be charged and may be renewed after the expiration of one (1) year upon presentation of the original certificate and the payment of a fee of one (1) dollar All such operators may have an assistant who shall first be required to obtain an assistant's certificate from the State Fire Marshal or his deputies application for which must be made in writing by the applicant which must be endorsed by an operator licensed under the provisions of this act and such assistant shall produce said certificate whenever required so to do by the State Fire Marshal his deputies or assistants and all such certificates shall be returned to the State Fire Marshal when the person to whom the same is issued shall cease to be employed by the operator who recommended him for an assistant notice of which must be given in writing by such operator to the State Fire Marshal A fee of one (1) dollar shall be charged for the original certificate as an assistant but no fee shall be required for any renewal thereof for one (1) year from the date of the original certificate

Section 10 Within twenty-four (24) hours after any fire or accident occurring within the booth the operator or manager of the exhibition shall send a written notice of such fire or accident to the State Fire Marshal at his office in Harrisburg

Section 11 Where dressing rooms are provided the walls separating the dressing rooms from the stage or other parts of the building together with all partitions dividing or surrounding the same shall be constructed of fire proof material The said rooms shall be separated from other parts of the building by self-closing or automatic fire doors No dressing or employes room shall be placed above or below auditorium All dressing rooms shall be well ventilated by windows opening into areaways streets alleys or open courts

Section 12 Furnaces hot water-heaters boilers and low pressure steam boilers may be used and located in the buildings provided the heating apparatus fuel room and firing room are enclosed in a fire proof room and all openings into the same covered by fire proof self-closing doors No furnace heater or boiler shall be located under the auditorium stage lobby passageway stairways or exits

Section 13 In any city borough town or village where electricity is available electricity for lighting and operation of machines with direct current shall be used and provision must be made for two separate circuits one for general lighting and the other for exit lights and for all lights in other parts of the building used by the audience except the general auditorium lighting and shall be controlled from the lobby or other convenient place in front of the house No movable or swinging gas fixtures or brackets shall be used

Section 14 Where electricity is not available gas may be used for lighting purposes but for operation of machine electric storage batteries only shall be used and the gas service cock properly installed shall be placed outside of the building Where practicable there shall be at least two (2) separate and distinct services from separate street mains one of sufficient capacity for general lighting of the auditorium where lights are not used during the entire exhibition and the other for emergency lights Under emergency lights are included exit lights and all lights in lobbies stairways passageways and all other parts of building to which the public have access

Section 15 Where neither electricity nor gas is available for lighting oil lamps may be used for illuminating purposes only providing the same are placed not less than six (6) feet above the floor line not less than three (3) feet below the ceiling and not less than one (1) foot from the wall and are rigidly supported and provided also that electric storage batteries shall be used for the operation of machines

Section 16 Where a water supply of sufficient pressure is available the following stand pipes with lines of one and one-half (1½) inch hose shall be installed

Buildings less than thirty (30) feet wide and one hundred (100) feet deep shall have stand pipes and hose placed as follows One (1) at rear of auditorium one (1) on the stage and one (1) under the stage

Buildings more than thirty (30) feet wide and more than one hundred (100) feet deep shall be provided with sandpipes and hose as follows One (1) in auditorium one (1) on each side of the stage and one (1) on each side of the basement The above line of hose shall be at least seventy-five (75) feet in length and where this length of hose will not reach the extreme portions of the building additional stand pipes and hose must be provided

Section 17 Where water supply of sufficient pressure is not available standard chemical fire extinguishers shall be provided as follows

In buildings less than thirty (30) feet in width and not more than one hundred (100) feet in depth chemical fire extinguishers shall be placed as follows One (1) in the heater room two (2) on the stage two (2) under the stage one (1) in the dressing room section two (2) in the auditorium one (1) in the box office and two (2) in the lobby and at least one (1) in the booth.

In buildings more than thirty (30) feet in width or more than one hundred (100) feet in depth chemical fire extinguishers shall be placed as follows two (2) on each side of the stage two (2) in basement under the stage two (2) in dressing room section two (2) in the lobby one (1) in each women's and men's retiring room at least one (1) in the booth and one (1) for each fifteen hundred (1500) square feet in the auditorium All extinguishers shall be prominently exposed to view and always available for ready use

Section 18 None of the provisions of this act shall apply to any church or other place not devoted to the business of such exhibitions so as to prohibit the giving of a single or occasional exhibition of moving pictures theren provded portable booths or enclosures are used the same to be erected and constructed as follows

SIZE

Portable booths or enclosures are to be at least six and one-half (6 1-2) feet high and five (5) feet square and are permitted for the use of one (1) picture machine only

FRAME

The frame is to be made of standard pipe angle-iron ventilator trap and suitable fittings The pipe frame and angle-iron trap are to conform strictly to specifications hereinafter set forth and the fittings and details of construction must be approved by the State Fire Marshal

SKELETON FRAME

Four (4) corner uprights to be made of three-quarter (3-4) inch standard pipe

Eight (8) horizontal members to be made of three-quarter (3-4) inch standard pipe

Eight (8) corner fittings to be made of iron or bronze castings

VENTILATOR TRAP

Ventilator trap to be made of one (1) inch by one one-eighth (1-8) inch angle-iron shall extend the full width of the top and two (2) inches beyond the front of the top pipe and shall be suitably hinged not less than two (2) feet from the edge of the front angle corners and joints to be made with one-eighth (1-8) inch steel plates riveted or bolted to each angle iron by the use of at least two (2) three-sixteenth (3-16) inch rivets or bolts

COVERING OF BOOTH

The side and top covering of the booth shall be made of an approved pure asbestos cloth same as used for asbestos curtains weighing not less than two (2) pounds to the square yard Seams and hems in the asbestos cloth shall lap at least one (1) inch and be stitched on each edge with asbestas sewing twine The top covering shall be made separate from the side covering It shall completely cover the top and have the outside flap hang down all around the sides not less than six (6) inches deep It shall be fastened tightly and secured to the top pipes and ventilator trap by means of asbestos cords The side covering shall be made in one (1) piece extending around all four (4) sides and overlapping at the rear of the booth not less than eighteen (18) inches so as to form a flap doorway The side covering shall extend from top pipes to which it shall be suspended by approved metal hooks or rings spaced not more than twelve (12) inches apart to the floor with a flap of not less than three (3) inches all around resting on the floor The metal hooks or rings for suspending the side covering shall be attached to the hem of the cloth by means of a metal strap and two (2) rivets The side covering shall be drawn down tight and secured to the bottom pipe frame by means of asbestos tie cords The cloth covering for top and sides must at all times be kept free from rents or holes and be maintained in good condition

DOOR

The slide covering shall overlap eighteen (18) inches in the rear of the booth This overlap shall extend from top to bottom and shall be so arranged as to form a means of entrance and egress

FLOORING

The frame shall be placed on a mat or carpet made of approved asbestos cloth not less than seven (7) feet square This mat must be spread out smoothly on a substantial floor or platform so that it shall extend one (1) foot from the frame on all sides This mat must at all times be kept free from rents or holes and in good conditions

VENTILATION

The top of the frame shall be fitted at the rear wtih a hinged ventilator trap as described in foregoing section of frame The asbestos cloth top covering shall be so arranged and so attached to the frame that when the hinged trap is raised the asbestos covering shall be raised also in the rear Suitable devices shall be supplied for maintaining this ventilator trap in a lifted position so as to form a clear ventilating space at the rear of not less thn six (6) inches high extending across the full width of the booth

WINDOWS

The look-out window for the operator shall be not more than four (4) inches wide and twelve (12) inches high The windows for the machine shall not be more than six (6) inches high and twelve (12) inches long All windows shall be located and cut after machine is set up

The openings shall be cut in the cloth with care and the edge reinforced by stitched hem of asbestos cloth and shall be provided with asbestos flaps securely stitched at the top of the openings These flaps when closed shall overlap the window opening at least two (2) inches on the bottom and sides and shall be weighted across the bottom edge by a piece of three-eighth (⅜) inch pipe or equal weight of metal securely sewed in the pocket in the cloth

WINDOW SHUTTERS AND VENTILATOR TRAP

The window flaps or shutters are to be held open normally by the use of a fine combustible cord The hinged ventilator trap is to be raised for ventilation not more than six (6) inches at the rear and shall be held open by a collapsible prop sustained by fine combustible cord The cord from the window shutters and the ventilator prop shall be in series with a fusible link and also approved tension-clip so arranged that the automatic opening of the link or release of the tension-clip of the operator will insure the immediate closing of all openings by the dropping of the flaps and the ventilator trap This fusible link and tension-clip shall be arranged in a position directly over the machine within reach of the operator

Section 19 It shall be the duty of the State Fire Marshal his deputies and assistants to take such means as may be deemed necessary to enforce the provisions of this act and the said State Fire Marshal his deputies and assistants within a reasonable time after the approval of this act shall inspect all booths or enclosures in which moving pictures are now being operated and should any be found in a dangerous condition or not in compliance with the provisions hereof he or they shall immediately order the abatement and discontinuance of such booth or enclosure The owner agent superintendent person or persons in charge and control of said booth or enclosure shall immediately abate and discontinue the use of the same after notice of abatement or discontinuance

Section 20 Any person or persons violating or ignoring any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than five hundred ($500) dollars or an imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days or either or both at the discretion of the court In all cases of violation of this act the prosecutions shall be instituted in the name of the Commonwealth by the State Fire Marshal or his deputies and a hearing shall be given the accused by the alderman justice of the peace or other committing magistrate before whom the information is lodged and after a full hearing of the parties in interest the alderman justice of the peace or other committing magistrate shall if the evidence warrants it impose the penalty herein provided which shall be final to the party against whom the penalty is imposed unless the said party shall furnish good and sufficient bail for his or her appearance at the term of the court of quarter sessions of the county wherein the offense is alleged to have been committed

Section 21 All fines imposed and fees collected under the provisions of this act shall be forwarded to the State Fire Marshal who shall pay the same into the office of the State Treasurer for the use of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, May 27th, 1913.

The HOUSE met at 10.30 A. M.

The SPEAKER, (George E. Alter), in the Chair.

The Chaplain, Rev. J. E. Wright, offered the following prayer.

O God, we thank Thee for the great blessings which have come to us out of the past, so enriching our lives, so contributing to our comfort and welfare. We realize that these blessing have been purchased for us by the endurance and energy and self-sacrifice and suffering of those who have gone before. We recognize the fact with gratitude and gladness, and render thanks to God for a loyal and faithful ancestry. We would be stirred, however, to consideration of ourselves and of our own relation to the future. May we not be content to receive and appropriate and enjoy without contributing; may we not be satisfied with things as they are but incessantly and earnestly striving to make them better; may the consciousness of our indebtedness to the past impress upon us our obligation to the future, and so may we be earnest and faithful and honest, seeking in all things to honor God and to serve men. And Thy name shall have the praise of it forever. Amen.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings, when, on motion of Mr. North, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.

Mr. CURRIER from the Committee on Game reported as amended House Bill No. 2066 (Senate Bill No. 1391), entitled:

An Act to provide for the better protection of quail and rabbits and hare in this Commonwealth fixing the time when such birds and animals may be legally killed in this Commonwealh and providing penalties for violaton of its several provisions.

Mr. McCAIG from the Committee on Judiciary Local rereported with a negative recommendation House Bill No. 1897, entitled:

An Act to amend section four of an act entitled "An Act to provide for the creation of a board of examiners and the appointment of an inspector of steam engines and steam boilers for the county of Allegheny" approved the sixth day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 25.

Mr. G. K. YOUNG. Mr. Speaker, I wish to call up Resolution No. 25 on page 39 of yesterday's calendar, file folio 1623.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be read by the Clerk.

Providing for the appointment of a joint committee of the Senate and House of Representatives to investigate the manner in which life insurance companies authorized to conduct business within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and issuing infantile and industrial policies upon which the premium is payable either weekly or monthly transact their business within this Commonwealth with full power and authority to administer oaths and compel the attendance of persons and the production of books and papers to issue all necessary process to employ counsel and other necesary officers and employees and to report its findings and recommendations

Whereas the manner in which life insurance companies authorized to conduct business within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and issuing infantile and industrial policies upon which the premum is payable either weekly or monthly shall transact their business within this Commonwealth and safeguard the interests of their policyholders is not provided for or regulated by statute and

Whereas the companies engaged in these particular branches of life insurance depend mainly upon the poor classes for their support and

Whereas the business in infantile and industrial life insurance has grown to such proportions that the manner in which the same is transacted within this Commonwealth should be investigated so that if necessary the manner of conducting such business and the safeguarding of the interests of such policy-holders may be regulated by statute therefore be it

Resolved (If the Senate concur) That the President pro tempore of the Senate shall oppoint three Senators and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three of its members and the six shall appoint a citizen of Pennsylvania with a complete knowledge of life insurance who shall constitute a joint committee whose duty it shall be to investigate the manner in which life insurance companies authorized to conduct busness within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and issuing infantile and industrial policies upon which the premium is payable either weekly or monthly transact their business within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and make report of its findings to the next Legislature and if necessary recommend such bill or bills as in its judgment may be necessary and requisite to regulate and prescribe the manner in which life insurance companies issuing infantile and industrial policies shall conduct their business within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and safeguard the interests of their policyholders Said committee shall have power to elect its own chairman to sit after the adjournment of the Legislature administer oaths and compel the attendance of persons and the production of books and papers to issue all necessary process to employ legal counsel and such other officers and employees as may be needed to enable it to properly perform its duties but its expenditures shall be limited to the amount provided therefor in the general appropriation bill to be passed at this session of the Legislature and shall be paid out of the State Treasury upon vouchers signed by the chairman of said committee

Said committee shall make a full report in writing to the Governor of the Commonwealth of its findings which such recommendations and draft of such bill or bills as in its judgment may be necessary three months prior to the meeting of the General Assembly in the session of one thousand nine hundred and fifteen

The SPEAKER. The question is on the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. G. K. YOUNG. Mr. Speaker, this resolution was given to me by one of my constituents, a gentleman who has been in the insurance business for twenty-eight years. He asked me to present this resolution to the House to have an investigation on Infantile and Industrial Insurance. To make my ground sure, I made an arrangement to the Commissioner on Insurance to get some information as to this kind of insurance, so I have got the information as far as I could get it. I asked him how many companies there were in this State that did that kind of business and the amount of insurance issued and the amount of insurance lapsed and the amount of insurance collected and the amount of claims paid. The Commissioner gave me nine company's names with the amount of each company and I have the whole of it summed up—that is, of the nine put together. The life insurance report for 1911 of the Insurance Commissioner is as follows:

1911 Life Insurance Report of the Insurance Commissioners, Pa. Industrial.

	Amount Issued.	Amount Lapsed.	Amount Collected	Claims Paid.
Metropolitan Life, N. Y.,	$28,759,339.00	$22,164,473.00	$6,047,183.00	$1,977,740.17
Prudential Life, N. J.,	51,435,836.00	37,321,509.00	8,679,448.67	2,597,047.00
Baltimore Life, Md.,	3,274,961.00	2,842,030.00	288,604.41	103,130.35
Colonial Life, N. J.,	2,782,170.00	2,574,743.00	177,974.10	43,194.85
Western & Southern, O.,	1,158,932.00	898,357.00	68,079.28	14,112.55
John Hancock, Mass.,	7,878,617.00	6,206,547.00	1,317,581.25	435,427.60
Eureka, Md.,	938,223.00	665,580.00	28,126.12	3,897.52
Immediate Benefit, Md.,	678,812.00	413,506.00	28,670.80	6,723.50
Home Life, Del.,	1,667,529.00	988,990.00
	$98,574,419.00	$74,075,735.00	$16,635,668.53	$5,181,273.60

What becomes of this money from this enormous lapse?

This is the great expense to the policy holders, and great profits to the companies. Millions of dollars of this should have never been written. Millions of dollars should never have been lapsed. Millions of dollars are due policy holders on lapsed policies. They have cash values, and paid-up values, and never will be paid, until an investigation.

Thousands have lost books and policies, and have no evidence to present to the companies, and the companies cannot locate claims without policy numbers.

Forcing agents to write business is the cause of a large lapse, and makes the insurance costly to the people. Agents write up and lapse. Thousands of families, five and six times a year, they do this because they are forced in this condition to make a showing for the companies, and they never receive a cent from this class of business, and often carry it on the books for weeks. This is excess. Paying this premium to the companies they never collect. Agents are charged with excess, and sometimes even death claims. Agents are compelled to divide commissions with assistants and special agents.

Changing agents costs the companies seventy-five to one hundred dollars every time the agent is discharged or leaves the company. The change of agents is over 100 per cent in some offices every year. Eliminate this, and the lapses, and the people could get cheaper insurance, better dividends, and better paid-up values. Companies do not keep records of dates or time when premiums are paid.

Companies do not give policy holders official notice of lapse of policies. New York State in 1911 passed a bill to cover this.

It is optional with the companies to send agents to collect the premiums. This is in the policy. Here is the opportunity for the company to lapse undesirable policies.

Agents cannot associate or form an organization for mutual benefit. The leaders are always discharged by the companies, as soon as they attempt to form one. This applies to the Metropolitan, Prudential and John Hancock. These companies are believed to be a Trust.

If an agent is discharged or resigns from the John Hancock, the Metropolitan or Prudential will not employ him as an agent. This is vice versa with the three companies, unless the agent has been away from the company two years. This is a gentleman's agreement.

There is no limit to the amount of insurance that can be placed on a baby's life. The mother can insure the baby in a dozen companies, no law to stop it.

The State should have more revenue in taxes from this class of profitable business to the companies. This is why an investigation was asked for, and can be proven before an investigation committee in the interests of policy-holders. They should be regulated by statute.

Mr. Speaker, in addition to these nine companies, I have a list here of eighteen other companies doing business in this State—that class of business. Now, Mr. Speaker, this gentleman asked me to bring up this resolution to have this investigation as there are no law on our statutes of Pennsylvania regulating this class of insurance.

The SPEAKER. On the question, will the House agree to the adoption of the resolution.

It was unanimously adopted.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. WALTON offered the following resolution, which was twice read as follows:

Resolved (If the Senate concur) That this House do adjourn sine die on Thursday, June 12th, 1913, at 12 o'clock noon.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the resolution?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this resolution be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. COCHRAN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I think that while this matter is now before the House, that it would be but the proper thing for the Committee on Rules to give us their opinion on this matter. The House is anxious to know where we stand, and I feel that this is the time to fix a date for adjournment. I feel that most of the members of the House feel that way. I feel that it is a very important matter and that the Committee on Rules should give us some information as to their position.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I can only speak for one member of the Committee on Rules in relation to this matter. The House will recall the fact that ever since along the first part of April, resolution after resolution has been introduced in this House attempting to fix a time for adjournment. The first resolution introduced, and which still reposes in the Committee on Rules, would have fixed the time for adjournment at the first of May. There was perhaps a meaning in that. There was perhaps an intention when that resolution was introduced. I am not going to say, Mr. Speaker, that the resolutions which have been introduced in this House from time to time attempting to fix the time for adjournment, that their intent was to tie the hands of this House and keep it from acting on those matters which this House has promised to the people that it would act upon. I am not going to say that this might be so in this resolution attempting to fix so late a date as June 12th, nor that it is for the purpose of creating such a condition in order that the Senate cannot be condemned for not acting upon those matters upon which they should act, but we as a Committee on Rules, Mr. Speaker, which is backed by the Speaker himself, who is ex-officio a member of that Committee, have kept in touch with the business and progress of this House, and have been more than pleased with the progress and advance that this House has made. And those advances have been reported time and time again by the Chair as to how much more work had been done than at any previous session up to that time, all of which has met the highest approbation and approval of the individual members of this House. Now, Mr. Speaker, there are still important things to be done. True, we are up to a point on the calendar at which on Thursday last we were up with the work. Last night we practically completed it. To-day we have a condition staring us in the face that shows we will practically finish all the work we have laid out at this time. But there is still work to be done. If the members of this House are satisfied with the work that they have done and that their legislative duties have been performed; that all that they have to do for their constituents at home is now done and that it simply needs to be shoved over into the Senate and that our hands are clean; if that be the position, then every individual member of this House is entitled and justified in voting for the adoption of this resolution and refusing to allow the same to go to the Committee on Rules. The Committee on Rules, Mr. Speaker, has not acted in a manner to tie the hands of this House. It has not acted in a manner to keep any affairs from the members of this House. Your Committee on Rules has stood between the members of this House and those members who have been so anxious to adjourn on the fifth day of May and on the twelfth day of May and at other times that have been attempted to be fixed, time's so short that they themselves, in their own minds, knew that not one-half of the work of this House could be done and not one-third of the pledges of the parties could be kept. Your Committee has stood between the members of this House and their constituents and has shouldered the responsibility up to this moment and we again stand in that same position, Mr. Speaker. And that is what we are doing now. There is not a member in that Committee on Rules, Mr. Speaker, that is not just as anxious to return to his home and take up his other duties and take up their walk in life as any other member on the floor of this House; but there isn't, Mr. Speaker, a member of that Committee on Rules but appreciates the pledge that his party has made to the people who stand as representatives and constituent parts of that Committee and are here to carry out those pledges to the strictest letter. That, Mr. Speaker, is the position that the Committee on Rules occupies to this House. That is the position that we now hold. That is the reason that we now say we are not ready to fix the twelfth day of June. Why, Mr. Speaker, we might be able, if things keep on developing on the other side as they have started to develop, we might even be able to adjourn this House on the fifth day of June, and no member will be kept here twenty-four hours longer than is absolutely necessary. Mr. Speaker, the curtain can be rung down upon this House on twenty-four hours' notice at any time. There is no reason why that date should be set one, two or three weeks ahead, nor one, two, three or four months ahead. That date can be fixed at any time, and if this House to-day at 11 o'clock saw that it was going to complete its work at 12 o'clock to-day, at 11 o'clock it could fix the hour. Why this great solicitation as to the exact time? It is a fact, Mr. Speaker, a fact that cannot be denied, that the very important pledges which our parties, yours and mine, and every other party represented on this floor has promised to the people, that that legislation has commenced to get out over on the other side for some action. There is nothing yet to indicate what honest effort or an honest line of action is going to mark the rule of action over yonder may accomplish. Action may be taken yet; it may be taken to-day on very important matters. It may be taken to-morrow on very important matters. But when the child that was born on this side comes back a somewhat developed infant from the other side, even its parents may not recognize the child. It may be newly born and newly created. Such things have happened and they are apt to happen again. Up to this time, Mr. Speaker, very important matters which have gone over yonder have been amended to such extent that this House would not stand for the amendments which were injected. Now, when the real important stuff comes back, the amendments may be but a cloak and cover, so that even the sponsor on this side of the House would not recognize his legislation. Then what? Why, the gentleman from Delaware who has pressed this question, and some of the older members who have been here and are still anxious to adjourn, know that under such conditions a conference committee is absolutely necessary. It may take an hour, it may take a day, it may take a week, but of this House be sincere and honest in its purpose, it will insist on that legislation coming back in such form that it will be recognizable. Mr. Speaker, the Rules Committee has adopted a plan of action which will protect this House against any stigma that may be hurled against it. The Rules Committee will place the members of this House, if supported by the members, in a position which will be honest, fair and upright, and where no motives can be impugned. Mr. Speaker, that Rules Committee now asks to shoulder this burden. It asks the support of the honest and sincere members of this House who believe in carrying out the pledges with which they came here. We ask their support now.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I only desire to call the House's attention to the fact that I am not attacking either this committee or anybody else. I simply ask that some persons who were members of that committee explain to the House what their course was and what their opinion was as to the time of adjournment. The gentleman appears to be very much disturbed. I am sure there is no reason for speaking of any dishonest motive when any member in the House sees fit to rise and ask for information along this line, because the members of the House according to past history of legislation in the State of Pennsylvania have found the time fixed from three, four, five, six, seven, eight and ten weeks prior. Now, we are meeting an unusual condition, and all around the House members are inquiring why is there not some time fixed? There is a general feeling, I thing, throughout the House that if we do not fix some reasonable time for adjournment, we will just drool along and drool along—I do not want to bring any snap judgment on this House. I do not want, like the gentleman from Allegheny, to make any criticism against the Senate. The Senate probably is going along in its wise course and perhaps the Senators can answer to the public for any mistakes that they make. I think that we should fix a time now that we have reached this point. I do not mean to insist upon fixing a time, but my opinion is that if we do not fix some time, we will be kept here from two to three weeks longer than necessary.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. R. J. Baldwin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Delaware whether the explanation of the gentleman from Allegheny is sufficient to satisfy his mind in relation to this matter.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Well, not very satisfactory to me. I understand that the gentleman representing this committee, the gentleman from Allegheny, has assumed the responsibility of taking care of the House. That of course is very gratifying, and yet there is an opinion on the floor of this House that we would be able to take care of ourselves as members of this House.

Mr. WALTON. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House, I am not here to in any wise criticise the action of the Rules Committee, but at the same time I am not willing to admit that those five or six men embody the intelligence of this House. I think it has come to this stage that the members of this House should be allowed to pass on a measure such as this. All other measures are put before the House and why not allow the members of the House themselves to pass upon a question of this kind rather than put it up to the Rules Committee which has refused to act.

Mr. John R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, while this motion has been offered with the force of the very highest faith of the gentleman from Lawrence, it is just one more step to aid the Senate in stopping the work of this Legislature. Mr. Speaker, to fix the date of adjournment is not a new move. In the sessions gone by we fixed the dates in caucus and when the legislation which met with much popular praise and with much corporate opposition, it was the adjournment day that was fixed at the time when no one of us anticipated such a contest that came to the rescue of those who attempted to stop good legislation. Mr. Speaker, that knowledge is fresh in the minds of all of us. Last session the Speaker of this House will remember the utilities bill that was held in this House with all the flattering promises that we were going to put a real utilities bill through. When the House passed it late in the session, almost unanimously, it was the date of adjournment that came to the rescue of those who defied the administration. It was the date of adjournment that prevented that bill from passing. It was the date of adjournment that put it to defeat. If the date of adjournment had not been fixed by resolution of the two Houses that bill would be to-day on the statute books. Now, what have we? Why we have an apparent outburst of virtue from the Senate. They reported out our bills as committed. For the purpose of becoming laws? Oh. no, that is not their thought—an old trick of the game. They have been reported out for the same reason that the contestant in the ring hugs his opponent, to escape a knock-out blow. They have reported out those bills as committed to give them one more week of time in order to work on their feet to escape the blow that this House attempted to put upon them, and it is this resolution that is one of their defenses to escape. The gentleman from Lawrence who has offered this resolution with the very highest of faith and with the very best of motives is carrying out the plans of the Senate. Why Mr. Speaker, those of us who are experienced can see what this means. When the motion was taken to discharge the Elections Committee it were not met by a contest. They were met by a movement for a little more delay and they got a week; and then when the sixteen Senators signed demanding a public hearing they were not met with a refusal; that would have been foolish. They were given the public hearing and they were delayed. This means one week more and when you come here next Monday night you will find those bills have been sent back to the Committee. Those who are seeking time for the Senate to escape defeat will get our aid if we pass this resolution.

Mr. Speaker, this House has pledged itself for the reform legislation, for not only election laws but for the industrial laws to protect the working man. We have those three great branches of legislation to put through and there has not been one of the bills that has been passed the Senate and if we join with them now and pass this resolution we become particeps criminis. We become a party in their crime of stifling the popular voice. Mr. Speaker, I hope that the motion that has been offered by the gentleman from Allegheny will prevail. Not only, Mr. Speaker, do we owe this to ourselves; not only do we owe it to the people; but, Mr. Speaker, to you who have presided in this House and have come down on the floor and opposed this motion, we owe it. Therefore I hope, Mr. Speaker, that the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny to refer this resollution to the Rules Committee may prevail.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, it strikes me that the gentleman from Lawrence is laboring under somewhat of a misapprehension when he says that this House is under no obligation to adhere to the will of the Rules Committee. I do not understand that it is the purpose of those who are advocating the reference of this Resolution to the Rules Committee that they should adhere to the recommendation of the Rules Committee no matter what this recommendation may be. But we feel that the course of the Rules Committee in this particular matter at this time is absolutely correct, and we are for this course, not because we feel that the judgment of the Rules Committee should be conclusive on the House, but because we believe that the Rules Committee is adhering to the proper course and that we should uphold their hands in this matter and I sincerely hope that this resolution will be referred to that Committee where it belongs.

Mr. JOHN ROBERT JONES. Mr. Speaker, I hope the members of this House will not be confused upon this issue as to any feeling that they may have with regard to the action or the proposed action of the Committee on Rules. The issue here is very plain. If you are against fixing the time for adjournment you should support this motion to refer it to the Committee on Rules. I think such a motion should be supported and I just want to state a few facts to the House as to why you should support such a motion at this time.

Last night in the Senate they reported out eight election bills for which I stood sponsor. They cover a Uniform Primary Act. By the newspapers I see that the Senior Senator from this State has learned that there is such a bill pending in the Senate and it is the bill for which he has been looking for some time and I want to give him the opportunity to pass upon that bill, through his representatives in the State Senate.

There was also reported out the Corrupt Practice Act which passed this House without a dissenting vote. There was also passed by this House a Non-Partisan Primary Act which passed this House by an overwhelming majority. Now these bills are pending in the State Senate. If changes are made in those bill, by way of amendment, they must be referred to this House for concurrence or non-concurrence, for there must be an opportunity afforded this House to determine whether or not the amendments proposed by the Senate be such as the House wishes to be incorporated in those acts. If not, there must be a Conference Committees. All this involves time. If this House was earnest in its desire to have the legislation which passed the House enacted into law, do not handicap yourselves by voting to fix the day for adjournment. This is important. Now then the question is this: If you wish to defeat the motion fixing the time for adjournment you should vote to support this motion to refer it to the Committee on Rules and I ask the members of the House to support this motion.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, my whole desire in asking this question was to get some information as to what position our legislation was in. There has some benefit come from it without a doubt, but at the same time I would be very glad to hear the opinion of the Speaker on the subject. I would be very glad myself to follow whatever his suggestions are, as I feel that he understands the situation as well as any member of the House.

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, I also am very much interested in this resolution because of the various bills that I stood sponsor for in this House, which passed the House by a majority which was as overwhelming as those that passed the election bills. They are now in the Senate. They are still in committee. They are being considered. I feel thoroughly convinced that if there is any way that the Senate can possibly stave off action on these bills, with the fixing of a date for adjournment in mind, such action will be followed by the Senate. I feel, however, that if there is no time fixed by the House, that the Senate will understand that the House requires of them action upon those bills. I therefore feel that if the House does not wish to play into the hands of the Senate in that matter that the best thing to do is to vote to refer this resolution to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Speaker, I am not one of the members of this House who are worrying about the Senate. I think the Senate can very well take care of themselves. If they are negligent in their duties and do not pass the legislation the people want they must answer for that. I do not think it is part of the duty of this House to be charged with compelling the Senate to act. We have passed all important bills and if the Senate which has had time, does not want to pass those bills there is no use of staying here for the sake of gratifying the political ambitions of some members of the House. There is no use staying all summer, for some of us have other things to do at home. We cannot take the time to stay in Harrisburg all summer to serve certain political purposes as has been suggested.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to correct the gentleman. I made no such statement.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Speaker, I appeal to the Legislative Record.

The SPEAKER. A very unreliable authority.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Speaker, the Legislative Journal may not be a very reliable authority, but it ought to be if it is not. However, there are some men in this House, some of the honorable Gentlemen of the House who insist in taking up all of the time in making speeches when it is not necessary with bills that they are going to vote for, bills they are interested in, making speeches the bills and making votes for them.

Mr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker, there is no member of this body more anxious for final adjournment than I am but if necessary to have the bills enacted into law that are very important in this Commonwealth, which have passed this House, I am willing to stay here until the first day of September.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, let us fight it out on this line if it takes all summer.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to state to the House, and deems it proper under the circumstances to suggest it from this desk, that it would be most unfortunate for the important conference committees, the appointment of which is clearly inevitable, if they should find themselves crowded up against a fixed date of adjourment, with insufficient time to adequately deal with the matters submitted to them, and while it seems quite proper that if this Legislature can adjourn on June 12th or thereabouts to do so, it does not seem to the Chair that its adjournment will be facilitated by the adoption of this resolution; and for the reason indicated, it does seem to the Chair clear that the fixing of an irrevocable date at this time would be most unwise.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. I would ask the Speaker to state clearly to the House the question now under consideration.

The SPEAKER. The question is upon the motion to refer the resolution as to adjournment to the Committee on Rules.

The question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

RESOLUTION AMENDING RULE 5.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a resolution.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the resolution as follows:

Resolved: That rule 5 of the House of Representatives be amended by adding thereto the following:

"All conference committees shall be composed of members who vote in the majority on the point or points of difference; but the committee shall not have power to control over any part of the bill, resolution or order except such parts as to which a difference exists between the House and the Senate."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the adoption of the Resolution?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I certainly feel that the Resolution ought to be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I have no objection to the reference of this Resolution to the Committee on Rules, but in the light of the suggestion made by the Chair last night that a custom has grown up by which a sponsor of a bill was placed on the conference committee, I thought it would probably relieve the Chair of some embarassment in the matter of appointing committees if this was the rule of the House. I believe it is the sentiment of the House that the Rule is a proper one, and it was formerly the joint rule of the two Houses. It was only to relieve the Chair of any embarassment in wiping out the precedent that has been established through practice over the last few years. I have no objection to its reference to the Committee on Rules, but I believe it should be a rule of the House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?
It was agreed to.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The SPEAKER. The hour of eleven o'clock having arrived, the Chair lays before the House as a special order House Bill No. 1098, Bills on Second Reading, on page one of the calendar.

BILL ON SECOND READING.

Agreeably to order,
The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,
The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1098, entitled:

The first section was read as follows:

On the question,
Will the House agree to the section?
Mr. JAMES J. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer amendments to this section.
The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.
The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 1
By striking out all from Line 10 to Line 27 inclusive, and substituting therefor
1st District, 1st Ward, 26th Ward, 36th ward and 39th Ward.
2nd District, 2nd Ward, 3rd Ward, 4th Ward, 5th Ward, 6th Ward, 7th Ward, 8th Ward, 9th Ward, 30th Ward, 11th Ward, 12th ard.
3rd District, 14th Ward, 16th Ward, 17th Ward, 20th Ward, 18th Ward, 19th Ward, 31st Ward.
4th District, 10th Ward, 13th Ward, 15th Ward, 29th Ward 47th Ward, 32nd Ward, 28th Ward.
5th District, 25th Ward, 45th Ward, 33rd Ward, 43rd Ward, 23rd Ward, 41st Ward, 35th Ward.
6th District, 40th Ward, 46th Ward, 27th Ward, 34th Ward, 44th Ward, 24th Ward.
7th District, 21st Ward, 22nd Ward, 42nd Ward, 38th Ward, 37th Ward.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendments?
Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call the attention of the House to a comparison between the two systems of apportionment that are represented by the bill as it came out of committee, and by the bill as it will appear after it is amended. There are here two diagrams of Philadelphia showing in colors the schemes of apportionment. This one shows the scheme of apportionment as it appeared in the bill as it was originally reported out of the committee. You will notice the first district, the yellow district, is the same in both schemes. The second district, which is this one, produces what is very well known as a Gerrymaker. This section over here is West Philadelphia, and the Schuylkill River runs down here. Now in West Philadelphia we have a population that is almost wholly residential, and a population that feels that it is entitled to its own representations. It is a population that is as large as a great many cities in the United States. They have their own high schools, and their own business section, and their own development. We propose to split this West Philadelphia section along Market Street, which is the backbone of the section, and attach to it the narrow strip on the side which runs to and across the Delaware River. This section here is the Second, Third and Fourth Wards, constituting the emigrant section of Philadelphia. The northern section of Philadelphia is right across the Schuylkill River and is attached to the business section of Philadelphia. This ward is what is known as the tenderloin. This section is composed of two central wards comprising the central business section of Philadelphia. We feel emphatically in West Philadelphia that we ought to be entitled to a place as a separate congressional district. We, therefore, ask the gentlemen in the House to support the amendment as introduced by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. James J. Campbell. I desire to call the attention of the House to another Congressional District which runs up through here. On the other scheme you will notice that the arrangement is very much more symmetrical and that there is a slight change in the central district made under this amendment. I believe, however, that you will find the section an arrangement of the city, under the amendment introduced, is a vastly more satisfactory one, and very much more artistic, as some one has suggested, than the one originally proposed in the bill. I could refer you to a number of editorials that appeared in the newspapers in Philadelphia that have in past campaigns supported the Republican party, and the Republican party, I understand, is back of this proposed Gerrymander. I refer you to an editorial in the Evening Bulletin, a paper that stands as a very reputable and sane sheet in Philadelphia, which refers to the arrangement proposed as a botch work, and as a ridiculous scheme, and one that every intelligent citizen in Philadelphia should be bitterly opposed to. I therefore ask you gentlemen of the House to stand with us in defeating this scheme and supporting the amendment of the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, there is probably no greater abuse of political power than that which is known as the Gerrymander. It is a clear case of the mis-use of governmental power for personal ends. It destroys the theory of representation. It strikes at the root of our whole system of government. It is the same kind of a misuse that corruption of the ballot box or that treason is. That is to say, it disturbs the proper working of the representative form of government, and there is no crime in the political calendar which is worse than that. Now, at best, geographical representation is not a totally adequate way of ascertaining the public will. Some day when we become more enlightened than we are now we will have developed a system of proportional representation by which the districts are made up not of people who live in the same territory, but of people whose minds think alike, but until we have reached that we ought to, through our geographical method of representation, attempt to make our districts as far as possible composed of homeogenous people. The whole district of West Philadelphia, which is very much similar, is placed in one district. The whole of South Philadelphia, which has a strong esprit de corps—a strong feeling of homeogenity in its entire district and then in the northwest where Germantown and Chestnut Hill are, where wards are lying around it of a similar nature, is all in one district. Those who have drawn up this bill desire, as is shown by that map (indicating map on the wall) to take the far northwest of Chestnut Hill and couple it with the far northwest, with Frankford and Kensington. The lines of travel don't flow in that direction. The people don't know each other. They don't visit each other; their interests don't lie in common and if they desire to enter by the easiest way to the central part of the city, or if they want to go to the outlying parts, one or the other, there is no direct line of travel. There is no reason for this proposition—there is no reason for it at all, except some obscure political reason and those reasons should have no place in the permanent districting of the City of Philadelphia. The amendment offers a fair and rational and defensible method, but what is contained in the bill as it stands is unfair, is personal, is indefensible and can only be urged for political reasons. The amendment, therefore, ought to prevail.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker, after listening to the remarks delivered in a school master like manner by Mr. Walnut through the aid of his maps, it seems that the principal reason urged is that owing to the shaping of the district in the original bill or the bill as it came from the committee—that it would unite an aristocratic portion of Philadelphia with another portion that was not quite so pretentious. Now, I submit that in order to get intelligent representation, a district should not be composed, exclusively, of one character of people. In order that the people would be well served, I submit that the districts from which they come should be of a mixed character, and when the reasons urged by the gentlemen who have simply referred to the locality being residential and as being composed of people who are not engaged in business, to be taken and be mixed up with a district or portion of a district composed of business people. I submit for the consideration of the House that the position is not well taken and is not well founded. I will state for the sponsor of the bill that as it came from committee that the purpose of making this a special order to-day, was in order that this might be referred back to the committee for the purpose of a reasonable and rational amendment, but I submit that you should not take seriously the remarks made by either Mr. Walnut or Mr. S. B. Scott, because the people that they have referred to as coming from the section of the city that didn't come up to their standard and if they will make an investigation they will find that the residents of that portion of the city may be poor, but nevertheless just as honest as those that come from most exclusive districts. Mr. Speaker, I say this amendment should not prevail and I ask the House to vote it down.

Mr. J. J. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the amendment be corrected and inserted on line eight instead of line ten.

The SPEAKER. The correction will be made.

Mr. J. J. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to say that there is no question about residential section. We would have to come over from West Philadelphia and we would have to jump the river twice to get into our district. It is generally conceded that when Philadelphians want anything they are willing to go along with each other, but here is a case where Philadelphians disagree and I ask the members of the House to concur in the amendment.

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, I want to call the attention of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McNichol, to a portion of our Constitution, which calls upon us, when we apportion our State, to provide compact and contiguous territory for those sections represented in that district. I believe that is the theory upon which we should legislate when we attempt to apportion this State with any representation purpose. We should not tie shoe-string districts together in order to secure a man in a certain political contest. We should recognize that provision in our Constitution and attempt, as far as possible, to provide compact and contiguous territory for our district.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me evident that the sponsor of this bill does not understand what representation means. If there is to be any real representation, the constituency must be, as far as possible, of like mind and in their suggestion, I, for one, believe that we should comprehend the meaning of our form of government.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I believe that before the members of this House can thoroughly understand this amendment, they should understand the political connections of the various sections of the city. The southern portion of Philadelphia, I don't think anybody has any doubt but that it is the Vare district. The center of the city is practically controlled by Senator McNichol; the northern part of the city is controlled more or less by individual ward leaders, owing allegiance or recognizing allegiance to every one of those city leaders. When you get outside of the southern part of the city or the central part of the city or the northern central part of the city, you come into an entirely different condition of affairs. The northeast is practically independent of the domination of anyone of these recognized leaders. The northwest section of the city, which I represent in this House, is also constituted like the northeast section and like West Philadelphia, it is composed practically of the same political complexion. In these independent sections, it merely means that they vote according to the candidate presented to them and they don't vote according to the dictates of any political machine or political boss and that is why they are termed independent. It does not mean that they are of one political party or that they are any more for one political party than for another political party or for a third party, but they desire to have no boss to present or dictate who shall be voted for. In arranging the congressional apportionment, the organization presents to this House the amendment which has been explained by the gentleman, Mr. Walnut. It is not the amendment which consolidates the contiguous and compact form of their several districts of various political complexions to one district. You can follow the other map on the wall and you will see that my statement about the complexion of the political situation in Philadelphia is followed almost in its entirety. There is the southern section of the city represented by one district; there is the central section of the city represented by another district; there is the northern central portion of the city represented by another district; there is the northwestern district and the northeastern district and the northwest central and the west district and the whole ratio for the congressional apportionment of this kind is practically two hundred and twelve thousand to the district.

This amendment as presented, adheres to that ratio as closely as can be, for congressional apportionment. There is no fair way to represent the people unless you have as nearly as possible the same line for the proposition for the reapportionment as presented by the bill as it now lies before this House. You will find that in order to control those sections, they have by some means or another conceived the plan merely of carrying the district of the four wards of the central portion of the city. Such apportionment is unfair to the citizens of Philadelphia. It is unfair to the outlying districts and absolutely to the central portion of the city. This proposition as submitted to this House is practically of the calibre that carried the Republican party down to defeat. The purpose of this proposition will bring about the same condition among the citizens of Philadelphia and will have the same results as that which defeated the Republican party and which resulted in the election of the present Mayor of Philadelphia as against the regular Republican candidate. What was the result that followed when the party was carried down to defeat? Pennsylvania, which up to this time had been the Keystone State, not only of the Union, but of the Republican party, was reduced from giving a plurality of 500,000 for the Republican party down to being the head of a new party, and reduced the Republican vote of this State to the third lowest in the State. Such, Mr. Speaker, is the character of the great mind that inspires this proposition for congressional apportionment in Philadelphia. There is a proposition presented to you members of the House who are absolutely unfamiliar with the political situation in Philadelphia. You will come here and many of you will vote according to what you feel is right and just for the Republican situation in Philadelphia. I disagree with you. You are not voting to sustain the Republican party in Philadelphia if you vote for this amendment, but you are voting to sustain in power that great mind which the citizens of Philadelphia have unfettered and thrown aside. And, Mr. Speaker, your reward, and the reward of every member in this House who votes for that proposition and against this amendment will be a reward like he has been known to reward people in the past. That is the reward that has been handed out in Philadelphia by this great mind that has carried the Republican party down to defeat, and, Mr. Speaker, I hope that every member in this House that votes against this amendment will be rewarded like we know the rewards have been handed out in Philadelphia.

So the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendments were agreed to.

Mr. STRAUSS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer further amendments to Section 1.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

> Amend Section 1, line 76, by striking out the word "counties" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "county."
> Also, strike out the words "and Lehigh" in line 77.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. STRAUSS. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this amendment is to make Berks County a separate Congressional District. We think in Berks County we are big enough to go it alone and I have the word of my friend from Lehigh that they are too big to be attached to Berks County. Therefore this amendment. The population of Berks County, 185,000, is probably, if you look over it, equal or larger than half of the population of the Congressional District mentioned in this bill.

Gentlemen, the sub-committee that drew up this bill does not know Berks County, it seems to me. Berks County, gentlemen, is a land flowing with milk and honey. Our worthy Speaker and the members of the Legislative Committee were down several weeks ago, and if we were to put them on the stand, I am satisfied that they would bear testimony to that fact. Of course, everything that flows is not milk. There is the beautiful Schuylkill that flows through Berks County from the Schuylkill County line and meanders along its beautiful channel to the metropolis of the State, flanked on each side of it by the two biggest railroad systems in the State.

Now, I want to say to the members here from our metropolis, that no matter whether they belong to the first class of Republicans or the second class of Republicans, they should all vote for this amendment to the bill. We are so connected and I want to tell them and the other members of the House that for the next ten or a dozen years it is worth just as much to go to the White House or ask something in Congress if you have the assistance of a member from Berks and a member from Lehigh instead of a member from Berks and Lehigh. I ask that every one support this amendment.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I suggest that it would be a very dangerous matter to tamper with the bill in the manner suggested by the amendment which has been proposed unless the proposition were further carried out by some disposition of Lehigh County. To strike Lehigh County out of this district without providing a place for it would be rather dangerous and bad. I have the highest regards for the people of Lehigh County and I feel that they ought in some measure, some where appear on the Congressional Apportionment Map, and if we deal with this proposition as a single proposition we are going it blindly until we see whether or not Lehigh County can be attached somewhere else, in a way that will be satisfactory to the people of that county. I suggest that the House ought to be in possession of the facts as to what becomes of Lehigh.

Mr. STRAUSS. Mr. Speaker. I want to say in reply to my friend from Allegheny that there will be an amendment offered to take care of that proposition.

Mr. ALLEN. Well, Mr. Speaker, they certainly ought to be offered so the two can be considered together and not singly. It is well and I appreciate the fact, as the gentleman states, that Berks County has a larger population than some of the counties which will have to stand alone in the matter of a Congressional District, but the Constitutional provisions are peculiar in relation to these matters. However great a county may be, if another county joins it and there be no place else to which that county be attached, it must be attached to the larger county, which in itself might support a Congressman; and I suggest that the matters be taken up together, Mr. Speaker, so that we may vote intelligently in relation to the whole proposition.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, this is an amendment that vitally concerns Lehigh County and the gentleman from Berks has so clearly pointed out to you the very good reasons why Berks should be separated from Lehigh. He has told you that it is the largest Congressional District in the State and after due consultation with the members from Berks, and after due consideration, we of Lehigh feel that it is only just and only right that Berks should be separated from us. As a matter of fact, the interests in common between the two counties are very little. There is not the same interest in common that there should be in a congressional district and for the same reasons that were advanced just a moment ago when the amendments were offered regarding the Congressional Districts in Philadelphia, we feel that these two districts ought to be separate. There is not the common interest between the two people living in Lehigh County and living in Berks.

I am going to propose an amendment which will leave Lehigh County with Bucks County when taken from Berks. Lehigh has been with Bucks in former congressional apportionments and it is perfectly agreeable that Lehigh should be linked that way again. There is a greater interest in common between the two counties. We both face the Delaware River; our industries partake of a common nature and if the House believes that our claim is just, we will be perfectly willing and very glad to be apportioned in this manner.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer further amendments.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

SECTION 1

Line 10. Strike out "Dictrict" and insert "District."
Line 29. After "Fourth" insert "Fifth."
Line 30. Strike out "Eeleventh" and insert "Eleventh."
Line 43. Strike out "Crofton" and insert "Crafton."
After "McKees Rocks" insert "Oakdale."
Line 51. Strike out "Chester" and insert "Chartiers."
Before the first "and" insert "Oakdale."
Line 52. Put "." (period) and space after "St."
Line 87. Strike out "Green" and insert "Greene."
Line 109. Strike out "Forrest" and insert "Forest."

Commence "city" with capital "C.," making it "City" in lines following: Lines 9, 11, 15, 17, 21, 24, 27, 30, 34, 40, 49 and 56.

Commence "county" with capital "C.," making it "County" in the lines following: 38, 45, 53, 61, 64 and 75.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment:

Section 1, line 79, strike out the word "Montgomery" and insert in lieu thereof the word "Lehigh."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this amendment is to carry out the promise I made to the House a moment ago when I was speaking on Berks County. I said I proposed to offer an amendment linking Bucks to Lehigh, which had common interests and which made it a very nice congressional district. As I said before, in former congressional apportionments Lehigh and Bucks have been together, and the men of Bucks County, I have spoken with them, and they seem satisfied with this apportionment.

Mr. AMBLER. Mr. Speaker, I hope the House will oppose this amendment. This affects Montgomery County. Our Congressional District is composed of Montgomery and Bucks and we want it to remain just as it is.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I call the attention of the House to the fact that by shifting around the counties in these two districts, under the amendment now up for consideration, that out of these two districts you have made three districts. Now what are you going to do with it? The apportionment provides and only provides for thirty-six districts in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The duty of this Legislature so far as possible is to do exactly what they did with Philadelphia this morning. Two plans were suggested, but you will note one thing, and that is that the same territory covered by the two plans which were suggested worked out to the same end in that seven districts were provided by each plan. One was considered by the House to be more equitable on account of population and contiguity of territory than the other, hence that plan was adopted. Now, a general outline has been made, which is the proposed bill under consideration by this House at this time whereby the State has been divided into thirty-six districts, and equitably on the basis of population, as equitably as could be made perhaps. By simply moving, as you see, lopping off one county and putting that on to another county thereby forming two small districts and leaving a third district still smaller, you have made out of the territory which should be embraced within two districts, three districts. Now in order to equalize that you must let the excess fall somewhere else by enlarging sufficiently to overcome that excess population which now stares you in the face. You must overcome that by a subdivision which will bring the districts again down to thirty-six. And I simply call, Mr. Speaker, the attention of the House to that at this time. You are going to find, if you adopt this amendment which has been offered, that instead of the thirty-six districts provided for, when you finish up this bill you will have thirty-seven districts, and you cannot have that number. This is a work which is largely mathematical and it should be dealt with not hastily, but should be dealt with understandingly, and that was why I suggested, Mr. Speaker, a moment ago, and I think the House now sees its mistake, why I suggested a moment ago that the matter of what becomes of something that is lopped off should appear before the matter is dealt with. The bill starts out with allowing Philadelphia seven congressmen, which it is entitled to in a reapportionment based on population alone. In fact they have an excess in the ratio of apportionment as will be shown by figures on that matter. The ratio throughout the State is 212,920, and Philadelphia's ratio is much in excess of that, the ratio in Philadelphia being 221,280, but they have to be divided into seven districts as nearly on that basis as possible, keeping the districts contiguous. In Allegheny County the ratio of apportionment based upon the entire population gives Allegheny County five congressmen. That apportionment is slightly short on the proportion throughout the entire State,—slightly short. Now that takes out twelve. Then you subdivide the rural districts of this State into twenty-four districts. You have started out and already increased those rural districts one which will make twenty-five unless that surplusage is given away and added on to some other district. You will find by the provisions of this bill as it already stands and was introduced into this House and which came out of the Committee, that there are districts which will run as low as 137,000. You will find that there are districts which run as high where they embrace two or more counties, which run as high as 300,000. But the reason of that, as set out in the old bill, was for the purpose of keeping the districts just as nearly like they are as could be. Now, Mr. Speaker, unless this House takes into consideration and looks ahead as to what is going to become of the surplusage of population, you will find that when you get through with this bill you will have twenty-five or twenty-six or may be twenty-seven districts throughout the rural territory and that cannot be as the members of this House well know. It seems to me, Mr. Speaker, that the suggestion of the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ambler, should receive some consideration in this matter, I believe that perhaps the better plan to have started the consideration of this bill might have been to take up the bill by districts as they were set out and if a district was sought to be changed, to pass that up for the time so that you could then have to embrace in the number of district left that surplusage in which there may be intended changes, and when these intended changes were suggested, the matter could be followed out to the end. I am certain, Mr. Speaker, that if the House takes this action inadvisedly as it seems to me they have already done in the matter of these two amendments, that the House will find itself in a position from which it must recede, and quickly, in order to have a bill drawn which would be an apportionment bill under the Constitutional provisions.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

So the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a further amendment to this bill.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was then read by the Clerk as follows:

> Amend section one, line 80, by striking out the word "counties" and inserting the word "county."
> Also amend section one, line 81, by striking out the words "and Somerset."

The SPEAKER. The question is on the adoption of the amendment.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this amendment is to make Cambria County a separate district. This House has just made a couple of other separate districts, including Fayette County and Lancaster County, which are separate congressional districts. At this time, Cambria County exceeds both of these other counties in population. We have one of the largest steel industries in the world in the City of Johnstown and Cambria County deserves to have a separate congressional district. The increase in population has been greater in Cambria County in the last ten years than in any of those other counties. I took from a handbook these figures on Cambria County and will compare them with the other two counties as to the increase in the population in the last ten years. These figures give an increase in Cambria County in ten years of sixty-two thousand; in Fayette County an increase of ten years has been fifty-seven thousand; in Lancaster County, eight thousand; in Schuylkill, which I do not submit however, there is an increase of thirty-five thousand. I ask as simple justice for this county that it be made into a separate congressional district. I ask also is it not simply justice if these other two counties are made into separate congressional districts, then it would be only fair that Cambria County be made into a separate district and it would not be fair unless you did make it into a separate district. I leave it to the members of the House and I ask that this amendment be adopted.

Mr. HEMMINGER. Mr. Speaker, Somerset County is satisfied. If it was left to a referendum vote, I feel that seventy-five per cent of the voters of both counties would not be in favor of Cambria and Somerset Counties becoming separate congressional districts. Senator Stineman was satisfied with it.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Somerset has stated that he believes that seventy-five per cent of the voters would vote to sustain the district as laid out in the bill. He can probably speak for Somerset County, but not for Cambria County. I believe it has a population of sixty-seven thousand, while Cambria County has a population that has increased in the last census, during the last ten years, sixty-two thousand. I am sure that the people of Cambria County would vote to make Cambria County into a separate congressional district, almost unanimously. We are not discussing the referendum vote. The thing that we have a right to discuss is whether this county which has a population as large as Cambria County has a right to demand on this vote that this county should demand a separate district.

Mr. LOHR. Mr. Speaker, the congressional apportionment committee no doubt spent considerable time and effort on this apportionment bill and we should give due consideration to this matter. If we feel that this amendment should pass without regard to their action then there is no use having a congressional apportionment committee. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Joseph Gray, has seen fit to state to this House, that because Berks County has been made a separate district, having a hundred and eighty-three thousand population, because of that Cambria County with a population of a hundred and sixty-seven thousand should also have a separate district. Why not go down the line a little further and make a county with a certain population, that much lower, into a separate congressional district and go down still further and have all the other counties in the same category and say that they should all have a separate district? I think it is a fair proposition that the line must be somewhere in this in the apportionment district arrangement. I claim that this motion should be voted down. Cambria County with a population of one hundred and sixty-seven thousand and Somerset with a population of sixty-six thousand must of course concur in some action. These cases are cases of that kind. I consider that ninety per cent of the people are satisfied that Somerset should be united with Cambria in one congressional district. There is another reason that I wish to give why Somerset and Cambria should be united as one congressional district; that there are no mountains dividing the two counties and there are commercial and social relations between them that are the same. Johnstown is the largest city in Cambria County and is within one-half mile of the border of Somerset County and Johnstown is a commercial center of both Somerset and Cambria County. The railroads and the public roads unite the two counties and since their commercial and social interests are the same, they should continue to be united as one congressional district. I am also informed that the other members of Cambria County are heartily in favor of the bill as it is today and I ask you to vote down this amendment as being unfair and unjustified in this case.

Mr. MOSES. Mr. Speaker, I represent the southern part of Cambria County which is the most popular section of the county. Our population, the part I represent, is nearly one-half of the county and I believe I am safe in saying that seventy-five per cent of the people in Cambria County are satisfied with the arrangement as laid out by the congressional committee. They are perfectly satisfied to be connected with Somerset and we are opposed to the amendment offered by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Joseph Gray. We started this arrangement some time ago and our late Senator Stineman, from Cambria, and a majority of the representatives from Cambria were perfectly satisfied with this arrangement. We find out at this late day that our member from the northern part of Cambria county is dissatisfied. In the first place, we have a population in my section of fifty-six thousand—a third of the population, and it does not seem reasonable to ask this House to give us a separate congressional district of our own and in the next place, our people are perfectly satisfied with the joint arrangement between Cambria and Somerset Counties at this time and I will ask you gentlemen to vote against this amendment.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Speaker, I am very much surprised that the gentleman from Johnstown is opposed to this amendment. I was under the impression that the gentleman from Johnstown was in favor of this amendment. I know that the other member of Cambria County was heartily in favor of this amendment.

Now, Mr. Speaker, let us get down to brass tacks. Let us find out why there is opposition to this amendment. The opposition to this amendment, Mr. Speaker, is not because of the peculiar relations, business, social and otherwise; the only question, Mr. Speaker, is on account of a little politics. That is what it is. And because, Mr. Speaker, I have taken the position that Cambria County deserves to be a separate congressional district, I am opposed by certain Democrats and by certain Progressives because they think that Cambria County would elect a Republican congressman. That is the whole truth of it, Mr. Speaker, and nothing else. I am a Democrat and I want this House to bear me out in that my politics are not measured on how many Democrats I can put into office and how much money I can get for them. It looks as though Cambria County deserves to be a separate congressional district, if Fayette and Lancaster Counties, which have not increased nearly so much in population are to be separate, and Cambria County is certainly entitled to one, too. But these men who are afraid of this little venture are afraid that the people of Cambria County, if they are given a district, will elect a Republican congressman. Mr. Speaker, that is what they are afraid of and nothing else. That is why they are against this amendment. I stand here as a Democrat, and I as a Democrat can oppose a Republican if it be on some question of political science or economic government. Then I am opposed to them, but I won't oppose this because they might elect a Republican congressman. That is the only opposition there is to this bill. This House can do nothing but even-handed justice for Cambria County by putting this amendment through.

So the question was determined in the negative.

REASONS FOR VOTE.

Mr. MOSES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to file the following reasons for voting no on this bill:

Cambria County is short 46,000 in population necessary to constitute a Congressional District. The Senators and majority of Representatives from Cambria and Somerset Counties are satisfied from a political and commercial standpoint that a District composed of Cambria and Somerset is the best combination that can be made at present. They also believe that this arrangement will be satisfactory to at least seventy-six of all the voters of both counties.

Mr. REESER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer further amendments to this section.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Section 1, line 113, insert after the word "Wyoming" the words "and Sullivan."
Section 1, line 107, strike out the words "and Sullivan"
Section 1, line 113, strike out the word "and" before the word 'Wyoming."

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendments

They were agreed to.

Mr. MOULTHROP. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer further amendments to this section.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Section 1, strike out in lines 115 and 116 the word "Clinton" and insert the word "McKean."
Section 1, line 103, strike out the word "McKean" and insert the word "Clinton."

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the gentleman from Clearfied explain this amendment and the purpose of it.

Mr. MOULTHROP. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this amendment is to leave us in almost the same district as we are at the present time. At present we are composed of Clearfield, Centre, Cameron and McKean, and this simply adds Elk to it and gives to the other district Lycoming, Potter, Clinton and Tioga. Now, the population of our district is 184,916. We think that we ought to have been consulted in this matter. We were not consulted when the Committee met. They agreed to give us a hearing and we did not have it.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, the thirty-first and the thirty-fifth districts will be affected by this amendment. As now constituted the thirty-first district is made up of he counties of Lycoming, McKean, Potter and Tioga. That is a compact and contiguous territory. It comes very near the ratio of population. Those counties are now in the same senatorial district, having the same interests, industrially and commercially, and for every reason which any reasonable man might conceive, that would make an ideal district. The same might be said of the thirty-fifth district. Now, the purpose of amending this bill in the first instance was to correct an injustice which had been done in the previous apportionment which made these two districts ''shoe-string'' districts, so-called. It was purely a gerrymander at that time, and this bill was drawn to correct that. I trust that the amendment offered by the gentleman from Clearfield will not be agreed to. The districts as they now stand in this bill are about equal in population. This amendment would upset that arrangement and it would also make them long drawn out districts, and I cannot see any good reason for the change and trust the amendment will be voted down.

Mr. MOULTHROP. Mr. Speaker, of course if Mr. Flynn is not satisfied to have Elk County in that district, he can offer an amendment and put it in some other, but we feel under the circumstances, since he speaks about these districts being compact, that the district as it now is compact as well. Our senatorial district is composed of Centre and Clearfield Counties. If you vote for the amendments, you are voting for a bill that I am satisfied our district will approve. If you vote for the other, you will vote for a bill which will not be satisfactory to our district.

Mr. FLYNN. I just want to call attention to the population of these two districts as now constituted. The one district would have 201,000 population and the other would have 212,000. Now by the change contemplated by the gentleman from Clearfied it would upset that arrangement and it would make one district much larger in population than the other, namely, 189,000 and 228,000, which would make the districts less compact. I certainly have heard no good reason from the gentleman for adopting his amendment, and I believe his reasons must be purely sentimental.

Mr. MOULTHROP. Mr. Speaker, In reply to the gentleman I want to say that when it came to the Committee and they met they did not give us a hearing as was agreed. I thought the Chairman of the Committee would play fair with me and consider that under the circumstances when he did not give us a chance to be heard on it, that the only chance and the only way was to come before the House. I think the House can see this is a fair proposition. It makes compact districts, both our district and the other district, and I hope you will vote for the amendment.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to antagonize my good friend and colleague, Mr. Moulthrop, but I want to call the amendment to the House's attention, and the amount of territory in the twenty-first district. You are all well aware that Centre County is in the center of the State, the largest surface county in the State. Clearfield County is still on the Northwest of Centre County and we run from more than the center of the State across to the York State line. The former apportionment, prior to the last one, or the one now in existence were as compact. Mr. Moulthrop, no doubt, and other gentlemen of the House know the reasons that we were coupled with McKean. I think part of the Constitution states that these districts should be compact and their interests should be as near in harmony with one another as possible to make them, and if you will take up the Congressional map in Smull's Hand Book, I think any fair minded man in this House will agree with the new apportionment that we are entitled to, in making the new twenty-first district. I hope the members will look over the map showing the distance between the two districts now and I think you will see that it is unfair that this district should stand as it is and I have to differ from my colleague, Mr. Moulthrop, that this amendment should be voted down in justice to the counties regardless of their political faith.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER declared the nays seem to have it.

Whereupon a division was called for, 46 voting in the affirmative and 62 in the negative and the question was determined in the negative and the amendment not agreed to.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments:

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Section 1, line 89: Strike out "and." Insert after "York" the words "and Franklin."
Section 1, line 118: Strike out "Franklin"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

The section as amended was then agreed to.

The second section was then read as follows:

Section 2 The judges of the Nineteenth District shall meet at the court house in the city of Reading in the County of Berks the judges of the Twentieth District shall meet at the court house in the Borough of Norristown in the County of Montgomery the judges of the Twenty-first District shall meet at the court house in the City of Johnstown in the County of Cambria the judges of the Twenty-second District shall meet at the court house in the Borough of West Chester in the County of Chester the judges of the Twenty-third District shall meet at the court house in the city of Meadville in the County of Crawford the judges of the Twenty-fourth District shall meet at the court house in the Borough of Washington in the County of Washington the judges of the Twenty-fifth District shall meet at the court house in the city of York in the County of York the judges of the Twenty-sixth District shall meet at the court house in the City of Harrisburg in the County of Dauphin the judges of the Twenty-seventh District shall meet at the court house in the city of New Castle in the County of Lawrence the judges of the Twenty-eighth District shall meet at the court house in the Borough of Hollidaysburg in the County of Blair the judges of the Twenty-ninth District shall meet at the court house in the Borough of Indiana in the County of Indiana the judges of the Thirtieth District shall meet at the court house in the City of Easton in the County of Northampton the judges of the Thirty-first District shall meet at the court house in the Borough of Wellsboro in the County of Tioga the judges of the Thirty-second District shall meet at the court house in the Borough of Sunbury in the Couty of Northumberland the judges of the Thirty-third District shall meet at the court house in the Borough of Warren in the County of Warren the judges of the Thirty-fourth District shall meet at the court house in Montrose in the County of Susquehanna the judges of the Thirty-fifth District shall meet at the court house in the Borough of Clearfield in the County of Clearfield the judges of the Thirty-sixth District shall meet at the court house in the Borough of Lewistown in the County of Mifflin

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments:

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Section 2, line 41, after "city" insert "borough," commence "city" with capital "C", making it "City" in the lines following: Lines 2, 12, 18 and 23.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

The Section as amended was then agreed to.

The title was then read and agreed to as follows:

An Act to apportion the State into Congressional Districts

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I call attention of the House at this time that Montgomery County now stands outside the pales of this bill, and I move you that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Congressional Apportionment.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SCHUCK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. SCHUCK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny or the Chairman of the Committee or any one that knows, what is the object of referring this bill back to committee now?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, the object will be to bring a bill out that will include every county in the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, so that every citizen of this Commonwealth shall have his representation upon the floor of Congress which he is entitled to under the Constitution.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I do not understand the gentleman's remarks. Do I understand that each county is to have a Congressional Representative, making 67 from this Commonwealth.

Mr. ALLEN. No sir, Mr. Speaker, I did not say that. I said so that each person and each county of this Commonwealth should have proper representation upon the floor of the House.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Of Congress you mean? You think the bill as it now stands does not give that representation?

Mr. ALLEN. I know it does not, Mr. Speaker, for the reason that no provision has been made for Montgomery County, which has been stricken from the bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion to recommit the bill?

It was agreed to.

Mr. AMBLER, asked and received unanimous consent to introduce a bill, the title of which was first read for information of the House.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER. The hour of one o'clock having arrived, this House will take a recess until 3:00 o'clock.

AFTER RECESS.

The House reconvened at 3:00 o'clock P. M.

The Speaker (George E. Alter), in the Chair.

RESOLUTION INVITING SENATOR PENROSE TO ADDRESS THE MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a resolution.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be read by the Clerk.

The resolution was then read by the Clerk as follows

Whereas, The Honorable Boies Penrose, Senior United States Senator from Pennsylvania, is present on the floor of the House, I move that the House take a recess for ten minutes, and request the Senator to address the members.

Mr. GRAMLEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER. This House will now take a recess for ten minutes.

The SPEAKER. Gentlemen of the House, I have the honor to introduce to you a former member of this House, now the senior Senator of Pennsylvania in the United States Senate, the Hon. Boies Penrose.

ADDRESS OF HON. BOISE PENROSE.

The Hon. Boies Penrose spoke as follows:

Mr. Speaker, and Members of the House of Representatives, I assure you I appreciate very much the distinguished compliment which you have conferred upon me in taking this recess and inviting me to address you. I have not, however, any particular matters relating to things pending before you about which to speak to you today. I have called to renew old acquaintances, and to have the pleasure of shaking as many of you as possible by the hand. I began my political career in this body, and was a member of the House of Representatives in the session of 1885. I have just had the pleasure of meeting the gentleman who gave me the book on which I subscribed to the oath of office twenty-eight years ago, and I also had the pleasure of meeting a friend from Cambria County who was a colleague of mine in that Session. These opportunities for the renewal of old acquaintances and friendships, and for the making of new ones are indeed a pleasant episode in a political career. Many prominent men developed from that session. The Hon. John P. Elkin, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of the State was serving his first term at that time. James S. Beacom, subsequently State Treasurer, was likewise a member. C. Wesley Thomas, afterwards Collector of the Port of Philadelphia, and a prominent Republican, was also a member of the Session of 1885. Many others, well known to the Republicans of the State and to many prominent Democrats, were also in that Session.

I congratulate the Legislature on the good work that it has done this session. Most of the matters before you are really not partisan or political, but such as all the people of the State are interested in in the interest of the advancement of humanity and the betterment of conditions. In legislation of that kind Republicans and Democrats and Independents can all co-operate, and I believe from what I have learned here today that when the Speaker brings his gravel down and declares this body adjourned sine die that you will have completed a legislative record of which you may well be proud, and which will be of great benefit to the people of this great Commonwealth. (Prolonged applause.) There may be differences of opinion as to details, and as to methods, but none of us has a monopoly of virtue or of correct opinions. Mutual concessions, conference and reason and sometimes compromise must characterize all legislative acts. But we are all patriotic Pennsylvanians regardless of party or of factional affiliation, and we are earnestly interested as representing the constituencies of this great Commonwealth in all legislation looking to the elevation of labor, the purity of elections and the general advancement and betterment of the people of the State. This Legislature will go down in history as marked by many notable acts. Whatever may be the outcome of some of the bills in the other body, and I make no criticism of the other branch of the Legislature, this House of Representatives has a clear record on the Employers' Liabilities Bill, and on the Election Laws, and what, in my opinion, is of paramount importance to the people of Pennsylvania, on legislation relating to the improvement of the roads of the Commonwealth. I want to see, and I hope we will see within the lifetime of most of those within the hearing of my voice, when the beautiful and magnificient scenery of our great State, and the hundreds of places of great historical interest, not to mention the more practical elements, the questions of transportation, when these maters will be opened up to the people of our State and to the tourists from all over the world by good roads, improved, clean, and open free from constraint to the people all over the Commonwealth. We have within our borders more subjects of patriotic interest than in any other Commonwealth in the sisterhood of States. At one end of the State we have Independence Hall, the scene of the Declaration of our Independence. At the other end of the State, at the headwaters of the Ohio River, we have Pittsburgh, the scene where Washington fought, and where Braddock fell, and where the great struggle was decided whether the Latin or the Anglo-Saxon should control the Continent.

In the east central part of our Commonwealth we have the great field of Gettysburg. People go to Europe to look at Waterloo and the other battlefields, but none of them can compare in patriotic interest or in adornment to the battlefield of Gettysburg. Millions of dollars have been spent to mark the thirty miles length of battle alingment between the two contending forces, here where the high tide of rebellion reached, there where the various regiments were posted, and next Fall one of the most remarkable scenes in the history of the world will occur,—or rather next month,—when the veterans of both armies meet in fraternal union fifty years after the tremendous struggle. And with good roads, people would travel from all over the United States and receive renewed consecration of patriotism on the battlefield of Gettysburg. Not only, therefore, would practical business conditions be advanced, and the price of living be reduced, and the farmers would be enabled to get their produce more cheaply to the railroads, but patriotism and education would at the same time be advanced and promoted and this House in passing the Legislation which it has done this winter has made an advance in that one Winter far ahead of any other State in the whole Union.

Mr. Speaker, the ten minutes allotted by your Resolution has nearly expired and I again reiterate my sincere appreciation of the courtesy extended to me, and the pleasure it has given to me to meet so many old friends and to meet so many new now so active in the affairs of the State.

AFTER RECESS.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the remarks of the distinguished Senator, Honorable Boise Penrose be printed in the Legislative Journal of the House.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was unanimously agreed to.

Mr. GRAMLEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The SPEAKER. The title of the bill will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the title as follows:

An Act providing for the payment of the costs incurred in the trial of convicts and prisoners escaping or attempting to escape from the several penitentiaries and reformatories of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by the respective counties from whose courts the said escaping convict or prisoners have been committed and providing for the maintenance of such convicts under sentence for escape et cetera

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the introduction of this bill? The Chair hears no objection and the Clerk will receive the bill.

House Bill No. 1395 (Senate Bill No. 192).

An Act providing a fixed charge on land classified as auxiliary forest reserves and the distribution of the fund thus set aside for school and road purposes be recommitted to the Committee on Forestry.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON SECOND READING.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1518, entitled:

An Act to amend the first section of an act approved the twenty-fourth day of March one thousand nine hundred five entitled "An Act establishing in counties containing a population of from three hundred thousand to one million a board for the assessment and revision of taxes for State and county purposes prescribing their powers and duties and abolishing the office of ward borough and township assessors in so far as respects the assessment of State and county taxes."

The first, second and third sections of the bill were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in counties of this Commonwealth containing a population of not less than one million or more than one million five hundred thousand as shown by the last preceding United States decennial census all assessments and valuations of property whether real or personal taxable for State and county purposes including occupations shall be made by a board to be designated as the Board for the Assessment and Revision of Taxes for State and county purposes The said board shall consist of three members who shall be elected by the qualified electors of the county At the municipal election of the year one thousand nine hundred thirteen the qualified electors of any such county shall elect three persons as members of said board one to serve for six years one to serve for four years and one to serve for two years from the first Monday of January next succeeding such election Biennially thereafter the qualified electors of such county shall elect one member of such board to serve for six years from the first Monday of January next succeeding such election When any vacancy shall occur in said board more than sixty days before a municipal election the judges of the court of common pleas of the proper county shall appoint a member to fill such vacancy such appointee to serve until the first Monday of January next succeeding the municipal election following such appointment At such municipal election a member shall be elected to fill the unexpired term The board shall designate one of its members as president of the board Each member of the board shall receive an annual salary of four thousand dollars ($4,000)

Section 2 All the powers assigned delegated and conferred and all the duties demanded enacted and required by and under the provisions of section two and section three of an act approved the twenty-fourth day of March one thousand nine hundred and five entitled "An Act etsablishing in counties containing a population of from three hundred thousand to one million a board for the assessment and revision of taxes for State and county purposes prescribing their powers and duties and abolishing the office of ward borough and township assessors in so far as respects the assessment of State and county taxes" shall be and the same are hereby made applicable to the said Board for the Assessment and Revision of Taxes for State and County Purposes as provided for in section one of this act

Section 3 All acts or parts of acts whether general special or local inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

The title of the bill was read as follows:

An Act to amend the first section of an act approved the twenty fourth day of March one thousand nine hundred five entitled "An Act establishing in counties containing a population of from three hundred thousand to one million a board for the assessment and revision of taxes for State and county purposes prescribing their powers and duties and abolishing the office of ward borough and township assessors in so far as respects the assessment of State and county taxes"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment:

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend title. Beginning with the word "to" in the first line, strike out all of said title and insert in lieu thereof "Establishing a Board for the Assessment and Revision of Taxes for State and County Purposes, prescribing their powers and duties and abolishing the office of Ward, Borough and Township Assessors so far as respects the assessment of State and county taxes, in counties containing a population of not less than one million nor more than one million five hundred thousand, as shown by th elast preceding United States decennial census."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

The title as amended was then agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2053, as follows:

A Joint Resolution authorizing the appointment of a joint legislative commission to investigate and report upon the objects methods and practices of the various combinations of fire insurance companies organized and existing in this Commonwealth for the purpose of agreeing upon fixing establishing and maintaining fire insurance rates and to draft and report such legislation as may be deemed necessary authorizing the employment of counsel stenographer and necessary experts by said commission giving it authority to sit after the adjournment of the Legislature and compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers and making an appropriation to meet the expenses of said commission

Whereas, The fire insurance business is a business affected with a public interest and is subject to legislative control and

Whereas, The stock fire insurance companies incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth and the foreign stock fire insurance companies duly licensed to do business in this Commonwealth, acting through their agents and representatives in this State, have divided the entire territory of the State of Pennsylvania into three or more departments, have formed in each of said departments various combinations composed of said domestic companies and of said agents and representatives of foreign companies for the purpose among other things of agreeing upon fixing establishing and maintaining fire insurance rates in some instances in the form of flat minimum rates upon certain classes of risks and in others in the form of rates upon individual risks alleged to have been arrived at through the application of the theory and practice of schedule-rating; and

Whereas, Said fire insurance rates as fixed by said combinations vary greatly in the different localities of this Commonwealth on the same classes of risks; and

Whereas, There is now no legislation governing or controlling the methods and practices of such combinations or authorizing the supervision of said rates which should be adequate to maintain the solvency of the companies but not unreasonable; and

Whereas, The owners of insurable property in this Commonwealth are compelled to pay the rates fixed by said combination because the members thereof control a practical monopoly of the fire insurance business within their respective territories, but have no redress against unreasonable and arbitrary practices and rates adopted and maintained by said combinations through the infliction of penalties upon the members thereof for a violation of rules or rates and through the cancellation of policies in the hands of the holders thereof; therefore

Section 1 Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met That upon the approval of this resolution by the Governor the President pro tempore of the Senate shall appoint two Senators and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three of its members to constitute a joint legislative commission whose duty it shall be to investigate in detail the objects methods and practices of all boards of underwriters rating bureaus or similar organizations associations and combinations of fire insurance companies or their agents or representatives in this Commonwealth formed for the purpose of suggesting establishing fixing or maintaining the premium rates to be paid upon fire insurance policies written upon risks located in this Commonwealth and to report to the next session of the Legislature of this Commonwealth whether in the opinion of said commission such combination of insurance companies or their representatives or agents are in accordance with wise public policy necessary for the maintenance of the solvency of insurance companies and beneficial to the public and if so what if any legislation is necessary or advisable for the proper control and supervision of such combinations and their methods and practices and the supervision by the Commonwealth through any of its departments or governmental agencies of the rates suggested agreed upon fixed established and maintained by such combinations whether as minimum flat rates are arrived at by the application of the theory and practice of schedule rating

An Act to authorize any borough now incorporated or that may hereafter be incorporated to purchase electricity from any corporation individual partnership or any persons manufacturing electricity for commercial purposes and for the use of the inhabitants of said borough and for said purpose to erect apparatus and to pass ordinances regulating the same and making valid the acts of any borough which has heretofore received the sanction of said borough or boroughs or incurred any indebtedness thereby in accordance with the provisions of this act

The first and second sections were read and agreed to as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That form and after the passage of this act all boroughs that are now incorporated or that may hereafter be incorporated shall have the right to purchase electricity from any corporation individual partnership or any persons manufacturing electricity for commercial purposes for the supply and use of said inhabitants of said boroughs and may introduce the arc or incandescent electric light or any other form or style of electricity that may be deemed most expedient and desirable and said boroughs may enact such ordinances as may be proper and necessary to introduce and supply the inhabitants of said boroughs who may desire to use the said electricity in their dwelling houses store-rooms and other places in said boroughs and regulate by ordinances the prices to be charged for the same

Section 2 Before any debt shall be contracted or incurred by any borough for the supply of elecricity for the purposes mentioned and specified in section one of this act the question of their right to increase the debt of said borough for said purposes shall first be submitted to the qualified voters of said borough in the manner now provided by law for the increase for the indebtedness of municipal coroprations in this Commonwealth

The third section was read as follows:

Section 3 That the provisions of this act shall apply to all boroughs now incorporated and which may have already submitted the question of the right to increase the debt of said boroughs for the purpose of procuring or erecting electric light plants for the better protection of said boroughs and supplying with electricity for private manufacturing or commercial purposes to its citizens and the same has been approved by said citizens and all bonds heretofore authorized to be issued and all indebtedness heretofore contracted or incurred by said boroughs in the manner now provided by law for the submission of the right to increase the debt of said boroughs for said purposes is hereby made valid and confirmed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

Amend Senate Bill 215 file folio 251, section 3, by striking out all of section 3

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I scarcely believe that the members of the House who have been so prompt in their responses know what the bill provides for or the purposes of this amendment, and I scarcely think that the House would care to perpetrate what in effect would be a fraud upon the people of any borough under any circumstances. In this bill, section one and section two provide for the issuing of bonds by a vote of the people for the purchase of an electric light plant. So far as those sections are concerned, it is but the re-enactment of existing laws. And the third section allows a borough that has already voted for a bond issue for the purpose of building an electric light plant to divert the funds secured from the proceeds secured by that sale of bonds to another purposes and to buy electric current from a private party. If money has been secured by an issuance if bonds for any purpose, if this money is to be used for other purposes, it should be left to the vote of the people of that borough, and this Legislature ought not to deprive them of their rights.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to state that this bill was offered to correct a situation that existed in York County in the borough of Goldsborough. Under the present electric light laws it is impossible to supply current to the citizens of the boroughs direct from the central electric light plant. The Yorkhaven Power Company at present operates a plant in the near vicinity of Goldsborough. Before there was a possibility of getting the power from the electric light company, from the York Haven Company, and ordinance was passed to permit the borough to borrow money for the purpose of erecting its own plant, but it has since been discovered that the citizens of Goldsborough can secure their electricity at Yorkhaven much cheaper than from their own plant. This act is merely a remedy act and would give them the right to use the money secured by the issuance of those bonds for the erection of a plant which would be entirely too expensive and useless, it would allow them ti use it for the purpose of getting the electric light direct from the Yorkhaven Power Plant, and for that reason I ask you gentlemen of the House that this bill be permitted to pass, and further that the people of Goldsborough be permitted to secure the light as directly and cheaply as it can be done under existing conditions. If the amendment of the gentleman from Crawford previls, it will mean that the citizens of this particular borough will be put to a great deal of expense so far as heating and lighting by electricity is concerned, and their lighting and heating facilities will be greatly impaired. I, therefore, ask you to vote against this amendment.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would scarcely believe that the gentleman from York would undertake to persuade this House that it is necessary to use the proceeds of the sale of bonds to buy the electric current from a private company. The gentleman does not allege, and it is not the purpose of this bill to purchase a plant now owned by a private concern, but only to pay for current that may be purchased from time to time. When these bonds were issued and sold by the people of Goldsborough, it was on the assumption that the Borough would erect an electric light plant, and have that plant as a asset out of which the bonds would be paid at maturity.

It added to the valuation of the municipal property but now after securing the money and having money in their treasury, they want to put that fund, not to the purchasing of another plant so there will be something for this bond issue, but simply to expend the money from time to time piecemeal in paying for the ground that they may buy from the private concern. It is a fraud upon the people of these boroughs to undertake to divert this fund in that way and it is a fraud upon the purchasers of these bonds to undertake to use that bond for some purpose that will not settle an asset to the borough toward the payment of the bonds at maturity.

BILL STRICKEN FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. GEARY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, at this time I was not prepared to take up a thorough discussion on this bill but at the time the law was passed relating to power plants, the act of 1891, the plant at York Haven was not completed. Now, the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Humes, speaks of an electric light plant as an asset to the borough. Is it a plausible proposition that any borough should erect an electric light plant and install electrical machinery at great expense when that same borough can use these same bonds to purchase electricity from a large plant that is operated by water power? Is it plausible that they should erect such a plant when a cheaper method can be resorted to? This proposition is apparent; that is the proposition in that borough that we are up against here. They have here passed a law for the purpose of acquiring the rights to secure electrical power. Since that law was passed, they find that they can secure their power very much cheaper than if they are compelled to erect their own plant, and that is the only purpose. It is a question of economy on the part of the people of the borough. I ask you gentlemen to vote down this motion to strike this bill from the calendar.

The SPEAKER. The question is on the motion to strike the bill from the calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORT OF THE INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE IN THE CASE OF JUDGE BRUMM.

Mr. STONE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to present a report of the Investigating Committee, appointed by this House, of the case of Judge Brumm of Schuylkill County. There is a minority and a majority report.

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of our committee, appointed to investigate Judge Brumm, I move that the report and the testimony taken be printed in pamphlet form in a number sufficient to supply the members of the House, and that further action of this matter be postponed until such printed reports are in possession of the members of this House.

Mr. CLAYCOMB. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, is this a motion to print all the testimony?

The SPEAKER. It was so stated. The testimony is part of the report.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that that is a pretty big proposition. There is considerable testimony involved in that report.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will apprehend that as there will likely be a contest in the House as to whether the majority or the minority report should be adopted, it is almost necessary that the members should have a report of the proceedings. The volumne sent up to the desk is not as formidable as it looks. There are three copies of each report.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I didn't understand that.

The SPEAKER. The question is on the motion to have this report postponed for printing.

The motion was unanimously agreed to.

SENATE BILL NO. 485 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. HERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that Senate Bill No. 485, entitled:

An Act relating to motor vehicles trailing after or propelled by motor vehicles regulating their speed upon the public streets and highways in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania providing for their registration and licensing of certain operators by the State Highway Department prohibiting the operation of any motor vehicle by any person when intoxicated or without the consent of the owner forbidding the passage of any law laying a tax upon or requiring the registration of motor vehicles or licensing of any operator or regulating the speed of motor vehicles by any county borough city incorporated town or township establishing the rights of motor vehicles upon the public highways with relation to other vehicles providing for their equipment and for the width of tires to be used upon motor vehicles and vehicles trailing after or propelled by motor vehicles regulating the service of process and proceedings in actions for damages arising therefrom providing for arrest and for service of process and proceedings for violation of this act prescribing the penalties therefor and providing for the disposition of fees collected and fines imposed thereunder

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1974 (Senate No. 827), as follows:

A Supplement to an act entitled "An Act to create a system of fire wardens to preserve the forests of the Commonwealth by preventing and suppressing forest fires and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing for the compensation of the fire wardens and those who assist in extinguishing fire and making an appropriation therefor" conferring authority upon the Department of Forestry to enter into co-operative relations with local associations established for the purpose of preventing forest fires and providing for and regulating a local fire patrol and the compensation thereof

Whereas The question of forest fires and their suppression has become a serious problem within this Commonwealth the losses therefrom amounting to large sums of money each year which losses ought to be prevented by adequate legislative authority and assistance and

Whereas local associations for the prevention and suppression of forest fires have been established in different parts of the Commonwealth composed of owners of land with timber growing thereon whose lands are every year subjected to the menace of forest fires and

Whereas It is desirable that the Department of Forestry co-operate with such associations and render assistance to them in accomplishing to the best advantage the work which they are established to do therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Department of Forestry is hereby authorized to enter into co-operative agreements with local forest fire associations within this Commonwealth for the prevention and suppression of forest fires and is hereby authorized to expend from its general forest fire appropriation for this purpose a sum of money equal in amount to the amount which shall be expended by each local association for the employment of proper persons to patrol such lands during those danger seasons of the year known as the forest fire seasons and for such period of time each season as in the judgment of the local association and the Department it is necessary or expedient to maintain such regular patrol and under such terms and conditions made with such local associations as in the judgment of said department will produce the best and most satisfactory results in the prevention and suppression of forest fires Provided that such expenditure by the Department shall not exceed thirty dollars per month for each patrolman

Section 2 Every such local forest fire protection association shall render to the Department of Forestry at the end of each calendar year a report showing the number of acres of land comprised within the activities of the association and an itemized statement of all receipts and expenditures during the year for which the report is rendered And in case no appropriation shall be made by the Legislature for forest fire and protective work at any future time all such co-operative agreements subsisting at that time shall be construed as being suspended during such interval for which no appropriation is made Said local association shall also report any general resuts of the work that the Commissioner of Forestry may desire

Section 3 The fire seasons hereinabove mentioned shall not be construed by reason of the act to which this act is a supplement as being limited to the periods of time stated in the eighteenth section thereof

Section 4 When any group of land owners desire to organize themselves into a mutual forest fire protective association they shall promptly notify the Commission of Forestry of their intent if it be the desire of such land owners to avail themselves of the benefits of this act.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2009 (Senate No. 992), as follows:

An Act providing for the rechartering of building and loan associations or companies after expiration of their charter and for the taking over of all of the property and assets by the re-chartered corporation

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That all building and loan asociations whose charters have expired by lapse of time from their own limitations may apply for a re-charter or have their charter renewed under the provisions of the general incorporations act of April twenty-ninth Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations" and its supplements and amendments thereto in the manner provided for under section forty of said act in the same manner and with like effect as if such re-charter had been applied for prior to the expiration of the original charter

Sectin 2 All of the rights privileges powers immunities lands properties and assets of whatsoever kind or character the same may be possesed and owned by the said original corporation either during their chartered existence or after their charter had expired shall vest in and be owned and enjoyed by the said re-chartered corporation as fully and with like effect as if their original charter had not expired and all suits actions claims and demands of whatsoever character the same may be heretofore started and concluded by said corporations after their charter had expired shall be as good and effectual and have the same force and effect as though instituted during the period of their chartered existence

Section 3 All suits claims and demands of every nature and charter in existence at said re-charter may be collected from and of the said re-chartered corporation as fully and with the like effect as if their charter had not expired

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,
